An exceedingly pleasant evening was spent at the Walters Falls United Church on Thursday evening, June 25, when the League meeting was converted into a special evening of members and friends of the various organizations of the church. Miss Mabel Olmstead presided. At the conclusion of an enjoyable program of vocal and instrumental music, a presentation was made to the Pastor and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Wakefield. The following address was read by Miss Vera Olmstead:

We, of the Walters Falls Young People's League, Ladies' Aid and Sunday School, join in thanking you for your ever ready help and interest in all our meetings and undertakings during your stay among us and we may the members of our church and its associations be blessed ones. As a token of our deep appreciation please accept these gifts. Signed by Mrs. W. L. Shepherdson, President of the Ladies' Aid, Mrs. C. W. Saunders, Superintendent of the Sunday School, Mabel Olmstead, President of the Young People's League.

The gifts consisted of a beautiful copy of Pauline Johnson's works and a handsome scarf for Mrs. Wakefield. Both Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield responded and expressed warm appreciation of the kindness they had received and of the friendships they had formed during their stay at Walters Falls.

Freeman - Graham

On Thursday noon, June 18th, the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Graham, Vandeleur, was the scene of a very pretty wedding when their daughter, Annie Mildred, became the bride of Mr. Russell Freeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Freeman of Markdale.

To the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. (Rev.) F. N. Bowes, the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, and preceded by the two little flower girls, Miss Alice Freeman and Miss Winnie Graham, took her place under the arch of roses and fern on the lawn. Rev. F. N. Bowes of Markdale, pastor of the bride and groom, tied the nuptial knot. The bride was dressed in sand canton crepe and carried a sheaf of Killarney roses and maiden hair fern.

After the ceremony the guests, the immediate families of the bride and groom, repaired to the dining-room, which was tastefully decorated with yellow roses, and enjoyed a sumptuous dinner.

The groom's gift to the bride was a necklace of pearls to Miss Alice a ring and Miss Winnie a brooch, and to the pianist a cut glass vase.

The bridal party left mid showers of confetti and good wishes on the afternoon train for Toronto, Oshawa and other points, the bride traveling in a navy tricotone ensemble suit with grey hat and shoes. After their return Mr. and Mrs. Freeman will reside on the groom's farm near Markdale.

Graham - Breadner

A quiet, but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, 7th Line, Euphrasia, on Tuesday, June 23, 1925, when Myrtle Velma Breadner was united in marriage to Edward Arthur Graham, 9th Line, Euphrasia.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. V. Ellison of Kimberley. The bride, in wreath and veil, was accompanied by her sister Alice, and the bridesmaid by Mr. Bruce Caruthers, Mrs. Frank Woyle, sister of the bride, played the wedding march. While the register was being signed, Miss Leona Boyd sang sweetly, "The Voice that Breathed of Eden." The guests sat down to a dainty repast, after which the happy couple left for a short honeymoon to Wasago Beach. They will reside on the 9th Line, Euphrasia.

A large number of people were present to show their appreciation of the work which Mr. Wakefield has been doing white on this circuit. On Sunday evening the church pews were all filled and at the close of the service Miss Muriel Murdoch read her first prize essay on "Temperance." Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield moved the remainder of their household effects on Monday and the new minister is expected to arrive on Tuesday.

Meagher, was united in marriage to Stanley C. Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Phillips of Calsterville. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Father McGoey.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Frank, wore a pretty dress of bisque crepe roman, with leghorn hat and blonde satin shoes. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia foses and lilacs of the valley. She was attended by Miss Rose Ryan of Aytton, wearing apricot georgette and leghorn hat. Her bouquet was of sweetheart roses. The groom was supported by R. W. Hannam of Guelph, a cousin of the bride.

The groom's gift to the bride was a substantial cheque. To the bridesmaid he gave a pearl choker and to the best man a pearl tie pin.

Breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, only the immediate relatives being present. After breakfast the happy couple left by motor for the Muskoka district, the bride travelling in an ensemble suit of chuker brown tricotone and synora crepe with add felt hat.

On their return they will reside at Grimshy, Ont.

Warden's Picnic at Eugenia

Warden T. R. McKenzie's picnic at Eugenia on Wednesdays last proved a very enjoyable outing. The weather was ideal and a large crowd came, who no doubt will appreciate the opportunity of listening to such interesting speakers as took part in the afternoon's program. Speeches from gentlemen representing all parts of the county were listened to with great eagerness. All joined in bright, community singing and Dundalk Citizens' Band, under the leadership of J. T. Park, rendered many excellent selections.

Cooke's Church W. M. S.

The June meeting of the W. M. S. of Cooke's Church was held on Tuesday afternoon, June 9th, at the home of Mrs. Wilson. The meeting opened with the singing of the hymn, "All the way my Saviour leads me." Scripture readings were taken from Matt. 23 and Deut. 11. Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Ritchie, Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. Walker then led in prayer, remembering especially the churches united on the following day. "A Story of Sacrifice," from "Chinese Diamonds," was read and then Mrs. Stewart gave a report of the Presbyterian at Chatsworth on May 19. A vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Stewart for her excellent report, and discussion followed. As a result of the discussion it was decided to appoint the Executive as a Finance Committee. The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. The Treasurer reported May offerings of $9.87. The Home Helpers reported five new members and a cash offering of 50 cents. The meeting closed with prayer. There were eleven present. Mrs. Wilson served a social cup of tea at the close.
