

MERCER & SON, MARKDALE

Good Footwear

More Days' Wear for Less Money

Is what you get when you buy your Boots, Shoes and Rubbers at Mercers.

Rubber Boots

For Men, Women and Children. Just what you want at this season for the mud and slush.

Goloshes

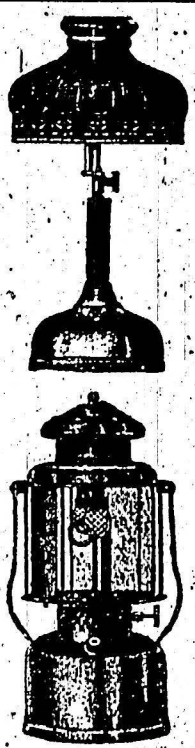

For Ladies, Misses and Children. All sizes now in our stock.

Heavy Rubbers

For Men and Boys, with or without leather tops, all lengths up to 15 inch. We guarantee you satisfaction

Special, this week in Young Men's New Style overcoats. Just arrived. New color, plaid back cloth, belted and well made. Special at $18.75. Other lines at $20.00 to $30.00. Come in and look them over. We can save you money.

H. MERCER & SON, MARKDALE

Coleman Quick-Lite Lamps and Lanterns

"The Sunshine of the Night"

- 1. Give 300 candle power of pure white light that is as soft as shaded sunshine.
2. Kind to the eyes—no glare, no flicker, no eye strain. Always give you a clear, steady, sight-saving light.
3. Make and use their own gas from common motor gasoline.
4. Light with ordinary matches. No torch needed.
5. Easy to keep clean. No greasy wicks to trim; no dirty chimneys to clean; no smoke, no soot, no dirt or odor, no dripping oil. No daily tiling necessary.
6. Cost twice less than two cents a light. More than 40 hours brilliant service per gallon of fuel used.
7. Can't spill fuel even if tipped over. Can't be killed while lighted.
8. Built of brass and steel heavily nickel plated. Inspected, tested and guaranteed. Will last a life time.

THE MANN HARDWARE Old Haskett Block Phone 43, Markdale

FOWL SUPPER and Concert AT BERKELEY Friday, Nov. 2nd

Under the auspices of L.O.L. No. 176

Supper from 6 to 8 o'clock p.m.

Commencing at 8 o'clock a program consisting of Vocal and Instrumental Music and a play entitled "DUTCH JAKE" will be given by

The True Blue Concert Company of Owen Sound

Admission: Adults 50 Cents Children 25 Cents G. J. McNeely, W.M. Frank Walker, Rec.-Sec.

Flesherton

(Special to The Standard)

The Annual Convention of the Young People's League of Owen Sound District held in the Methodist Church here on Tuesday of last week was very successful and a record-making one. Three sessions were held with a good attendance morning and afternoon and a crowded church at night.

The Convention was conducted as a sitting Parliament with Hon. Thos. Crawford, M.P.E., of Toronto, acting as Speaker of the House. Rev. John Locke, of Owen Sound, was Lieutenant Governor and delivered the speech from the Throne. Rev. H. H. Eaton, of Flesherton, was Premier, Rev. M. S. Elliot, of Owen Sound, Opposition leader and Rev. R. K. Nicholson, Owen Sound, Independent leader. With the Premier the following composed the cabinet: Minister of Christian Fellowship, Russell Patterson, Inistog; Missions, Chas. Waite, Owen Sound; Literature, F. N. Bowes, Markdale; Christian Citizenship, Jas. McCannell, Salem; Winter and Summer Schools, Cecil Toms, Owen Sound; Finance, J. McAuley, Owen Sound; Clerk, Clifford Bunt, Owen Sound; With-out Portfolio, Miss Amy Hanbury, Dundalk, and Wes. Armstrong, Flesherton. Good reports of the year's work were given and interesting and helpful discussion followed. In Missionary giving there was a very gratifying advance over the previous year. For the coming year $1,500.00 is the objective for the district.

Blantyre

(Special to The Standard)

Picking apples and taking up roots has kept many busy the past few days.

Mr. A. C. Paterson left for the north on a deer hunt Saturday. Mrs. R. J. Clark, of Meaford, is relieving at the store.

The Ladies' Auxiliary and the Ladies' Aid, of Temple Hill, held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. R. J. Murray on Wednesday afternoon of last week. About 25 ladies were present. A very pleasant time was spent.

Mr. W. J. McFadden, of Orange Valley, and Mr. Cargio, of Markdale, were callers on this line recently.

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnston, of Sigo, visited Mr. and Mrs. S. Boyd the first of the week.

Messrs W. J. Ferguson, Lewis Knight and Sheldon Boyd attended a special meeting of the Presbytery in Owen Sound, on Tuesday.

Mr. Joe Boyd, of Riverdale, was a pleasant caller in this line one evening last week.

Mr. R. J. Murray and family took in the Ford demonstration at Flesherton on Monday.

Mr. John Scott went down to the city last week.

Walters Falls

(Intended for last week.)

Bright and beautiful dawned the 17th of October, the marriage day of one of our most highly esteemed young ladies, when Miss Cora, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Omstead, was united in marriage to Mr. M. Dickie, of Bridgeburg, Ont. Promptly at 11 o'clock the bride, dressed in silver tissue over pink and leaning on the arm of her father, took her place beneath an arch of Aylum leaves and flowers in the auditor. The wedding music being played by the bride's sister, Miss Mabel Omstead, who also assisted as usher. The ceremony was a very simple one, and was conducted by Rev. J. S. Veales, supplied the Methodist pulpit here delivering a thoughtful sermon.

Mr. W. I. Carroll spent the week-end at Grand Valley.

Mr. W. Southgate made a week-end visit here. Miss Lela Mitchell accompanied him home after a month's visit with Mrs. Southgate at Sealforth.

Miss Elsie Ferris was home from Collingwood the week-end.

Mrs. Fred Plew is visiting friends at Owen Sound this week.

Cargio, Dixon—A quiet marriage took place at Port Credit Methodist Church on Monday, October 22 when Margaretta Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Dixon, of Listowel, was wedded to Mr. Walter E. Cargio, of Toronto, formerly of Flesherton.

Rev. Jas. E. Duggan, a former pastor here, conducted the ceremony.

Mr. Gordon McKinnon, who is home on a holiday with his mother, had the misfortune to cut his foot badly on Saturday while splitting wood. Several stitches were necessary to close the deep wound and Gordon will be on crutches for some time.

Mr. E. N. Jamieson, and little daughter, of Owen Sound, visited for a few days with Mrs. J. A. Jamieson and returned home on Monday.

Mrs. W. H. Thurston, Mrs. W. A. Armstrong, accompanied by Miss Hard, returned missionary, Mrs. G. Mitchell, Miss Mitchell, Toronto, Miss Aloda Mitchell, Mrs. W. Moore, Mrs. J. Cargio, Mrs. H. Down, Mrs. J. A. Heard, Mrs. Jas. Wilson and Misses Agnes Henderson, Elizabeth Bentham, Freda Mathewson and Florence McFadden attended the Missionary Convention at Owen Sound on Monday.

A case of local interest has taken a number from this vicinity to the Fall Assizes at Owen Sound this week. Mr. F. H. W. Hickling was summoned on the Grand Jury, but received notice that his service would not be required.

The members of the High Halls Hunt Club leave this week on their annual holiday hunting at Rockview, Parry Sound. Going from here are Messrs Geo. Mitchell, W. H. Thurston, G. B. Welton, Sam Pedlar, J. W. McKee, Pete Munshaw and Bert Sparks to cook.

Mr. Fred Stuart returned on Monday from a stock buying trip up north.

Miss Aloda Mitchell, Wes. Armstrong, H. Down and Dr. Murray motored the W. M. S. delegates to the convention in Owen Sound on Monday.

Wodehouse

(Special to The Standard)

The condition of Trevor Thompson which was not fully known last week has developed into a more serious stage. It was found necessary to convey him to the hospital for sick children, and there the doctors discovered that his left leg was dislocated. He underwent an operation on Wednesday and two more are yet to be performed. Mrs. Thompson is with him but unable to see him for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Willey visited with Mr. and Mrs. James Kirkpatrick and family on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Cornfield, of Epping, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Fawcett (with their relatives) on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Fawcett visited with Mr. and Mrs. Thos Fawcett, of Epping.

Mr. James Crowson made a business call in this district one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sewell, Pearl and Laurie, attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Arthur Sewell in Markdale.

Mrs. T. L. Fawcett spent a few days with Mrs. Geo. Cornfield, of Epping, accompanying her to Thornbury.

Miss Luella Thompson will leave early this week to work in the employment of Mrs. Wm. Taylor.

Miss Ethel Heath is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Harry Sewell.

Mr. J. J. Johnston has returned from the West and is looking fine.

Mrs. J. J. Duncan, of Dundalk, is visiting her daughter, Miss Irene, at Mr. J. J. Johnston's.

Kimberley

(Special to The Standard)

Mrs. Duncan, of Proton, is visiting her sister Mrs. Geo. Hutchinson. The anniversary services on Sunday were taken both afternoon and evening by the Rev. H. H. Eaton, of Flesherton. The attendance was small but those who did come enjoyed a treat from such an excellent speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Mansel Cook and family, of Walters Falls, spent Sunday with Mrs. Ferguson.

Mrs. Abercrombie, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Abercrombie, Miss Dell and

Safety Deposit Boxes

AVAIL YOURSELF of the many advantages afforded by a Safety Deposit Box in our vault for the safe keeping of your bonds, deeds, insurance policies and other valuable papers.

BOXES are of different sizes and requirements, they are approved at any time during business hours. Rental is moderate, and the holder holds the key, privacy is guaranteed.

OUR MANAGER will be pleased to explain their operation to you.

THE BANK OF TORONTO

Incorporated 1855

Victory Bond Coupons and Interest Cheques paid without charge.

BRANCHES MARKDALE FERRISBURG

Mr. John Abercrombie, Mrs. Burrill, and Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor attended the celebration of the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weiland, of Griesville, on Monday last.

Miss Helen Hurd, a returned Missionary from Japan, gave a very interesting talk in her work last Thursday in the Church. Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Thurston, of Flesherton, were welcome visitors.

Miss Nell Burrill and friends, of Barhead, spent Sunday at her home here.

Walters Falls

(Intended for last week.)

Bright and beautiful dawned the 17th of October, the marriage day of one of our most highly esteemed young ladies, when Miss Cora, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Omstead, was united in marriage to Mr. M. Dickie, of Bridgeburg, Ont. Promptly at 11 o'clock the bride, dressed in silver tissue over pink and leaning on the arm of her father, took her place beneath an arch of Aylum leaves and flowers in the auditor. The wedding music being played by the bride's sister, Miss Mabel Omstead, who also assisted as usher. The ceremony was a very simple one, and was conducted by Rev. J. S. Veales, supplied the Methodist pulpit here delivering a thoughtful sermon.

Mr. W. I. Carroll spent the week-end at Grand Valley.

Mr. W. Southgate made a week-end visit here. Miss Lela Mitchell accompanied him home after a month's visit with Mrs. Southgate at Sealforth.

Miss Elsie Ferris was home from Collingwood the week-end.

Mrs. Fred Plew is visiting friends at Owen Sound this week.

Cargio, Dixon—A quiet marriage took place at Port Credit Methodist Church on Monday, October 22 when Margaretta Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Dixon, of Listowel, was wedded to Mr. Walter E. Cargio, of Toronto, formerly of Flesherton.

Rev. Jas. E. Duggan, a former pastor here, conducted the ceremony.

Mr. Gordon McKinnon, who is home on a holiday with his mother, had the misfortune to cut his foot badly on Saturday while splitting wood. Several stitches were necessary to close the deep wound and Gordon will be on crutches for some time.

Mr. E. N. Jamieson, and little daughter, of Owen Sound, visited for a few days with Mrs. J. A. Jamieson and returned home on Monday.

Mrs. W. H. Thurston, Mrs. W. A. Armstrong, accompanied by Miss Hard, returned missionary, Mrs. G. Mitchell, Miss Mitchell, Toronto, Miss Aloda Mitchell, Mrs. W. Moore, Mrs. J. Cargio, Mrs. H. Down, Mrs. J. A. Heard, Mrs. Jas. Wilson and Misses Agnes Henderson, Elizabeth Bentham, Freda Mathewson and Florence McFadden attended the Missionary Convention at Owen Sound on Monday.

A case of local interest has taken a number from this vicinity to the Fall Assizes at Owen Sound this week. Mr. F. H. W. Hickling was summoned on the Grand Jury, but received notice that his service would not be required.

The members of the High Halls Hunt Club leave this week on their annual holiday hunting at Rockview, Parry Sound. Going from here are Messrs Geo. Mitchell, W. H. Thurston, G. B. Welton, Sam Pedlar, J. W. McKee, Pete Munshaw and Bert Sparks to cook.

Mr. Fred Stuart returned on Monday from a stock buying trip up north.

Miss Aloda Mitchell, Wes. Armstrong, H. Down and Dr. Murray motored the W. M. S. delegates to the convention in Owen Sound on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Willey visited with Mr. and Mrs. James Kirkpatrick and family on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Cornfield, of Epping, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Fawcett (with their relatives) on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Fawcett visited with Mr. and Mrs. Thos Fawcett, of Epping.

Mr. James Crowson made a business call in this district one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sewell, Pearl and Laurie, attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Arthur Sewell in Markdale.

Mrs. T. L. Fawcett spent a few days with Mrs. Geo. Cornfield, of Epping, accompanying her to Thornbury.

Miss Luella Thompson will leave early this week to work in the employment of Mrs. Wm. Taylor.

Miss Ethel Heath is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Harry Sewell.

Mr. J. J. Johnston has returned from the West and is looking fine.

Mrs. J. J. Duncan, of Dundalk, is visiting her daughter, Miss Irene, at Mr. J. J. Johnston's.

Mr. and Mrs. Mansel Cook and family, of Walters Falls, spent Sunday with Mrs. Ferguson.

Mrs. Abercrombie, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Abercrombie, Miss Dell and

The

VOL. 41, NO. 19

REGENCY

THIS FRIDAY

SAMUEL GOLD

"Broken"

Featuring Collect Model

colm McGregor and

EDUCATION

If You Can't

SHOW STARTS AT 8:00

Admission 20 and 30 cent

Comedy Repeated

C. E. WALDEN

LET US HELP YOU

CHRIS

There is nothing more

more appreciated

A GOOD PH

well taken and

Don't forget—Come early.

HAMILTON'S P

MARRIAGE

Dunkles White Leghorns

Store for Sale

W. H. ...

W. H. ...

W. H. ...

W. H. ...

W. H. ...

W. H. ...

W. H. ...

W. H. ...

W. H. ...

W. H. ...

W. H. ...

W. H. ...

W. H. ...

W. H. ...

W. H. ...

W. H. ...

W. H. ...

W. H. ...

W. H. ...

W. H. ...