The first meeting of the recently organized Teacher Training Class was held at the manse on Monday evening of this week. In spite of the raging of one of the worst storms of the season, there was a really fine turnout of Bible students; and the leader was greatly encouraged by this demonstration of interest and loyalty. In a time when people in general are more inclined to seek entertainment than to put forth serious effort in the direction of self-improvement or of service to others, the attitude taken towards the Teacher Training Class is a splendid tribute to the appeal of the things worth while.
