

Announcement

We advertised and held a selling out sale. We did so under the impression that our store fixtures and the good will of the business had been sold, but not being able to dispose of our business, I have taken into partnership my son, Fred, and, (having sold most of my stock at the recent sale) we are restocking with all new goods and some extra special lines for Christmas at reduced prices. We will continue the business in Markdale under the name of

Anglican Church Notes

BEAVERDALE
The church service for the day for the church was held at the church on Friday last. There were many members and four visitors present. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Vivian in prayer. Mrs. Murray gave the special reading "For a Better Partner" from "The Living Message". The pastor took the devotional outlines from Psalm 72 from which he gave an impressive message. The closing hymn was 323 after which the pastor pronounced the benediction. The collection was $2.15. Tea was served by the hostesses during which Mrs. T. Harvey gave some instrumental music.

Berkeley

(Special to The Standard)
Mr. Jack Sinclair arrived here on Monday from Detroit and is renewing old acquaintances.
Miss Pearl Whitney left for Toronto on Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walker sr., who disposed of their farm lately, have moved into the village and are comfortably settled in the house formerly owned by the late Mr. F. David.
Miss Jessie Clark motored to Durham on Sunday and spent the day with her sister.
Mrs. Thos. Bell was called to Toronto on Monday to be with her daughter, who is critically ill with pneumonia.
Mr. J. G. Dever, of Allenford, has been visiting here around here.
The fowl, supp. and concert held Friday night in the Orange Hall under the auspices of L.O.L. No. 176, was a decided success. The play entitled "Dutch Jake" was certainly good. The proceeds amounted to $12.00.
Mr. and Mrs. Peter McLean, of Durham, were visitors here one day last week.
Quite a number from here attended the concert held at Holland Centre on Wednesday night.
Mrs. W. Bell and children are visiting with friends around here for a couple of weeks.

Vandeleur

(Special to The Standard)
Mr. James Brodie, who has spent several years in B. C. is visiting his son, Mr. E. Brodie.
The Women's Institute will hold their November meeting at the home of Mrs. Lundy Johnson on Thursday afternoon, November 15th.
Anniversary services will be held in the Vandeleur Church next Sunday. Special music is being prepared by the choir.
Mr. John Hislop is home after spending a short time with friends at Rochester.
Mr. Samuel Gilbert is around on his annual trip, collecting the taxes.
A number from here attended the Box Social at Orange Valley on Friday last.
Mrs. Porter Beard and little daughter, of Springhill, is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Graham.
Several men and teams in this locality have been working on the new hydro pipe line which is being constructed alongside of the old pipe line on the East Mountain. The pipe line will be an exact duplicate of the old one. Wooden pipe at the top and steel at the bottom, with another steel surge tank at the top of the mountain. The two pipe lines will not likely be used at the same time but will be ready in case of emergency, or one can be used while repairs are being made to the other.
The Farmers' Club will hold their meeting in the hall on Friday evening, November 9th.
The only Halloween trick that we heard of in this community was played by the weather man when he showed a forecast of 5 inches of snow in 24 hours last Wednesday night which made him very unpopular with the youngsters.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Carter and daughter, left for home on Friday last for a short stay at home.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Leach, of Durham, were visitors here on Sunday at the church service.
