(Special to The Standard.)

The regular weekly service of the Y. P. S. was held in the Church on Tuesday evening, April 23rd, in charge of Mr. Ian Torrie. Miss Vina Must-ard read the lesson, Luke 15-24, and Miss Maude Morrison sang "Called to the Cross". Mrs. Lois Mustard gave an excellent talk on "My de-cisions and what they meant to me". The meeting was a close one.

The Y. P. S. met on Tuesday of this week under the leadership of Miss Margaret Howey. There was a splendid attendance. Following the opening hymn and prayer, Miss Mar-garet Howey read a passage of Scrip-ture. Miss Elma Stewart gave a well prepared talk on "Easter, A Time of Joy". A vocal duet "How Can I Help But Love Him" was rendered by Misses Lettie and Bobbie Mustard during the meeting.

The community was shocked to learn on Sunday morning that Mrs. Wm. A. Walker had passed away during the night after a few days illness. The deceased's maiden name was Miss Jennie Collins, days here from Rockford seven years ago, when she was married to Mr. Walker. The funeral service, conducted by Rev. W. E. Smeeth, was held in the Baptist Church at 10 o'clock. Inter-ment took place at McLean's Cem-etry. The sympathy of the commu-nity is extended to the bereaved.

Mr. Matthew Ramble has purchas-ed from Mrs. Reynolds, 200 acres of land known as the old Thompson place.

The Annual Meeting of the Strath-avon W. I. will be held in the Baptist Church on the 29th Thursday in May. Election of officers for the coming year will take place. Please don't forget the day, May 8th.

Glad to report Mr. French Ramago met again after being confined to the house with grippe for a week.

Mr. Gilbert Morrison purchased a fine horse from a man in Owen Sound.

Among those who are home for the Easter holidays are Misses Hestia Morrison, Hazel Smith, and Mr. Arthur Morgan and Miss Islay, from Stratford.

Our teacher, Miss Elma Stewart, has gone home to Owen Sound to spend her vacation under the parental roof.

A number in this vicinity have commenced sewing.

Miss Maizie Morrison gave a birth-day party on Good Friday to her schoolmates. All report a good time and good things to eat among them being a good feed of the old home-made maple sugar.

ADVENT CHURCH—BEAVERDALE

Service will be held on Sunday, May 4th, at 7:30 p.m. There will be no service in this Church next Sunday owing to the fact that Rev. Vivian is holding a service at Fair-mount on that date.

The service last Sunday was cheer-ful and inspiring. The Easter music was well sung by the choir. Misses Margaret Fothergill and Dorothy Brett were the soloists in the Easter anthem. The rector took his sermon from the words "I am he that liveth and was dead" from which he spoke in an impressive manner.

The Epworth League met last Fri-day evening instead of Thursday. Miss Mabel Olmstead read the topic. At the close of the League Service Rev. Burgess showed quite a number of lantern slides descriptive of "Tri-umph and Resurrection of our Lord". These were very fine slides and a goodly number of people were present to appreciate them.

Miss Alva Dixon, of Owen Sound Schools, and Miss O. Quilton, of Meaford, are at their respective homes for the vacation. We congratulate Miss Dixon on obtaining first prizes in Busi-ness College.

Mr. Gordon Seabrook spent the week-end holiday at his home.

At a well attended meeting, in the interest of sports for the summer, held on Saturday evening, after a great deal of discussion it was passed to play baseball. Mr. S. Marshall was elected President and Mr. Geo. Seabrook, Secretary. Now be on the watch for some thing from Walters Falls this summer in the athletic line.

Anglican Church Notes

ADVENT CHURCH—BEAVERDALE

Service will be held on Sunday, May 4th, at 7:30 p.m. There will be no service in this Church next Sunday owing to the fact that Rev. Vivian is holding a service at Fair-mount on that date.

The service last Sunday was cheer-ful and inspiring. The Easter music was well sung by the choir. Misses Margaret Fothergill and Dorothy Brett were the soloists in the Easter anthem. The rector took his sermon from the words "I am he that liveth and was dead" from which he spoke in an impressive manner.
