The Presbyterian Guild

The meeting of the Guild on November 17th was a very interesting one, the chief item being the report of the delegates who attended the Summer School at Owen Sound.

Musical numbers were two choruses, "I am a stranger here" and "Let the lower lights be burning," by a number of girls and a solo by Miss Pearl Barron.

Miss Dorothy Hare and Miss Mabel Thibodeau gave the report of the Summer School, their report including that of Miss Lillian Abernethy, the third delegate.

An outline of the day's work was as follows: Devotional exercises at 7 a.m. then breakfast, Rev. Mr. Pitkey reading the "Bully Tin," as it was called, while still fit the table.

At 8:30 the Executive met to plan work, and at 9 o'clock the regular session began, consisting of Bible Study by Rev. Mr. Gallagher of Meaford, Mission Classes, Home and Foreign Problems by Mr. McLaren of Guelph, Methodists in Young People's Work by Mr. Roberts of Meaford.

The afternoon was spent in sports, hikes and contests, while in the evening Rev. R. Spencer addressed the delegates, giving them Life-Problem talks.

Every evening a splendid and helpful address was given by different leaders, and at ten lights were out and every one in bed.

Sunday services were held in the Big Tent and were much enjoyed by all. As evidence of the pleasure received by the delegates, a meeting was held at the lengthening of the Summer School term to ten days instead of seven.

The Guild members expressed their appreciation of the excellent report given by those young ladies.

The meeting on November 24th provided excellent literary program. The President, Miss M. K. Wilson, occupied the chair. After the singing of the hymn "Wonderful words of Life," Miss Wilson read and explained the 24th Psalm. She showed its use in the temple service, the two choirs answering each other in song.

Mr. W. J. Messenger spoke on the "Life of Mrs. Felicia Hermans." Miss Freda Wort read one of Mrs. Hermans' poems, "Bernardo del Carpio." Miss Thelma Boyd gave the main facts in the life of Chas. Lamb, and read one of his poems, "Love, Death and Rebirth."

"Miss Carman" was the poet dealt with by Mr. A. G. Skinner. He read one of Carman's beautiful poems, "The Lanterns of St. Eustace." Miss Vina Wiley read Browning's poem, "The Patriot."

Dr. Gray spoke of Lord Macaulay and his writings and read an extract from his "The Disability of the Jews." Dr. Gray also read Whitier's poem, "The Schoolboys."

Kimberley

(Special to The Standard.)
Mr. Ross Ellis and Mr. Allan Ferguson left Monday morning for the north woods to the Ellis-Donne city camp.

Mr. J. Taylor has returned home after spending the hunting season at the Munshaw House, Eugenia, looking after the interests of Mr. P. Munshaw, who went North with the hunters.

Mrs. Proctor and Miss Marjory Mrs. J. A. Stuart and Mrs. S. S. Burrill motored with Mr. Ern Proctor to the Collingwood C. and M. Hospital to visit Mr. Proctor. They report him improving rapidly. He has hopes of getting home in 10 days or a couple of weeks.

The Sunday School pupils

We are sorry to report Mrs. A. F. Hammond having burned her hand rather severely, and little Shirley Sturley. We are hoping she will be better soon.

Mr. D. L. Weber spent a few days in Toronto last week.

Mrs. Geo. Proctor and Miss Marjory visited over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. L. Proctor, Eugenia.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Graham and children, also Miss Edna and Mr. Norman Burritt, visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Burrill; also Mr. and Mrs. Otto Baker with Mrs. Ferguson; Mrs. P. W. and Mrs. Frank Davis; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Hutchison with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McConnell.

Rev. Mr. Ellison is holding services this week every night. The past two weeks he had services at New England with splendid success. He is assisted by Miss Carson.

Mr. Russell McMullen and Mrs. McMullen visited with Mrs. A. F. Hammond and Mrs. J. A. Stuart.

An Ample was called of the ratepayers by the trustees of the school to consider a grant of $50 a year for 4 years to the library. On motion the measure was lost by a small vote.

We are sorry to report so much loss of books and magazines have been kept up so far by the young people, the W. I. and donations of papers. We hope the ones who voted against us will come across with some generous donations for new books, which are badly needed for evening reading during the long winter evenings.

Keep in mind December 22nd and come to Temple Hill.

The Reeve's Banquet

Reeve McEachnie and his good wife treated the members of the Village Council and the Citizens' Band to a fowl supper at their home on Friday evening last.

The pleasant event was attended by about thirty, and all thoroughly enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. McEachnie and particularly the good things provided by the latter.

After all had done justice to the eats, a number of toasts were proposed and responded to with Mr. C. R. King acting as Toastmaster.

Mr. J. K. Hook proposed the toast to the King which was responded to by the company singing the National Anthem.

Mr. Joseph Russell's toast was to the Village of Markdale and the Village Council. This was responded to by Village Clerk Lucas, Councillor Lee and ex-Councillor Colgan.

The toast by Reeve McEachnie and replied to by Master Perkins. The last of the toasts was to the host and hostess proposed by Mr. S. J. Edgerly, secretary of the Band Committee, and by the whole company of guests.

The singing of "They are only good fellows." This was responded to in a happy manner by Mr. McEachnie.

A couple of hours were then pleasantly spent in singing, etc. Those present were all enthusiastic when it was proposed that we should have at least a dozen Reeves or other officials, all possessing the same good qualities as Reeve McEachnie.

Extensive improvements have been made in the property of Minnis Bros. at Barrhead recently, among them being the erection of a shed for the convenience of the firm's customers.

Foundations have been built under the planing factory and the chopping mill and both have been otherwise improved. A new water wheel has been installed to operate the chopping mill.

These alterations and installations were made by Minnis Bros., saw mill, employees under the personal supervision of Mr. Orr Minnis. The chopping mill is now running Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, and is in charge of Mr. George Street.

This has been a remarkably fine autumn; neither frost or snow of any account yet.

Mr. H. Glendinning, ex-editor of the Dundalk Herald, has started a paper in Swan River, Manitoba.

The Orangeville Advertiser has changed hands, Mr. Wm. Wallace having sold to Messrs. J. F. Dadds and Kenneth McKay.

Mr. W. Turner, many friends were pleased to greet him last week on his return from a six months' sojourn in England, Ireland, Scotland and the Continent.

Holland Centre—Six to eight car loads of mari have recently been shipped daily from Williams' Lake for the cement works, Owen Sound.

Mrs. (Rev.) Lennox Dead

A letter received Tuesday by The Standard from Rev. John Lennox tells of the death on Thursday, November 20th, 1924, at Ocean View, Arcata, California, of Mrs. Lennox, formerly of Temple Hill.

Mrs. Lennox was held in very high esteem by the people at Temple Hill and Knox, Holland, where Mr. Lennox was in charge of the Presbyterian Churches there, and many friends will deeply sympathize with Mr. Lennox in his bereavement.

Following is the letter received from Mr. Lennox: "Editor of Markdale Standard:—

"Dear Sir:—In order to save me from writing to the many friends who have been enquiring about my loving and beloved wife, Mrs. Lennox, I write to inform them through the columns of your paper, that she passed away this morning in a very quiet and peaceful manner after having suffered for the past six months with that dread disease which neither doctors nor medical science could conquer."

I am sorry to have to submit to the inevitable, but as it has pleased God to take her to himself, I humbly submit to his will.

She has been a sweet loving wife, a friend to me for the past twenty-seven years and more. She was the sunshine of my life, and brought sunshine into many a burdened home when she accompanied me in my pastoral visitations. I am yours in bereavement, John Lennox."
