(Special to The Standard.)

Mr. and Mrs. Clarkson of Buffalo visited over the weekend with relatives here.

A very pretty marriage was solemnized last Wednesday, at 10:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rich. Quintan, with their second daughter, Miss Melba, was wedded to Rev. E. L. Vivian, Rev. Mr. Davies of Chatsworth tying the nuptial knot in the presence of a few relatives and friends. The bride, who looked charming in a gown of white satin ermine with silver trimming and carried a bouquet of roses, was assisted by her sister, Miss Olive, while Rev. Mr. Thomas of Owen Sound North, ably supported his brother-in-law during the ceremony. Mr. Matheson played the wedding march, while Miss Melba, Quintan, acting as solo during the signing of the register. The rooms were prettily decorated with blossoms, plants and garlands. After a dainty dinner, at the conclusion of which the bride cut into the beautiful wedding cake, the happy couple, amid showers of confetti, left for a ten days trip to Hamilton and Toronto, the bride traveling in a grey suit with hat to match. A magnificent present show the high esteem in which the happy couple were held. On their return home they will take up residence in the Rectory at Walters Falls.

Debate and Oratorical Contest

A successful debate and oratorical contest was held in Markdale Methodist Church on Thursday evening of last week under the auspices of the Young People's Societies of the Methodist Churches in the Owen Sound District. A large number of people from Grandfork, Hastings, Frontville, Fiesherion, Berkeley, Holland Centre, Chatsworth and Owen Sound were present to hear the address and witness the presentations.

Rev. H. H. Eaton, pastor of Fiesherion Methodist Church, acted as chairman. After calling the debaters to their respective places, the Vice-President, Mr. A. G. Green, read the rules of the Debate and Oratorical Contest. The subject of the debate was "Resolved that Circumstances have more to do with success in life than has character." Miss Mildred Caswell and Mr. George McKinnon took the affirmative on behalf of the Fiesherion Methodist Church, while Miss Margaret Carnahan and Miss Elma Crumwell represented Douglas Street Methodist Church, Owen Sound.

The debate, which was closely contested, kept the judges very attentive until the last minute. Messrs. W. D. Henry, W. Stewart Cooper and Dr. L. G. Campbell, who were the judges, decided in favor of the affirmative.

Following the debate, four contestants entered the Oratorical Contest. The judges in this were Rev. Dr. Gray, Cooke's Church, Markdale; Rev. Mr. Baylun, Chatsworth; Rev. Mr. Dickson, St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, and Rev. Mr. Bushell, Holland Centre Methodist Church. They also had a difficult task to select the winners. Two prizes were given, five dollars and the second, three.

The first called upon was Miss Muriel Murdoch, a pupil of the Markdale High School, who gave an excellent address on "Temperance." Miss Murdoch is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Murdoch of the Harkaway district and is one of the brightest pupils in the Markdale High School. She was followed by Miss Kathleen Hutchinson, Kimberley, on the subject "Canada—A Problem Confronting Missions." Her address was an exceptionally well composed one. Mr. Russell Patterson, Inistone, rendered in his masterful way the Diploma awarded to the Problems Confronting Missions. The first speaker, Miss Cora McEldowney, Fiesherion, also rendered a good address on "Resources of Canada." The judges awarded the honor of first prize to Miss Muriel Murdoch, and the second to Mr. Russell Patterson.

Another honor won by Fiesherion was the Diploma awarded to the Young People's Society staging the best program at the picnic conducted.

The winners of the essay contest were also announced, Mrs. King, Walters Falls, and Miss Coffey, Goring. Their essays were on the subject of "Christian Stewardship." The papers were so good that the chairman felt that they should be read at the next Conference.

The debate and Oratorical Contest will be the last held under the aegis of the Methodist Church. It is hoped, however, that when the new boundaries of the Presbytery will be defined the Young People's Society of the United Church of Canada will again organize and the debates and other contests made a permanent function.

Rev. H. H. Eaton called the winners of the Oratorical Contest to the platform and extended to them the congratulations which they so richly deserved.

Mr. H. I. Graham, Vice-President, although requested to present the shield to the winners of the debate, very graciously declined and asked Rev. Mr. Davies, pastor of Markdale Methodist Church, to make the presentation as it was at his initiative the contests were started. In his usual affable manner he gave the most beautiful shield to Miss Caswell and Mr. McKinnon who will keep it till next year.

It was a most enjoyable evening and debaters, speakers and the executive of the Young People's Society are to be congratulated upon the success of the event.

Kirkpatrick - Sewell

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sewell, 7th Line, Ephraim, when their daughter, Miss Lillian, was united in marriage to Roy Elmer Kirkpatrick. A number of relatives and friends were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. V. Ellison. The bride entered in the arms of her father and was accompanied by her sister, Pearl, who acted as flower girl. Her sister, Leta, sang sweetly. Correct love letters which a very dainty dinner was served.

Wodehouse

(Special to The Standard.)

Owing to the fact that our Pastor, Rev. Mr. Ellison, is attending conference this week, Rev. Mr. Dumas of Toronto will take the service here on Sunday, June 7th, at 3 p.m.

Preparations are being made for the annual Sunday School picnic to be held on the 13th of this month.

Quite a number from this neighborhood attended the Sunday School convention held at Rocklyn on Wednesday last.

(Held over from last week.)

Mr. and Mrs. William O. Fawcett and son, Hilliard, of Meaford were visitors at the former's parental home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams and daughter, of Toronto, spent over the weekend with their daughter, Mrs. A. A. Thompson. Mr. Williams attended the services in New England church on Sunday evening, and sang a couplet of solo's which were very much appreciated. His daughter presiding at the organ. They also assisted the choir in rendering the hymns. Mr. Ellison preached an impressive sermon.

A few members of the New England Young People's League motored to Owen Sound on Monday to attend the League Convention in West Side Church.

Richards - Bowler

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Bowler of this place was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on Monday evening, June 1st, when their daughter, Viotta May, was joined in wedlock with Mr. James Alexander Richards, a member of the Bank of Toronto staff. The ceremony took place at six o'clock and was performed by Rev. F. N. Bowes, pastor of the Methodist Church, in the presence of only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The home was beautifully decorated with pink sweet peas, hydrangeas and trilliums with a big bank of apple blossoms. The bride wore a gown of rose and sage georgette, blonde kid shoes and stockings to match, and carried a bouquet of roses. She wore the groom's gift, an emerald and diamond ensemble suit with hat and shoes to match. After the ceremony the guests sat down to the sumptuous wedding dinner. The gifts to the bride were numerous and included those presented at a miscellaneous shower which took place at the home of Mrs. William Walker on the evening of last week. The young couple left by motor for Walkerton, Kintouche, Bellville and other points and will reside in Markdale for a few weeks. The Standard joins the many friends of this popular young couple in best wishes for a happy wedded life.

After the conclusion of the wedding ceremony the little niece of the bride, Marjorie Irene York, was baptized.

Wilson - Tucker

(Saskatoon Daily Star)

A quiet and pretty wedding took place Monday evening, May 25th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Harper, Etapla, when their sister, Miss Olive Edna Tucker, and Mr. William Wilson were united in marriage in the presence of immediate friends and relatives. Rev. J. H. Inglis officiated.

The bride was charming in a becoming gown of dachse, with silver lace brought into Juliet slip. She carried a bouquet of opelia roses, and was given away by her father, Little Miss Edna Harper, who was prettily dressed in Orange. The bride was ring bearer. Miss Roberta Wilson played the wedding march. The drawing room in which the marriage took place was decorated with smilax, roses and carnations.

The groom's gift to the bride was an onyx ring set with a diamond.

The bride's mother wore a gown of black beaded taffeta. The groom's mother was in black satin.

Mrs. H. E. Tomp and Mrs. R. O. McKnight assisted at the reception. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Tucker of Loverna and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, parents of the bride and groom; Miss R. Wilson and Mr. L. Clark of Dismore; Mr. and Mrs. James Tucker, Saskatoon; Mr. and Mrs. R. O. McKnight; Mr. and Mrs. Harper, Mrs. H. E. Tomp and the Rev. Mr. Inglis.

For travelling the bride wore an ensemble costume of grey and midnight blue with hat to match. After the honeymoon in Calgary and Banff Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will reside at Dismore.

Mrs. Andrew Walker Sen.

Another of the early pioneers of the district passed away early Saturday morning, May 31st, 1925, in the person of Mrs. Andrew Walker sen., who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. J. Walker, in Chatsworth. The late Mrs. Walker was 75 years and 10 months old, and had spent practically all of her life in the township of Holland. Her maiden name was Mary Gillespie and 59 years ago she was married to the late Andrew Walker, who passed away 17 years ago. They resided at the Meaford where the deceased continued to live with her son Andrew until about five years ago, when they removed to Sullivan township. For some time the deceased had been in fairly good health until about three weeks ago when heart trouble developed.

The late Mrs. Walker is survived by five sons and two daughters, namely: George at Bogno; John at Pleasant Valley; James in Peterboro; Andrew near Chesley; Robert in the West; Mrs. T. K. Robinson of Dundalk, and Mrs. Geo. Rowe of Chatsworth. A son, William Walker, died about 12 years ago. Two brothers and four daughters also survive. Andrew Gillespie near Boreley and John Gillespie at Sturgeon, Sask.; Mrs. Andrew Riecke near Chesley; Mrs. David Jackson near Chatsworth; Mrs. M. J. Higgins in Owen Sound and Mrs. Chas. H. Moore at Sault Ste Marie, Mich. The deceased was a consistent member of the Methodist church.

The funeral took place on Monday from the home of her daughter to Markdale Cemetery, where the remains were laid to rest. The officiating was by Rev. Mr. Morris of Chatsworth who conducted the services and was assisted by Rev. Mr. Bushell of Holland Centre. The pallbearers were three sons, John, James and Andrew, two sons-in-law, T. K. Robinson and Geo. Rowe, and a brother, Andrew Gillespie.

Albert E. Hamilton

There passed away at Portland, Oregon, on Wednesday, May the sixth, Albert E. Hamilton, in his fifty-ninth year.

The late Mr. Hamilton was a brother of Mrs. Will Jackson of town and Mr. W. J. Hamilton of the suburbs, and was for some years a resident in Glenora.
