Grey Deanery Meeting

A church full of clergy and representatives from the various parishes of the Deanery of Grey met in the Anglican Church, Chatsworth, on Wednesday of last week. The services were well attended. The service was conducted by Rural Dean, Rev. A. W. Richardson, of Markdale, assisted by Rets. Davies, of Clarksburg, and Nicholson, of Chatsworth. Rev. J. Davies preached the sermon, and assisted the Rural Dean in the administration of Holy Communion.

In the afternoon the Presbyterian Church threw open its doors to assist in accommodating the large number present, and here the Women's Missionary Auxiliary held its annual business meeting, while the men, both clergy and laity, had their semi-annual meeting in the Anglican Church. A joint meeting was afterwards held on the Presbyterian lawn.

During the W. A. session, Mrs. Dillon, of Thornbury, gave very concise report of the Annual Meeting at London, to which she was the Deanery delegate in May, and several matters of business arising from this report were disposed of, one being the donating of $15.00 towards an organ which the Diocese is purchasing for a mission church at Shingle Point, in the Yukon.

A varied program of addresses held the attention of the men's session, and the joint session.

Mr. W. H. Smith and His Honor Judge Sutherland spoke on the work of the Laymen's Movement, and as these two gentlemen are intensely interested in this line of church work, they were able to deal with their subject convincingly. Mr. H. A. Mowy, of Gen. Sec. of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, is enthused with zeal for work amongst teen-age boys, and his address was full of suggestions for this branch of the Church's activities.

Ven. Archdeacon Doherty, Secretary Treasurer of the Diocese, has the details of the financial situation at his finger tips, and anyone wanting to know the condition of the finances of the church should hear him speak. He is a firm believer in the tenth, which he says belongs to God, and we must go beyond this before we can say that we are giving.

The number par excellence of the afternoon program was the address by Rev. Canon Gould, M. D., D. C. L., General Secretary of the Society of the Church of England in Canada. Dr. Gould has spent thirteen years in Palestine, and with his incomparable gift for graphic description held the wrapt attention of his audience while he took them on a journey to Samaria and into Galilee, making the Scripture live before their eyes, as he passed from the various places where [illegible] ministered and lived, and depicted the conditions there under Turkish occupation, as he had seen it before the war and as he left it last December, under the British Rule. British Rule in the Holy Land is the fulfilment of a Divine decree. In speaking humorously of a trip by motor last December from Jericho to Jerusalem, Canon Gould said "There are no speed limits in the Holy Land. We were just 45 minutes doing the distance, and we only by one-tenth of an inch." "India for Christ" is a slogan of his earnest advocacy of missions. This great theme, the keystone of the great arch of the British Empire, must be won from heathen darkness to secure the stability of the Empire.

A most instructive address was given by Miss Chamberlain, of the Chatsworth Parish, in the town hall, and was listened to at the close of the afternoon session.

"Home Acres" Enjoyed

The play, "Home Acres," given in the Armouries by Dundalk Presbyterian Dramatic Club on Thursday evening, last, under the auspices of the Methodist Mission Circle, was attended by a fairly large crowd. The whole play throughout was full of thrills and the talent was that which could not have been excelled in such a play. Lib and Enoch, with their funny freaks and sayings, kept the house in an uproar. Ann Rickett, the dressmaker, who generally had her say, did not this time lose her reputation for talk. Jane Whitman, maiden character, was probably the most sincere in her love for her old home. The other five are also worthy of the greatest praise. Mrs. (Dr.) McAlister ably officiated at the piano during the entire program. Pleasing solos were rendered by Mrs. Palmer and Miss Nellie Gardner, both of Dundalk. During the intermissions, Markdale Orchestra supplied entertainment.

The play is to be repeated in Dundalk in the near future and those who did not have the opportunity of enjoying it here, may then have a chance to do so.

Irwin's Grocery, Confectionery and Provision Store

Who is speaking? It is Herb. M. Irwin, and he is talking MEAT. Since we have placed our first-quality meats at a rock-bottom price, we have been fairly rushed by old and new customers alike, who appreciate the lowering of the price. Just think of Real Fresh Pork Sausage, no oatmeal filling, but all meat, for less than the common kind. All meats reduced in price from two to ten cents per pound.

Centre Grey

In Centre Grey Hon. D. Carmichael has been returned over Dr. Ego, with a majority of about 110. We had hoped to be able to give some figures as to how the vote stood, but have been unable to get any reliable information, so will hold over until the official count has been made on Saturday next.

South Grey

In South Grey Hon. Dr. Jamieson has been elected by about 400 over G. M. Leeson, the former member.

North Grey

In North Grey D. J. Taylor has been re-elected over two opponents, Wm. Breese, Con., and Dickin, Lib.

Markdale

The vote in the village was well handled by the two Deputy-Returning Officers, and there was very little time lost by voters in waiting for their turn. It was, of course, expected that Dr. Ego would have a large majority in his home town, and his supporters are well pleased with the result. The result of the voting was as follows:

	Carmichael	Ego
A to L, inclusive	46	190
M to Z, inclusive	29	199
Totals	75	389

BASEBALL

The only game in the Centre Grey League played during the week was won by Dundalk, when they visited Flesherton on Thursday afternoon, last. It was an interesting game, from a spectator's point of view. Both teams started off bad and runs were scored in the first and second innings, but after that it was close, excepting when Flesherton gave the visitors the lead on errors. The final score was 6 to 3. S. H. Buchanan, of Vandeleur, and G. S. Dundas, of Markdale, officiated as umpires.

Game this week: Dundalk vs. Vandeleur in Markdale at 4:00 o'clock on Thursday.

The standing of the teams is as follows:

	Won	Lost	Play
Dundalk	2	0	6
Flesherton	2	2	4
Vandeleur	0	2	6
