For the Boys and Giris

trees " asked Eva.

"Just one jar!"

and somehow that an honored vosition between all was ready; and the hun-

no of grapes and a big custard

(Ganalina Russell left the city oarl,

than the expected, coming home on "Food Hazel!" she thought, as she ppresanted the house. . I dare say she she paused, with her hand on stood the front door wide of the windows, and from inerry voices and laughter.

curtains were swinging at

What was the matter?

nik pitcher."

e bull past five train.

Shan

within,

for the following day.

Fellow citizens and friends: I am

HOW HAZEL KEPT HOUSE

Breakfast was over, and Hazel in front of the mirror putting on her broad-hrimmed lat. She was for school earlier than usual morning, for the tall, old fashioned cock in the overer had just struck eight, and it was not until a quarter to nine that the first bell rang.

However she had promised to call for her chum, Nettle Porden, and stop pao : cripped Tim hin die jeites and afford who lux friga. aradan ther at the 0.4 could have Salles at perrow and call be gone all in mon pest rugs.

Sometimes the seemed to realize Grandma and Hazel knew why; also great inventily, was a telegraph operating that better ask Nettle to the there was no one there to exer-why, the next time the old lady went tor—and an unusually good one too.

Mould Patty be her ?" During the forenoon. After dinner invitation to Nettie on main George, too,

die: at our house Haz with emed hoping that any and would not wo an did.

(1) Daleiz-right aback, but, baying griven in rould not only wondering till think, and it reournge for her ): · sit .

. "1" will her Cousin 11 too, herituse rude boys rooms." said the garden and Ducie Parkbut. or avrong-doing, mentioning Eva. · The dight. too many, she merly) she met Eva on he was glad she por miri was so to play," she nic new if you Willy a party tohas bean intersome. I'm glad I was able to some home in time to get hor al plack ing her leight ik houghtful y province a party, he chine side of the house floated the isk India Walters. answay "Jut this is oculi ako to come, ncin not to have ecidedlih just the more so live | The table in the middle of the noor, And there is the Merrisch with her best china and all the dainties that Patty had lain in store hew twin stand by hey were invited de.i

w just and Maio Herr; she And Hazel, squreety knowing what she was doing.

t very easy mat-After that it ter to say "Come to my house to-morrow afternion, arly," until she had paid all debts of tratitude, and Eva's black eyes shore with the prospect of fu hre p e den "!" she said, en-You're a little thusiastically. Why it will be like hope your grandma a real party. your grandma won't care"

That set Hard to thinking. Was it a party, and would penhama care, and how many had she really invited?

She found it impossible to tell, but somehow she falt gullty when grand-ma said than night.

"I suppose your little friends will etsy to supper, so I'll leave the pan-try key where don't touch my best cake nor pro-

"No, ma'am," replied Hazel, mackly, She was almost compted to tell grandma then what she had done, but upon reflection decided to say nothing. "Perhaps they won't all come," she thought consolingly.

But they did, every one of them, and more, too. Grandma had been gone three hours, Nettle and her cousin had been over nearly that time, when Hazel, sosted on the gate post, caw a familiar pink sun ponnet appear in the distance, with a white dress and flutter of red ribbons, in the rear.

give you a genuine stump apocch: but, as I am not a public streaker, I shall ask you to excuse the spoulter, I shall ask you to excuse the and be satisfied with the festive occasion. I would be gind to Merely a new arrival -a quiet-look ing old lady in black, with a small ft's Dulcie and Eva!" she cried. The speaker sau from his possible to pushed the apricots out of sight Eva pushed the apricots out of sight rd -and Oh, Nettie! They've rought Harry Mart with them! Oh behind a vase of flowers, and Hazel And there, come Teddy and turned red as a peony.

Then he paused with open mouth suspended in mid-air. What had happened?

Barr, with that Grimshaw as though they felt themselves culprits; but the old lady though her eyes flashed, only said mildly, "Finish your supper, children"; and went a party we'll there's more designs, laughing. "Still there's more quietly through the soom into the parproved. Perched on the shades down and arranging the scatfor, where they heard her pusling the greet each newcomer, tered furniture.

And her guests as they ap. No one but Hazel and Eva knew that she was really displeased. For Takes arriving made the awful the little hostess all pleasure was gone, and she was glad when the feast was over and Ducie's pink boy-Susce is garden, all dressed in net disappeared, with all the merry holiday attire, and led by black- malers behind it.

Eva, playing at the games that No one but Hazel alone knew what tittle girl had ever known. grandma said, but keen-eyed Eva no-course, to such well-dressed com- tice that she was unusually quiet in Hiszel could not refuse admit- school the following Monday, and all Hazel could not refuse admit sensor the following bronday, and the best rooms, and the shades Hazel's friends who dered why she did not Such a Bargain After All. thrown up, letting the sunlight not attend the annual village excur-better ask Nettie to that there was no one there to exervith you."

It better ask Nettie to that there was no one there to exervith you."

It better ask Nettie to that there was no one there to exervith you."

It better ask Nettie to that there was no one there to exervith you."

It better ask Nettie to that there was no one there to exervith you."

It better ask Nettie to that there was no one there to exervith you."

It better ask Nettie to that there was no one there to exervith you."

It better ask Nettie to that there was no one there to exervith you."

It better ask Nettie to that there was no one there to exervith you."

It better ask Nettie to that there was no one there to exervith you."

It better ask Nettie to that there was no one there to exervith you."

It be five in many cities—Cincinnati, many c didn't think she would care a bit.

iy, he aid. "We will had fot even thought of it. Supper to know hat all her guests voted that, Adams, who much to his disgust was the parties they had ever attended and all the parties they had ever attended and all the feasts ever spread "One day," says the inventor, "Milton one quite equalled Hazel ton and I were passing along Tremont Ruese."

Rues naving heard of Patty's depar- Russell's,

I do not think, in the years to come, been quite delightful, but that and superintends a home of her own, not to be thought of; so they sho will ever forget how she kept open the windows and doors of house that day for Grandma Russell. ing dining room, and the boys ht in branches of elder and-illac, and esteoned the walls, and made Toil and Truth. de l'arker heard yr alis of honeysuckle and roses for However humble be your work, it planse with a like table. couched Haze's Teedy Wasters and the twins even But meet t with unshaken will a number and timid succeeded in bringing in the rustic And ev'ry word of promise fill. No obligation slight or shirk, from the summer house, and aid, inpulsically the stelmp where granma set her box. Thus move along to higher place With steady step and smiling it With steady step and smiling face To have it as garden-like as pos- Resolved to do your best each day he said, disregarding the sev. Though traitations rile the way. ratches and marks on the shin-The masters of a ship, and tars, and Stylia Grimshaw proved All strive to shun the hidden bars-tic assistants, rushing from pan-All know the perils of the main a dialog room, so quickly that And hold the helm with double rein could scarcely follow their by skill in handling wheel and sail, ac mot Stella coming out with They weather sullen sea and gale; applicets in her hands. With duty done in pain and plight "re my grandina's very best," They reach the haven of delight. do love apricots!" coaxed So are attained the goals in life By him who strips himself for striff here, Haze!" called Harry By runners in the hurdled race, Robbie Merrihew has smash- Attuned to proper form and pace. The lad or lass who drives ahead, per of pricots found its way to the When Hope hangs on a single thread table. In an honored position between Will victors be, with brain or hand. Will victors be, with brain or hand,

Equipped to lead in world-command. .. fress the languid you h gry segration were summoned to sup- That honor was on toil and truth-The illings hat putify the earth And glorify the scale of worth! -Liburn Harwood Town-transfixed, as, through one of the heavy." wide-bron, windows, she saw the scene "Not at all. If it proves Customer too heavy for me I can have my carry it for ne.'s Charms of the Arctic. Visitor - "Are you going to be sk Masc. Harr; she and a piece of her choicest fruit cake an Arctic explorer."

"I the week?" Iva and a piece of her choicest fruit cake an Arctic explorer."

"An Arctic explore captorer; Harry Mart was throw." "An Arctic explore captorer." "An Arotle emplorer's life is full of ing roses across the table, with an hardships, Wille."

occasional bread-ball, and on the Ces'm. But I can stand em. I rec-stump stood Teddy Walters, flourish-kon." "Yes'm and you don't never have to her battered doll)-"My! But haven't It is during this period that the quality he has given the world no his gind to have met you here on this wash your face.

One of the best photographs of His Majosty, taken to he did the cornerstone of the magnificent London building to be occupied by bloyd's famous insurance brokerage exchange.

Grandma Russell was displeased; she Jones relates in his book about the inventor. The story is told at the ex- Jim Green kept a shop and the wates Supper? Hazel looked amazed. She It was a trifle consoling, however, penso of Edison's friend, Milton

Row when we noticed a crowd in front To buy from his stock found him surly set under the trees would when Hazel has grown to womanhood, see what was the matter. It happened of two drygoods stores and stopped to that they were rival establishments and that each had rocelved a consignment of stockings, which they were eager to dispose of. Their methods i sign saying that the vast commerdal emporium had five thousand pairs of stockings to dispose of at the paralyzing price of twelve cents a pair-an announcement that wound up with: No connection with the firm next And they tired of his conduct in a moment the rival firm would follow suit, underbidding the His prices were fair and his goods other by one cent, until the price was

> "The crowd had been steadily increasing all the time, contenting itself it's the man, het the with jecring and making merry, but showing no avility to take advantage To the man goes the bettle and not to of the tempting bargains. Milton and I had been ageg, however, for some And what Jim Green ime, and now Milton broke, cut with: " 'Say, Edison, I can stand this no onger; give me a cent. On being supplied with that lavish sum he boldly So his customers left for a pleasanter entered the store, which was filled. with lady clerks. Throwing down the To be served by a mag cent, he demanded five pairs of stockings, and the crowd excitedly awaited the result. The young lady attendant surveyed the customer with magnificent disdain and handed him five pairs' If you've a headache, don't let of baby stockings:

" 'Oh,' said my triend, in much dis comfiture, 'I can't use these.' " 'Can't help it, young man,' was the curt reply; 'we don't permit selections at that price. "The crowd roared, and the com-

Power From Pears.

One of the worst posts that Australia has to deal with is a cactus known as the prickly pear. At has been found infpossible to destroy the pear by uprooting and the only known method is by means of a parasite which lives on the outside of the pear and, if it can therefore, particularly well fixed to publishing of the Club From deal with trade matters. the outside of the pear and. It can therefore, particular to introduced into the cellular formation deal with trade matters.

It has been known for years that power alcohol could be distilled from sea the Alps in winter a yen would be distilled from sea the Alps in winter a yen would be distilled from sea the Alps in winter a yen would be the pear, but the cost of cutting, crush quote an enthysiastic day eler. "No important, an configuration flower besides ing and distilling has been estimated body has ever seen the to be so chormons that the return of has yished the Alps in winter. I have ture. The trade of Meria one and a half gallons per ton would heard a great deal of the glory of the forred agon him by the British object to its being a but be quite incommensurate with the ex-

Now a method has been discovered crushed pear to give a yield of four the teen gallons to the ton and thus it will in the Alps. No moon be possible not only to clear the enor-There was Mabel Barr, with a great man when you grow up, Willie? and free it for inigrants, but to provide meus acreage at present abandoned spoonful of marmalade in one hand, Willie-"You bet. I'm going to be power alcohol for Australia from illimitable and local sources.

Durable Toy.

Little Neighbor (after watching the ing a spoon as he delivered an im. "I like your spirit, my boy. There have you had baby, Mrs. Brown?"

primits speech in honor of the get is a great deal of glory to be gained Mrs. Brown—"Six months, deal of gl process of baby's bath)-"How long Mrs. Brown-"Six months, dear." Little, Neighbor (after a glance at commencing the middle o of the fur can be judged.

Hide Your Headaches. is human to suffer, the toothache's he displayed And the prices he charged should built up a trade But if Jim had a headache, then and glum; He'd quarrel o'er triffes and grouch through the day And take it or leave it he'd frequen-ly say. were entertaining. One would put out The customers found in their dealings with Jim 1. Twas a difficult thing to do business with him: They heard him complain of the troubles he bore. passed up his store;

finally reduced to one cent for five But to put up with Jim was too wuch the eminent Victorian we were the best, of a lest. all said and done > the gun! stock on his shell Could never be sold till he'd first sold of his birth, the aged an himself;

on his face.

moral is plain: I don't show it!

know.it! Ousting the Men.

If affairs go on shaping as they are stead in Dorsetshipe, base at present, in a few years' time we from where he new codices. mercial struggle soon afterwards chief shall find that nearly every Governity ones were devoted to the ment in the world will be in the hands architecture, but in 1876 he of women! This observation is prompt this profession and count ed by the fact that (according to a cor- literary efforts: respondent in Denmarks a woman, Mine, Minna Bang, has been appointed Minister of Commerce in the new Danish Cabinet. Not only is she leader wood Tre ... published two, of the women's movement in penmark, but she has made commerce and polici-

> Winter Star Visit the Alps in winter if you would Docing his sprint heart of East I was disillusiones from the frosty depths of a winter sky 1895, that he determined comparable glory of the In January I have read moonlight." And what is Alps is true also of ou Sierras - and even of the ranges.

Silver Black Fur. The inspection of silver black foxes, Since that time, with the for registration purposes is confined of some scattered short ste each season to about sixteen weeks lished some years ago in bloom

LITTLE DORMET'S CHURCH

.There is a movemen vert a well-known Southway land) church lato a l shrine.

The thurch is that of St. Ca. Mertyr, in Great Dove ough. A memoral to ind each year it is in Charles Dickens Measo St. George's in famili 'Little' Dorrit's Church, so prominently in that adjoining neighborhood.

Dickens associations. 'It is at the White il: ough, for instance, that he acquaintance of the

It was in the yard o White Hart, that a mat employed in brushing pair of boots. n a coarse, striped black calleo sleeves, a battor: drab breoches bright red handkerchie n a very loose and ups ound his neck, and an o was carelessly thrown o his head."

Then it was at Lant St. George's, that the ce given by Mr. Bob Sawye Allen was held.

The description Which is apt to occur to both peasant ranks among Dickons real humor, and had many an elocutionist f

Not far from St. Geor held the famous meeting. Lane Branch of the Unite tion Ebenezer Tempera tion." This was the func by Mr. Weller, sen., and ends in the temporary do Stiggins, the "deputy sh was here that the often ooman" drank "heao bi

THOS. HARDY

REACHES EIGHTYBIR MILESTONE OF

Proise and Tribute Birthday of Last of E Victorian Writer

od the eighty-fifth mile. which, wille it has brough tore, when it's and wealth, has loo him as humble as when first he so lisher who would look with his illegary errores.

Walle the world of arts paid him tribute on this Hitle cottage in the sleep of Dorchester, in the Duch wall, did not deviate the slig with a smile his usual reutine. To aim Januther day. Hardy for many years exponents of the English all the eminent writers of and the past, the World ha ahone the personal and fur Her 'y: He is lobth to bask

Pant.

Recipient of Many H His first work, "Under although not a great financ brought him in touch with. the front rank of the firen that period. fant until he Medal or the Rayer bedery went to the ineat in 1910. The stars Although Handy had rt cannot be werse organion during ut greet us years of his writing, it was ival's the in- poetry his literary goal. Alpine moon. He was then at the hel nall print by career. "The Peturn of it Rockies or fively established his fame. Appulaching the world was settledy infor "The Well Beloved," and Obscure," were to be his in in prose. verse.

chid a half of tea," and was "a-The helphborhood

Wilver Talet." agic spene of the L Their the church their wied, figures at fatt reats all Aftite Berrie." Heads the hay beptisse, gives in Chapte "Thus it came to pair that aristened one Sanday a trend to turnkey, being relieved. hold; and that die tarna to the font of St. Golden hd promised and versed supered on her below. a. h. lated when he came took, Wa-The turnkey referred to Steo, at the Marelater, per blors, where Little Double w. of the lock" mean of date dison gate. St. George's . agoh "harron" bry when the herele pro in the early inorning ... y. She is invited by the .. firm herself by the vestry fire gill's an old volume My, containing the harden. Here you are. You go it yourself as lare daghter of William and Foun, Bern, Marshalsea Private Private Colorge." Little Born: At Man sleep with her head resting offer volume of the resigner finally, she is Spree's to Aglar Ca friend the sexton Lold's it that while she signs You see," he tel les young lady is, on and Las come p Pais of our registe. what I cull the fi asleop, on this ver raity head on what chime; and she's and little name as a brich he third volume."

Passa s

· · 1501

1:10

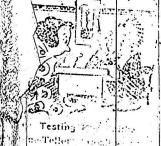

1 1 ...

There is no well says." says. William thring to Hardy. of its of equal valu where adds do this not merely one of. E.English writer. spof the greatest ha period he is one iest watters of an Daring the active . e_ordinary;re. watch requires: Traitering toute rdinary apprecia bee than exercises to sisual or desalting t brief prerace to . work. Hardy say only saw Tess of walking along came along in w anciful horome, s Ves urging her sumegossary we · Site colore ? she saw me La la love with 1

bling the t. otters for their vas ""ces" ul fame in 1891 re," which falls Itardy haden-Philosophy in Poets & Shep'ner to h Cherry which cher is apparent; ediqua to ce e which and dreign. "137 in 1923, w comitry folk . Performed by A you going sked. 1 shall stay rse," he real!

on center to or your fee em Geraps cf s: have spile ers of leather m es. Including drasugarts and a faacreis now forbid the age of eight. gal age had hien

REG'LAR FELLERS—By Gene Byrnes.

-allar che