... March 19th, Mr. ... Paul had the misfortune ... and fell, but managed to clasp ... which kept her from fall- ... meeting with the above ... at Dr. Guy's ... and we hope that Mrs. Paul ... recover. It was the anniversary of her wedding day, having married 50 years ago at Collingwood and lived retain in Artemesia Township. They are blessed with 8 children, 20 grandchildren and 1 great-grandchildren. The family circle has only been broken twice in all these years, and that by two grandchildren in infancy. This is a great record. Mrs. Paul's maiden name was Miss Elizabeth Armstrong, and her birthplace was Eugenia. They are highly respected couple, being ... members of the Methodist church. Mr. Paul was for many years the superintendent of the Methodist S.S. here. Mr. and Mrs. Paul are still engaged farming and are still hale and hearty, with the exception of Mrs. Paul's accident on Monday. Their ages are 73 and 69 years respectively. Their children are as follows: Sam, of Lang, Sask.; Margaret (Mrs. Richard Bentham), of Flesherton; Wm. of Arcoid, Sask.; Sarah (Mrs. Bob Smith) Eugenia; John, of Khedive, Sask.; George, of Arcoid, Sask.; Gertie (Mrs. Wm. Nixon), of Amulet, Sask., and Ruth, (Mrs. R. ... Catt), of the West, but who is at home at present.

The funeral cortege of Mrs. George Allen, of East Mountain, passed here en route to Markdale Cemetery, on Friday, of last week. Mrs. Allen has been bedfast since last fall. About two years ago she underwent an operation and although not fully recovered, she seemed to be enjoying good health until last fall. She has been a patient sufferer until Wednesday last, when she passed peacefully away to the "Beautiful Land Afar." Her maiden name was Lucy Simons. About ten years ago her husband predeceased her. She leaves to mourn her loss three daughters, all of whom were school teachers, viz: Hazel, (Mrs. Comford Thompson), on the homestead, East Mountain; Annie, (Mrs. Clarke Teed), of Duncan; and Pearle, who had been teaching near Mount Forest, and had resigned her school a few months ago to be near her mother's bedside.

Friend after friend departs;
Who hath not lost a friend?
There is no union here of hearts.
That hath not here an end.

We extend our sympathy to those in bereavement.

WALL PAPER
Solves every decorating problem

THE patterns we are showing this Spring reveal a wealth of new ideas in Wall Decoration. Particularly is this true of the famous BOXER Papers, of which we have a fine assortment—all 2½ inches wider than the old type of Wall Paper. This means easier hanging; but, more important still, it means that you have a more beautiful room, owing to the fewer seams and the more attractive designs made possible by the increased width.

Our collection never before reflected so much of taste and richness.

For your Spring decorating take advantage of the splendid assortment we are showing.
