

FOR ALL

Early in the history of the Bank of Montreal its officers realized that to attain its highest usefulness, a bank should serve with equal readiness and ability all classes of customers in every department of banking.

At each office of the Bank small accounts are welcome; and the same painstaking attention is given to every customer.

You don't have to die to win.

An advertisement to men in their "twenties" and "thirties"

$2,000 or $3,000 would come in mighty handy to you to-day, wouldn't it?

Think, then, how much more valuable it will be to you at forty-five or fifty.

Of course, you'll say, I'll have been successful and won't need it then. But stop! You may—and if you do, you'll need it more than you do to-day. Your producing years will be waning and $2,000 will mean all the difference between a dependent and an independent old age.

Man, there's a big idea back of Imperial Old Age Insurance—one that's mighty interesting to you. Let us send you particulars. Write for them now. A postal will do. Address:

THE IMPERIAL LIFE Assurance Company of Canada
HEAD OFFICE - TORONTO
R. V. RICKETTS, Agent, MARKDALE

The Imperial has paid, in profits to policyholders, almost ten times as much as the total paid by all other Canadian companies established in the last twenty years.

Stop, Look and Enquire if it is New England Church you have come to, for surely it will appear quite changed. The reason is that quite a number of men gathered at the Church and finished the cement steps and indeed they look fairly good. Mr. J. T. Lawson, of Hawkesbury, was the chief overseer.

Miss Vera Fawcett and Mr. Leslie Fawcett and Miss Lella Thompson took in the Fair at Collingwood and report a good time, also Mr. Newton Hutchinson, Harry Cherry and Miss Edna Cherry.

Mr. Arnold Harbotte, of Vaudreuil, was in this locality recently on business.

The community presented Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wood with a goodly shower of presents on Wednesday evening. An enjoyable time was reported also.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Fawcett, also Nelson Wilcox, motored to Thornbury and attended the funeral of the late John Hutchinson on Saturday.

An article, published in the Mail and Empire some time ago, stating that an early winter was predicted due to the ice surge failing to succumb to the sun's rays, seems to have more truth than poetry. When you see snow flying on the thirteenth day of September, it gives one a rather chilly feeling.

The frost, which was received on Saturday night, did some damage to the evergreen and other vines around here.

Miss Trete Diment, of Stigo, spent a week-end with her friend, Mrs. Vera Fawcett.

Mrs. T. L. Fawcett left on Monday evening to attend the Harris and Ashburn Fair as Judge of various classes of live stock. Mr. Nelson Wilcox, according to Thursday's paper, was accompanied by Gordon Wilcox, his son, and Fawcett, to Collingwood, where he will visit his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. George Hicks and family, until mid-week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cook, of Owen Sound, assisted by Mr. George Best, visited Muskoka.

Mr. and Mrs. George McVicker and wife, again visited with Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Clarke, taking in the mountain views, and called on their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Fawcett, accompanied by their hosts and little Miss Mavis Thompson and Jack Bossey.

When it comes to speaking of poets, we would need to mention that Wm. Shakespeare was a first-class English poet in his time, and Sir Walter Scott a first-class Scottish poet, but the Sixth Class Chippewa poet of the Twentieth Century our Ryerville Correspondent. We hope of his speedy recovery and that a bright future may possibly be awaiting him.

Miss Marlow Breasted returned to Toronto on Saturday to resume her former position.

Mrs. Wm. Lawson and babe accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Clugston to Ready, near Owen Sound, to visit Mrs. J. Smith, who is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart, and sons George and Jim, of Stratton, motorized over and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Attkens. Accompanied by Mrs. Attkens, they visited friends at Owen Sound last week.

Mr. W. D. Rowe and Engineer B. Burrell, with their threshing outfit, are making happy farmers in our burg. They are hustlers.

Dixon McFadden was at Wasaga Beach on Saturday.

The sad news was received on Monday of the death of Elmer Aitken in Toronto, only son of the late John and Mrs. Aitken. The remains arrived by Wednesday noon train at Markdale and from there the funeral was largely attended to in Markdale Cemetery, where he was laid to rest by the side of his father, the late J. E. Aitken, who pre-deceased him 4 years ago last January. Elmer was a bright and loving child, only ten years.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the sorrowing relatives. The beautiful floral tokens bore testimony to the love for the deceased. Rev. A. W. Richardson officiated at the grave-side. The pall bearers were Messrs. John Herb, and Rube Walker, Dixon McFadden, Earl Hannah and Joan Elliott.
