W. R. GRAHAM, MANAGER

Flesherton

(Special to The Standard.)

Rev. F. G. Fowler, who recently received the degree of Bachelor of Divinity from Manitoba College, is being presented with a Bachelor of Divinity Hood by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church here as a token of esteem from the congregation. Unavoidable delay in procuring the hood prevented the presentation being made to Mr. Fowler before his departure from Flesherton, but the nice memento is being forwarded to him at Carleton Place, Ont., this week.

A bad accident occurred on the Collingwood Road a few evenings ago, when in collision with a car driven by T. Woods, a valuable young horse belonging to Arthur Chard, 4th line, was terribly cut and the buggy attached badly damaged, but fortunately the driver escaped injury. The horse was so wounded it was feared it would not recover, but we learn it is improving. In the mixup the car was considerably damaged, but the driver and a young lady accompanying him escaped injury. Another young man with horse and buggy also attempting to pass the car when the accident occurred escaped without mishap.

Mr. W. L. Wright, of this place, lost a valuable barn by fire on his rented farm on the West Backline on Tuesday night last week. His tenant, Mr. Chas. Stafford, was attending to stock in the barn when, in an attempt to kill a rat he fell, upsetting the lantern he carried, which caused the destructive blaze and which spread with such rapidity it could not be extinguished. Some stock in the stable was saved, but a bull and two calves, perished. Fodder and other things were also lost. Insurance on the contents $1000, and on the building $1000. The loss on the barn, with stone basement, will be heavy.

Work was begun last week on fencing the new addition of over 3 acres to the public cemetery. For a month the trustees are offering plots at a special price of $25.00.

Mr. W. H. Miller has plans for extensive improvements on his residence on which work was begun on Monday. Mr. W. J. Bellamy is improving the interior of his residence. The house, occupied by Mr. Wm. Brown having been sold, and unable to procure another residence, he moved his family to Cayton last week.

A project is on foot to procure water for the village from the Adams spring, or some other source outside the corporation. Mr. McDowell, C.E., of Owen Sound, was here last week taking levels.

A good representation from Prince Arthur Lodge A. F. & A. M. were at Durham on Tuesday evening last week, attending the 50th anniversary of the sister lodge there. The lodge here is nearing its semi-centennial.

The oracles have again come and are welcome visitors, their sweet notes being, as ever, pleasing to the ear.

Mr. R. W. Paton, Knox College student, home for a week-end visit, supplied the Presbyterian pulpit acceptably on Sunday. Mr. Paton leaves this Tuesday for Rutland, Mission Field, Sask., which he will supply for the summer. His father, Mr. W. Paton, will accompany him to spend a month with relatives in the West.

Mr. Jos. Harrower, a Knox College graduate this spring, will supply the Presbyterian pulpit on this charge next Sabbath.

Rev. W. Lambert, supernumerary minister, Toronto, supplied the Methodist pulpit on Sunday and gave helpful sermons. On account of the pastor's illness Mr. Lambert will supply for a few Sundays and the postponed sacrament will be dispensed next Sunday morning. Mr. Oke is slightly better this week.

Mr. S. W. Vose, who completed his theological course in McMaster University this spring, and received the degree of Bachelor of Arts at the college convocation last week, is to be congratulated upon his success. Mr. Vose had charge of the Baptist cause here the past year and has returned to continue his work on this field.

While on a short trip in the country last week Mr. Frank Thurston came across a porcupine and thought it harmless, dispatched the rodent without suffering from its spines. Frank is expert at more than type-setting or the use of a benchball bat.

A young lady colporteur is sounding a few days in the village canvassing in behalf of the Sailors' Institute at Port Arthur.

Mr. Stewart McTavish, of the bank of Montreal, is on two weeks' holiday with his sister at Windsor and Dr. and Mrs. Coleridge, on a motor trip will accompany him home this week.

The old friends here of Mrs. S. C. Philp, of Toronto, recently visited by her husband, the late Rev. Samuel Philp, a former pastor here, sympathizing with her in bereavement, were by the death last week of her second son, Mr. Arthur, 10 years of age, a member of the Queen's Own Rifles in Toronto and fought in the North West Rebellion, wounded at the battle of Cut Knife Creek. Twenty years ago he went to California and won international fame as a great merchant. He was the proprietor of two large department stores employing five thousand people. He was noted for his philanthropy; was president of the Y.M.C.A., and Vice-President of the Boy Scouts of America. Surviving him are his wife, nee Florence Philp, one son and two daughters.

Temple Hill

(Special to The Standard.)

Rev. John Lennox will conduct Communion Services on June 3rd at Temple Hill at 11:00 a.m.; Knox Church, St. Vincent, at 1:15 p.m.; Knox Church, Holland, at 3:00 p.m.; then a united service in the evening at Temple Hill at 8:00 o'clock.

The W. M. S. held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. J. B. Patterson, Jr. The President in the chair, the meeting opened by singing hymn No. 297 "Christ is made the sure foundation," followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. The Scripture reading was taken from Matt. Chap. 6, after which Mrs. H. Murray led in prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. The roll was called and 14 ladies were present. The topic of the meeting was given by Mrs. R. Murray, entitled "Emigrant Builders." Miss Eva Quinton also read a very interesting paper, "Hymn No. 456, 'Oh Saviour, I have naught to plead'" was then sung and the President then closed with prayer; after which a delayed lunch was served by the hostesses.
