Methodist Church Notes

HOLLAND CENTRE

The Young People's League will meet on Tuesday evening. It will be Consecration Service and Roll Call.

Next Sunday, September 30th, will be Rally Day. The Sunday School is preparing an interesting program, including songs and recitations. The Pastor will give a short address on "The Four-fold Growth." We hope the church will be full at 10:30 a.m. and thus give encouragement to the Sunday School workers.

Keep in mind the Anniversary Service of this Church, to be held morning and evening of Sunday, October 14th.

On Sunday night our Pastor's sermon was based on the incident of Jesus and the woman of Samaria at Jacob's Well. He showed how that Jesus, to teach a lesson to the Jews, deliberately went through hated Samaria and thus has shown the world that Christ and Christianity know no boundary lines. Jesus is the only universal personality that has ever been presented to mankind, and, His gospel, for the same reason, must eventually be accepted by all the human race. Next, the fact of Jesus becoming weary and thirsty proves the human side of the Son of God. It is because he has been tempted in all points, and suffered all human experiences that we cling to Him as our Helper. Again, His asking the woman for a drink, instead of performing a miracle to get it, shows us that He is depending absolutely upon His followers to save the human race. Then, the woman's testimony to her friends in Sychar caused them to invite Jesus to tarry there, and many souls were saved through her witness. The best of all was when these said, "Now we believe, not because of the woman's saying, but we have seen Him for ourselves." This should be the supreme desire and will be the supreme joy of all who become His friends.

Markdale Fall Fair

OCTOBER 9TH AND 10TH

The management is making final arrangements for the big Fair, and expect to draw a record attendance from this section of the County.

The Society is fortunate in having splendid grounds, with a spacious building (the Armouries), for inside exhibits, and the track is being graded, etc., and should be in good condition for the trials of speed, which are expected to surpass any previous year. The live stock exhibits, as usual, will be of a high class.

The concert on Wednesday evening promises to be of the highest order in both vocal entertainers and this is Markdale an Dundalk s supply music evening.

Church Choir Concert

About forty members of the Union Church Choir, Owen Sound, North, motored here on Wednesday, September 19th, to give a concert in the Armouries under the auspices of Cooke's Presbyterian Church Choir.

A large and representative audience listened with pleasure to a mixed programme of choruses, quartettes, duets, musical sketches, a recitation by Miss E[illegible] Mack, and an address by the Rev. M. S. Elliott.

The choruses were particularly well rendered, and of a high order, especially "The Daughter of Zion," and "To Greet the Spring." The singing of the Male Quartette was very popular as was also the musical dialogue, "Down on the farm in harvest time," and the musical sketch "We'll have to mortgage the farm."

The choir leader, Mr. Langford, is to be congratulated on his successful training of so large a choir of young voices, and the choir is happy in having a splendid accompanist and a gifted violinist to assist them.

After the concert the members of both choirs, to the number of about seventy, had lunch in the Armouries, and spent a merry social hour in community singing and story telling.
