AN ANTICIPATED BEAUTY HERE Deer are becoming quite common in this locality. Mr. Chas. Martin observed some standing nearby his house on Saturday afternoon. It skipped lightly over the fence into Mr. Showman's fall wheat, from there it made its way to the church, then home to the school, then to finish its sightseeing, mind you, it swam across the lake to "Pheasant Island." I guess like most people's curiosity was aroused about what they had over there and it made a bold adventure to see. I wonder if it saw the pheasants, etc.
