Many a black cat will be out a prowling on Halloween.
Sweet clover is being delivered in large quantities to the hulling concern these days. The average price being paid for the cleaned, hulled seed is around $5.00 a bushel.
Mr. and Mrs. Jim Crutchley of Dornoch, spent the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. McArthur and attended Zion's service.
The turnip and apple crop are mostly housed, the former good in quality, the latter mostly a good lot.
Mr. R. E. Bryan just out of his best cows last week from manumula. The Taylor Bros. on him up a big pile of wood one day later with their buzz saw outfit.
Pleased to report Mrs. Tom McNally recovering from the stroke recently received.
Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay White returned from Toronto at the close of the week their baby recovering rapidly from his recent illness.
A very happy wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Trafford on Wednesday of last week when their third daughter, Alice E. was wedded to Mr. John A. Boyd, of Glenora. The ceremony performed by the Rev. Mr. Boyd, assisted by Mr. Boyd, the bridesman, and Mr. Boyd, the best man. A light dinner was served in the ceremony and in the evening a crowd of young folk gathered to the reception. The bride looked winsome in her brilliant dress of silk crepe. She is a smart, clever lass and the young couple bright future before them. They will reside near Glenora.
The Ellis family, of Holstein, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Glen, across the first of the week.
The third party of the week within two weeks took place on Friday evening about 6 o'clock when the social hour of Mr. Henry Sackey, South of the Durham Road, and all the season's railroads here a prey to the Red Plague. Like the other two the cause is unknown but there are grave suspicions of an incendiary's doings. When a fire Marshall designates these mysterious fires as being caused by "Spontaneous Combustion" the ordinary citizen understands these specialists are guessing. A title bullet at the proper moment would soon reveal the cause.

Mrs. Arthur Sewell Dead

With awful suddenness the death summons came to Mrs. Arthur Sewell of this place, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Alkens, a couple of miles west of the village, about midnight on Wednesday of last week. She had been in her usual health and was present at the marriage that afternoon of her nephew, Mr. Emerson McCullough, to Miss Violet Alkens. Early in the evening she took a weak spell but apparently recovered and it was almost midnight when she had the fatal attack. It was known for some time that her heart was affected but it was not considered serious. Dr. A. Ego was called, but before he arrived life had departed.
The body was brought to her late home here from where the funeral took place Sunday afternoon. Services were held in the Methodist Church, conducted by Rev. F. N. Brown, the deceased's pastor. Fitting references were made to the beautiful Christian life and character of the deceased who had been a faithful member of the Methodist Church since childhood. There was a large congregation present, almost every home in the Vanderleur district where the deceased spent most of her life, being represented. The pallbearers were G. and W. Hazelwood, John Sawyer, Jos. McCullough, Geo. Sewell and Geo. Cooper. The remains were laid to rest in Markdale Cemetery beside those of her late husband who passed away on Sept. 20th of this year.
The late Mrs. Sewell, whose maiden name was Bliza Freeman, was born at Vanderleur 65 years ago, and 45 years ago was married to the late Arthur Sewell. They farmed successfully in that locality and retired to this village nine years ago last spring. She was of a retiring disposition but was always ready to take an active part when any good cause could be served.
A family of two daughters and three sons survive, namely: Mrs. J. Lee, Markdale; Richard, Embarras; Victor, on the old homestead at Vanderleur; and Elmore at Cobalt. All were present at the funeral.
Four brothers and two sisters also survive: Haze Freeman, Markdale; Thos. Freeman, Vanderleur; John in Chicago; Wesley in Stratford; Mrs. Joseph McCullough, Markdale, and Mrs. Wm. Sewell, Owen Sound.
Among friends from a distance who attended the funeral were Mrs. Wm. Sewell, Mr. and Mrs. P. Sewell, Mr. Walter Sewell, Mr. and Mrs. R. Sewell, Mrs. A. Eagles, Thos. John and James Shears, of Owen Sound; Mr. Geo. Hargrave, of Markdale; Mr. Cooper, of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Harold and Thos. Sewell, and Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman, of Hanover; Mr. and Mrs. Keenan, Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson and Mr. and Mrs. A. Sewell, of Stratford; Mr. and Mrs. T. Cronin, of Nottawa; Mrs. Johnston, of Sawyer, Mrs. Switzer, G. and W. Hazlewood, of St. Marys.
Much sympathy is felt for the family of the deceased who have been bereft of both their parents within a few weeks.

South Grey Teachers Meet

The South Grey Teachers' Institute held a very successful convention in Durham recently with the Pres. Mr. Harold Ermel in the chair. In the minutes of last year's meeting it was shown that the hospitality of the citizens of Markdale was fully appreciated and would not be forgotten soon.
Mr. R. H. Walks, of the Toronto Normal School, gave two excellent addresses, the first on the teaching of history and the second on spelling, both of which should prove of assistance to teachers. The qualities of an ideal student were discussed by Mr. Robb, Principal, Durham High School. A synopsis of the summer course in music was given by Miss Browning, of Durham and that of the Agricultural course by Miss McKee, of Gleng. and Miss Leversage, Mount Forest. Three teachers of the Hanover staff, Mrs. Frost, Miss Muter and Miss Schilling, who were on the New York-Washington Easter trip, each gave an interesting account of part of the trip. Miss Francis, of Newstead, took up primary work in detail while Miss Mann, Markdale, handled the subject, "Discipline in the Primary Room," in an efficient manner. "Hot lunches with their advantages" were taken by Miss Floyd, Holstein. Miss Sarjeant, Markdale, in her well-prepared paper on Expressive Reading showed how a teacher might by various devices have the reading of pupils improved throughout the school. The origin and value of School Papers was dealt with by Miss Leeson, Ayton, and Miss Weinert, Newfield. "The Better Way," which was really a paper on ideal conditions in school was given by Miss Park, Gleng. An excellent concert was given on the evening of the first day under the auspices of the Red Cross Society, the proceeds of which were to help finance the Durham Hospital. It has been planned to hold next year's convention in Walkerton in union with the East Bruce Teachers' Institute. The president elect is Mr. J. A. Magee, Hanover, and Mr. J. A. Graham, Durham, is secretary. Successful meetings of the Men's and Women's Federation were also held.
