"Tired and Worried Nervous and Despondent"

Mrs. M. Chesebrough, Belle River, Ont., writes: "For eight years I suffered from despondency and nervousness. Sometimes I could not sleep at night for worrying and the next day I would be so tired that my work was a burden to me. I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and can say I am now entirely relieved of the nervousness from which I used to suffer, and things do not worry me as they used to."

"Dr. Chase's Ointment also relieved me of eczema on my arms, which had bothered me for three years. My house is never without Dr. Chase's Medicines."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

There is today no privately-owned electrical utility in or near Toronto, and public ownership is giving service such as private ownership never attempted. It has all happened in less than fifteen years. But there is a period prior to that which must not be forgotten—the day of pioneers like Sir Adam Beck, Mr. P. W. Ellis, the late Frank Spence and others, who dreamed and wrought in order that these things might be fulfilled.—Daily Star

A Surprise Party

A surprise party gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hodgkinson, Rocklyn, on the evening of January the tenth to celebrate the former's birthday.
Mr. Hodgkinson was entirely taken by surprise, when a slight load of his sons and daughters drove in to celebrate his birthday supper with him. After supper the evening was spent in amusements of different kinds. In the course of the evening the family presented their father with a lovely fur coat for which he thanked them very much.
