"The most Delicious Tea you can buy"Strathavon

(Special to The Standard)

The Women's Institute of Strathavon presented on Wednesday evening in the L. O. E. hall here a play entitled "The Widow McGinty," a delightful Black Irish comedy. Mrs. McGinty, widow of the late Dan McNamee, Patrick O'Hooligan an alderman, and Barney McNamee were both entries for the widow's hand and the tricks they played on each other were very amusing and a auction occurred whenever they met. "Mikey" Scobell and Barnstorm Walker were suitors for the widow's two daughters, Rosalie and Mary Ellen. Many amusing scenes took place. Snowball White was the good-humored negro servant who kept the audience in laughter. A little plot of Katie's tested O'Hooligan's affections which were found wanting and Muldowney married the widow. Between acts Mr. T. Morrison gave some splendid Scotch songs. Snowball also entertained the crowd by mouth organ selections, accompanied by Miss Marshall. Miss Marshall gave a splendid Irish reading. The characters were: Barney McNamee, Morrison; Patrick O'Hooligan, George Morrissey; Mikey Scobell, Melville Morrison; Snowball White, Ian Terrie; Bridget McGinty, Irene Foster; Rosie Christina Long; Mary Ellen, Mabel Morrison; Katie, Bette Stewart. The financial results of the performance were also very gratifying.

Get Busy on Renewals

Lives of poor men oft remind us,
Honest men don't stand a chance,
The more we work there grows but blind us.

Bigger patches on our pants, . . .

On pants once new and glossy,
Now are stripes of different hue,

All because subscribers linger and won't pay us what is due.

Then let us be up and doing,

Spend your mite, however small,

Or when April's showers wet us,

We shall have no pants at all.

Who May Be Chosen Jurymen.

The general public is perhaps not aware of who may or may not be chosen to act as jurymen. No man who is over sixty years of age can be chosen. Others barred from occupying seats in the jury box include ministers, newspapermen, lawyers, physicians, surgeons, dentists, chemists, veterinary surgeons and school teachers.

Cancel Your Receipt Stamps

As it is now compulsory to place a two cent stamp on all receipts for a dollars and over, business men and others are cautioned to cancel the stamps placed on such receipts. The issuer of a receipt who fails to cancel the stamp, is liable for a $100 fine.

Years steal fire from the mind
As vigor from the limb;
And life's enchanted cup
But sparkles near the brim;

So wrote Lord Byron many years ago but there's a world of truth in the couplet.

Mrs. Knight, of New Zealand, took the long trip across the Pacific and this continent to nurse her mother.

Mrs. Ford, who is seriously ill at the home of Mr. Pat. Fogarty, where she has been housekeeper since the death of his beloved partner.

An ill-tempered, crooked spruce took a side spring at your scribe on Saturday forenoon and he's wearing a blooming big bog sprout since.

Mrs. H. V. Beaton and bonnie baby Blanche Agnes, have been spending over a week at her parental home, Mr. and Mrs. George Peart.

Many neighbors are welcoming

Mr. and Mrs. David Robinson and family, of Normandy, to Glenelg.

They are fine citizens, progressive farmers and have secured a grand old homestead.

In forty-seven years since the Mohawk family moved to Edge Hill neighboorhood, and during those years they have taken a prominent part in the affairs of the Township.

Many regret their removal.

It doesn't need a big crowd to make a successful auction sale.

This was realized at Mr. A. G. Blair's on Monday afternoon, when Dr. J. S.

Shephardson held his first sale in this Township.

By a few tactful remarks he won the goodwill of the bunch and bidding was brisk and the prices fairly good.

The local mills are getting quite a stock of logs. Mr. Jos. Vasey has some first quality maples and Mr.

Jas. C. Ross has quite an assortment of soft timber.

A very happy wedding took place at 4 o'clock on Wednesday evening, at the cosy home of Mr.

and Mrs. J. S. McSally when their eldest daughter, Miss Carrie, became the bride of Mr. Allen Brown, of Eremont. The bride was given away by her father and the wedding ceremony was performed most sweetly by Mrs. C. G. Cole, Rev. Mr. Cole, pastor of both parties, officiated.

After the ceremony many hearty good wishes were rendered by the happy young couple, after which a most sumptuous dinner was served to about fifty guests. In the evening as many guests gathered and made them the recipients of some costly presents. The young couple begin the new life under bright prospects and have the esteem and good wishes of a wide circle of friends.

Quite a number of fair ones gathered at the home of Mrs. J. O.

Greenwood on Thursday afternoon, of last week, at the monthly institute meeting and had a bright program.

At the close of the session Mrs.

Greenwood served a tasty luncheon.

Mrs. J. McSally has had a relapse or two from the flu, which developed into pleurisy, and her mother, Mrs.

D. Sweeney, who was nursing her, has been a sufferer from bronchitis.

While not altogether out of danger

Mr. Archie McArthur is gradually recovering.

Mr. Hugh Wright and his sisters,

Misses Minnie and Edna, spent the first of the week with kindred in Durham.

(Intended for last week.)

Mr. Wm. Matthews, of near Mt.

Forest drove up on Saturday to visit his daughter, Mrs. John Murphy, at the 10th Con.

The roads are somewhat rough and topsy turvy since the thaw.

Mrs. James Lavelle, after assisting to nurse her mother, Mrs. Peter

O'Neill, for some days, returned home to Stratford on Monday.

Mr. W. J. Reiche, Township Treassurer, sold one of his farms on the 2nd

Con. on Friday last to Mr. H. H. Mac-

Donald, the new Township Clerk.

This will bring the two officials close together and will prove a great convenience to the greater numbers of the taxpayers.

It is reported that Harry Grey has purchased the farm formerly owned by Mr. Neil McGillivray on the 2nd

Con. N. D. R. Harry is a splendiferous mechanic and will make farming a success as well.

Mrs. Patrick O'Neill, a grain type of pioneer, passed away on February

28th at the home of her daughter,

Alice (Mrs. J. Gaftney), after an illness of a few weeks. She was born in Ireland, but came to Canada with the family when but a child. Her maiden name was Margaret Connolly, and nearly 60 years ago she was wedded to Mr. O'Neill, who passed on before twenty-seven years ago.

The union was blessed with a family of nine, four strong progressive sons and five graceful daughters, as follows: Thomas of Kenilworth; Albert, of Perry Sound; William, in Sask.; Joe, who died a few years ago; Emilia, Sister St. Lawrence, of St. Joseph's Convent, Toronto; Alice, Mrs. J. Gaftney, with whom she made her home the past seven years; Adeline, Mrs. Robt. O'Hagan, Toronto; Anne, Mrs. James Darcey, Glengowan, Sask.; Maggie, Mrs. Walter Ehrhart, Brandon, Man.; Mrs. O'Neill had reached a good old age, well up in the eighties and has had wonderful vigor and vitality until shortly before her death. She was a devout Roman Catholic, and during the many years spent by the 4th Con. proved a most helpful neighbor. The females were brought to Ceylon on Friday and Saturday.
