Mrs. Harry Beaton and baby Agnes, of Bunessan, were present and she

Why some Farmers make more money

In town, responsible manufacturers make more money by increasing production through the aid of bank loans.

In the country, many farmers are doing likewise, and we are always glad to extend our hearty co-operation.

There is always a welcome awaiting you at the local branch of this bank. Come and talk over your plans with our local manager.

Wodehouse

(Special to The Standard)

The S.S. picnic and program on Friday last passed off quite satisfactory. The weather being ideal a good sized crowd was in attendance. The game of basketball between the Kimberley and Boston teams was hotly contested and resulted in a victory for the Kimberley ladies, the score being 16 to 3. The musical Cherry part of the program was well received. The play put on by some of the girls of this section was very much enjoyed. Each one acted their part nobly and the ending up caused much amusement. We have not heard how much the receipts were, but judging from the way the church was filled the S.S. should have a tidy sum to its credit.

The people of this neighborhood were surprised on Friday last to hear of the death of Mrs. Best at the home of her daughter, Mr. R. H. Wiley. The old lady, who had passed the four score and ten years, was some years and a respected resident of Kimberley Valley, but for the last 17 years made her home with Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wiley. The funeral [illegible] was attended [illegible] The pallbearers were [illegible] grandsons of the deceased. Further particulars will be given in next week's issue of The Standard.
