Walters Falls (Special to The Standard) Mrs. E. Ballard, of Toronto, returned to the city last week from short visit with her mother, Mrs. I. Bonnell. Miss Marks, our teacher, is spending the week-end holiday at her home in Woodstock. Dae Strain and O. Olmstead, of the S. C. I., and Misses O. Quinton and J. Ferris, of Meaford, are spending the week-end at their respective homes here. The Masquerade Social on Halloween was quite a success and was very enjoyable. The hall was nicely decorated with pumpkin lanterns, black and white streamers, and long tables of all sizes and shapes, and some of them quite picturesque. The costumes worn were very good and some of them quite picturesque. Singing, as a body, and in groups, so some piano solos, was the form of the musical part of the program. The parade and judging of the masquerade was expertly watched over by thirty persons taking part. The prizes were boxes of home-made candy, and the winners were as follows: Prettiest Costume, Gipsy, Miss Marks; Best Dressed Couple, Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers; Mr. Darnley, Miss Olmstead; Best Character Representation, Mr. Little; Best Costume, Indian Maid, Miss McKessock; The masks were then removed, and a few games played, while lunch of pie and sandwiches was being prepared. The admission fee was 15 cents and the proceeds amounted to $26.00. Mr. Neil Morrison, who recently had him house by fire, has sold his farm to Mr. Robert Addison and is having a sale on Wednesday of this week. Messrs. T. G. Broad, of Owen Sound, and R. H.
