

To our many Customers
We say:

THANK YOU and wish you a Prosperous and a Happy New Year

Yours for Honest Values
H. MERCER & SON
Markdale

To Our Customers and Friends:

May every happiness possess you, and may the untrodden months of the New Year reveal prosperity and contentment.

THE MANN HARDWARE
Old Haskett Block Phone 43, Markdale

To all customers and friends we extend the season's greetings and best wishes for health and prosperity in 1924

We are paying highest prices for good cream and strictly fresh eggs.

MARKDALE CREAMERY CO.
Markdale Ontario

"STOLEN"

You may steal his money, his goods, his real estate and even his reputation, but the one thing you can't take is his education.

When you're looking over the field of Christmas gifts for that boy or girl, in search of something that will last, something that cannot be stolen—that will last a life-time and improve with use, the one that will appeal to your own good judgment and the ambition of the boy or girl, is a course in the Northern Business College.

Information free.

THREE COURSES
Preparatory in Business Shorthand

Northern Business College
OWEN SOUND

C. A. Fleming, P.C.A. G. D. Fleming, Principal Secretary

WINTER TERM OPENS JANUARY 2nd, 1924

Cherry Grove

(Special to The Standard.)

The season's greetings to all.
Mr. J. W. Brady, of Regina, who was on a business trip to Montreal stopped off for a day and attended the Christmas concert here where he met with many of his old friends and former school mates who were very pleased to renew acquaintance.

Miss Harbinson is spending the holidays at her home near Sheiburne.

Miss Leila Pedlar, of Durban, was the guest of her cousin, Miss Iva Smart, recently.

Mr. Ram. Brady was in Owen Sound last week.

Mrs. Albert Fawcett arrived from Maple Creek last weekend and will spend a couple of months visiting her mother, Mrs. Struthers, and her sisters,

Miss P. Struthers and Mrs. E. Brady.

Mr. R. Martin spent a few days this week including Christmas at Mr.
R. Miller's and Earl Semple's Union Hill.

Miss Nellie Petch, of Epping, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. C. Myers.

The W. L. will meet at the home of Mrs. Wm. Stephenson on Thursday January 3rd, 1924.

Cherry Grove is noted for putting on good concerts, and the Sunday School concert held on Dec. 14th was certainly no exception to the rule.

Rev. Mr. Bowes occupied the position of chairman in his usual pleasing manner and his address held the attention of the large audience from start to finish.

The following choruses were rendered by the school:

"Chime again Christmas Bells"; "Ring ye bells of Christmas" by 12 girls in costume carrying bells with which they accompanied the singing part;

"The Christmas Glow", the duet parts being taken by M. Harvey and C. Lougheed, D. Harvey and A.

Smart, Wimble Harvey and Mina Dickie. "We'll help old Santa Claus" by the junior school; "The Christmas Tree";

"Stocking Song" by Evelyn

Hill, Dorothy Harvey, Violet Wyvill, Margaret Harvey, Alice Smart, and

Cynthia Lougheed. "Good Night Song" by the junior school. "The Gypsy's Warning" was well sung and acted by Mrs. E. Brady, the other actors in this musical drama being Miss. Iva Smart and Mr. Earl Smart.

Mina Dickie and Wimble Harvey captivated the audience in the song "Stingy Kid" which was heartily endured and as a response they repeated the chorus.

John Harvey amused the audience as he acted the part of "Stingy Kid". Splendid Christmas recitations were given by Mrs. E.

Allan, the popular young teacher had the pupils well-trained and some unique and some impressive numbers were given. "The Rooster Parade" brought down the house and "Some One Will Open the Pearly Gates" was one of the finest things ever given in old Zion. The recitations were most appropriate and the rising generation should be able to hold audiences spell-bound in the future. Miss Lily Black was at her best in "Oster Joe". The young folk upheld the good reputation of the neighborhood for dramatic ability in the dialogue, with Miss Katie Mayirth excelling. Fine musical selections were given by Mr. Blifield and Miss Jackson, of Holland, and by the "Sunny South Jazz Band" under Prof. Bryson Mor-lock, of Durban. Rev. J. E. Peters made a tactful chairman. Santa Claus had a big task stripping the two trees of their precious loads.

Proceeds amounted to $40.

Miss E. J. Allan left for her home near Chesley on Friday night for a few well earned holidays. Her sister and two young friends motoring across for her.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Ivan Edwards, of Toronto, Joe and Keith Edwards and Bob Baker, of Detroit, made things lively around this shiny during the week.

Many, many are the expressions of regret heard on every side over the sudden death of Mr. Joseph

Atkinson, of near Durban, on Wednesday evening of last week. He was in his 60th year, but up to recent past months was a very robust man and a most industrious and progressive farmer. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon to Trinity

Cemetery, services being conducted by the rector, Rev. Mr. Whealan.

Many, many are the expressions

of regret heard on every side over

the sudden death of Mr. Joseph

Atkinson, of near Durban, on Wednesday evening of last week. He was in his 60th year, but up to re-

cent past months was a very robust

man and a most industrious and

progressive farmer. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon to Trinity

Cemetery, services being conducted by the rector, Rev. Mr. Whealan.

Many, many are the expressions

of regret heard on every side over

the sudden death of Mr. Joseph

Atkinson, of near Durban, on Wednesday evening of last week. He was in his 60th year, but up to re-

cent past months was a very robust

man and a most industrious and

progressive farmer. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon to Trinity

Cemetery, services being conducted by the rector, Rev. Mr. Whealan.

Many, many are the expressions

of regret heard on every side over

the sudden death of Mr. Joseph

Atkinson, of near Durban, on Wednesday evening of last week. He was in his 60th year, but up to re-

cent past months was a very robust

man and a most industrious and

progressive farmer. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon to Trinity

Cemetery, services being conducted by the rector, Rev. Mr. Whealan.

Many, many are the expressions

of regret heard on every side over

the sudden death of Mr. Joseph

Atkinson, of near Durban, on Wednesday evening of last week. He was in his 60th year, but up to re-

cent past months was a very robust

man and a most industrious and

progressive farmer. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon to Trinity

Cemetery, services being conducted by the rector, Rev. Mr. Whealan.

Many, many are the expressions

of regret heard on every side over

the sudden death of Mr. Joseph

Atkinson, of near Durban, on Wednesday evening of last week. He was in his 60th year, but up to re-

cent past months was a very robust

man and a most industrious and

progressive farmer. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon to Trinity

Cemetery, services being conducted by the rector, Rev. Mr. Whealan.

Many, many are the expressions

of regret heard on every side over

the sudden death of Mr. Joseph

Atkinson, of near Durban, on Wednesday evening of last week. He was in his 60th year, but up to re-

cent past months was a very robust

man and a most industrious and

progressive farmer. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon to Trinity

Cemetery, services being conducted by the rector, Rev. Mr. Whealan.

Many, many are the expressions

of regret heard on every side over

the sudden death of Mr. Joseph

Atkinson, of near Durban, on Wednesday evening of last week. He was in his 60th year, but up to re-

cent past months was a very robust

man and a most industrious and

progressive farmer. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon to Trinity

Cemetery, services being conducted by the rector, Rev. Mr. Whealan.

Many, many are the expressions

of regret heard on every side over

the sudden death of Mr. Joseph

Atkinson, of near Durban, on Wednesday evening of last week. He was in his 60th year, but up to re-

cent past months was a very robust

man and a most industrious and

progressive farmer. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon to Trinity

Cemetery, services being conducted by the rector, Rev. Mr. Whealan.

Many, many are the expressions

of regret heard on every side over

the sudden death of Mr. Joseph

Atkinson, of near Durban, on Wednesday evening of last week. He