The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. O. W. Phillips on Wednesday afternoon, last and was very interesting one. Together with the business done, entertainment was given by Mrs. Wm. Henry and Miss Agnes Henderson, who rendered a pleasing duet; Mrs. Henry who gave a good reading and Mrs. Geo. McTavish, who gave an excellent paper on "The Secrets of Keeping Young." At the close a splendid hot supper was served, which was well patronized by many citizens who dropped in to help the ladies in their work for the Memorial Park. Proceeds were $23.00.

The annual Thank-offering meeting of the Methodist Mission Band was held in the church last week and was well attended and the offering was good, $35.00 being contributed. During the session, Miss Thelma Wilson and Miss Jean Lewis gave a well rendered duet; Jeannette Cargoe, Helen Welton and Blanche Patton, a pleasing trio; and Miss Elaine Benge, who gave a sweetly sung solo. At the close refreshments were served.

Mr. Alfred Down, whom we report of very ill last week, passed away at his home at Cleveland, April 10, after an illness of several years duration, which baffled the best medical skill and nursing he received. His brother, here, rendered the last rites and attended the funeral on Thursday last. Mrs. Karstedt, here, is his only surviving sister. (The deceased, who was 63 years of age, was born in Oxford County, near Newstead, at eight years of age he came with his parents to Artemesia and grew to manhood on the fourth line, highly respected in the community. After marriage he continued farming until moving to Cleveland thirty-three years ago. Mr. Down was twice married, first to Miss Millie Taylor of Woodstock, and later to Miss Nellie Hogan, of Cleveland, who survives him, together with one daughter, of his first marriage.)

The Ladies' Aid and W. M. S. held their meeting for the month at the home of Mrs. John McKeown on Tuesday afternoon.

At the conclusion of business, many refreshments were served by the hostess and a pleasant social time was spent.

Mr. Bollenbach making progress on the well being of the steam engine, but some blasting has been necessary for the removal of boulders struck. The explosions have been distinctly felt in the village.

Mr. Alex. Hunter moved recently from Stone's Line to the farm purchased from Mr. B. D. Ferris on the East Backline.

Mr. Fred Russell moved last week from the Davis farm, Toronto Line, North, to the farm purchased from Mr. Geo. Chapman on the East Backline. The latter, we learn, will live at Durham, but the view of moving a large company of young people and neighbors had a pleasant time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell.

Mr. D. McKillop has purchased from Mr. Armstrong the new residence near the Baptist church occupied by Mr. W. Brown, who vacates in May, when the purchaser's son, Mr. E. McKillop, and family will move in.

At a mortgage sale at the Mulshaw House here on Friday last, conducted by Auctioneer Waddell, a fifty-acre farm on the 12th Concession, Osprey was sold to Mr. Ed. Rutherford, of Proton Station.

After the Markdale and Innesville Epworth League debate last week, in which the latter won, the visitors from Markdale were entertained at tea by the Innesville League at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Martin.

We join in congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bellamy, a very highly esteemed couple of this place, who celebrated the 30th anniversary of their wedding day on Monday, April 9th. The wife held the honor of being best man at their nuptials, which took place at the home of the bride in Osprey, from where the young couple is returning to Toronto on their honeymoon. We would note that at that time, when the Flesherton station was bad there being, they are now, banks of snow in many places. Mr. and Mrs. Bellamy have resided here constantly since their marriage, but the former lived here many years before. He has been forty years Antonesia Township Clerk, and for many years Village Clerk and Justice of the Peace.

A death which was a great shock to the community was that of Mrs. Susan Duncan, who died at her home, 120 Dundalk, on Friday last, April 8th, 1923, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edwin S. Penny, Mount Dennis. She had been ill for some weeks, and she left her home here in her usual health to visit her daughter and her son-in-law, who have a family of four children, who have the company of her friends. On Saturday evening the remains were brought to the home of her son here, from where the funeral took place on Monday to the public cemetery. An impressive service was held in the Presbyterian church, conducted by the pastor, assisted by Rev. J. H. Oke. The text for the service was from Romans 8:28. "The gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ, Our Lord." Fitting reference was made to the example of the deceased. Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Blackburn said: "Peace, Perfect Peace," and the choir rendered "My Sovereign Lord of All."

Mrs. Duncan was a life-long member of the church, and participated in the work of the W. M. S. and Ladies' Aid Society. Beautiful floral tributes were given by the Ladies' Aid; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Duncan and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Duncan, Flesherton; Mr. and Mrs. Penny; Mr. and Mrs. W. Beskin; Mr. and Mrs. J. and Mrs. A. Scott, of Toronto; relatives from a distance at the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Penny; Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Regan; Toronto; and Mr. E. H. Turner, of Paisley. The deceased, who was 64 years of age, was born in Lincolnshire, England, where she lost her mother. At seven years of age she came to Canada with her father and brothers and lived for several years in York County, after coming to Artemesia, she was first married to Mr. James Shaul, of Eugene, by whom she had one son, Mr. John Shaul, surviving her, and being at Wallard, Sask. Her second husband, the late Mr. McKenzie Duncan, died 13 years ago, a few months after the death of her son, Her youngest son, old. One son, Frank, of this place, and one daughter, Mrs. Penny, of Toronto, survive her. She also leaves a stepson, Wesley Duncan, at Seattle, and two brothers, Charles and J. H. Turner, the former at Eugene, and the latter at Paisley, and one sister, Mrs. Geo. Orier, of Columbus, Ohio.

At the Young People's meeting in the Methodist church on Monday evening a spirited and interesting debate took place, the subject being, "Resolved, that the automobile has been of more benefit to mankind than the telephone." Dr. Murray presided and Mrs. Rayner, Miss Holmes and Miss Henderson acted as judges. The affirmative was taken by Miss Mildred Caswell and D. J. Bonham, and the negative by Frank Thurston and George T. Pennington. The judges had some difficulty in making a decision. Miss Viola Thistlethwaite sang a solo sweetly, and Miss Elizabeth Bonham gave a well rendered piano solo.

Wheels are running, but snow banks yet in places. The mail carriers on rural routes are finding it difficult to make their rounds.

The friends here of Mr. George Watson, of Priceville, a former resident of this place, sympathize with his illness from a paralytic stroke a few days ago.

Mrs. John Heard, of this place, has the sympathy of her numerous friends here, on account of the death of her aged mother some days ago.

Miss Catherine McDonald died at the home of her brother, Mr. D. A. McDonald, West Backline, Artemesia, on Sunday. The funeral takes place this Tuesday to Priceville cemetery. The family pastor, Rev. F. G. Fowler, will officiate.

Mr. John Fawcett, in the heavy business here, sold his store at Woodhouse and Mrs. Fawcett has joined him here, occupying rooms in Mrs. Hanley's residence.

Miss Reta Bellamy and Miss Agnes Henderson are making a short visit in Owen Sound this week.

Mr. John Jones, McMaster University student, supplied the Baptist pulpit here on Sunday.

Mr. A. M. Gilchrist is having some improvements made in his residence here, from Mr. Wm. Trimble, and will move in this week. On account of Mrs. Trimble's weakness in her continued illness, she is making the long move to her new apartment, but will be nursed a little longer in the old home.

Mr. G. Mitchell is having new apartments completed in the Standard Building, from Mr. C. T. Batty, who will move in when completed. Mr. David Dow, builder, is doing the work in progress on Mr. C. T. Batty's new premises on the corner of the drug store. Mr. John Thisworth is now engaged on it.

A large number of the young people of the village and vicinity were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. DeCunore and Mr. and Mrs. McEwen at parties given on Friday evening last.

Mr. F. B. Blythe spent the week-end with friends in Toronto.

Division Court was held here on Friday last. But the sitting was short.

Mr. Mark Wilson spent most of last week in Toronto, returning home on Monday.
