Hockey James Elliott

The Shelburne-Dundalk Hockey team was defeated by Guelph in the latter city on Wednesday night by a score of 6 to 0. The visitors were short Ridley and Armstrong, of Dundalk, and had been on the train for eleven hours without anything to eat. This weakened condition they were to match for the Guelphites, whom they had defeated quite easily in Shelburne a few nights previously. Mercer and Beard, of this place, were on the line-up and both did excellent work.

Shelburne hockey team came here on Tuesday evening and were defeated by the locals by a score of 14 to 0. The visitors were handicapped by being short several of their regulars. The locals were represented by the following players: Goal, F. Stoddart; defences, A. Murdoch, M. Henry; wings, H. York, B. Hamilton; centre, P. Kelly; subs., A. Stoddart, H. McLaughlin, M. Littlejohns. Referee, Geo. McTavish.

The Snappy Six went to Shelburne on Tuesday afternoon and won from the girls of the would-be-mining town by 4 to 2. The team from here were: Goal, Edith Armstrong; defences, Doris Boyd, Dorcas Purvis; wings, Miriel Walker, Jean Walker; centre, Anna Jackson; subs., Lucille Stephenson, Agnes Sullivan.

Mrs. Sarah Rowswell
 (Brookville Times)
 The death occurred at the residence of her son, S. H. Rowswell, of Cleveland, Ohio, on Tuesday, Jan. 9, 1923, of Sarah Rowswell, widow of Mr. John Rowswell, at the age of 84 years. The only surviving member of her own family is one sister, Mrs. Louisa Rowswell, of Portland, Ore. She was born in 1839, and on June 1, 1857, she was married to Mr. John Rowswell, of Brookville, Ont. The funeral service was conducted from A. L. Campbell's parlors. The deceased came East a year ago and was 84th year old in Cleveland. Her death claimed her. Her son, S. H. Rowswell, of Edmonton, was in a visit and was about to return home when called to Cleveland. One daughter, Mrs. Dowsett, accompanied the body to the funeral.

Death of Norman Brown
 (Brookville Times)
 The death of Norman Brown, the twenty-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Brown, of Brookville, Ont., occurred at the residence of his father on Tuesday, Feb. 20, 1923. He was 20 years of age and had been in the hospital for some time. The cause of death was influenza. The funeral service was held at the residence of his father on Wednesday, Feb. 21, 1923.

Death of Mrs. M. M. M. M.

This and That
(By The Janitor.)
 Outward appearances go not always tell the truth.
 Saying nasty things will do you less harm if left for the other fellow to say.
 Waiting for opportunity to pick them up has left many fellows out in the cold.
 The best man in is brought out when he forgets himself to render assistance to some one else.
 There's one consolation. Fifty years from now, somebody will be referring to those good old days.
 There may be a good many mean fellows in this world, but there are a mighty lot of real good fellows who don't advertise all the good things they do.
 It's peculiar that so many of us on our journey from Jerusalem to Jerusalem fail to recognize the poor Israelites wandering and bleeding by the roadside.

In Memoriam
 In loving memory of Robert McLaughlin, who died February 23rd, 1919.
 The kindly gates were open wide,
 A gentle voice said "come",
 And with a friendly smile,
 He gently beckoned home.
