Henry Hurd Dead

Mr. Henry Hurd, a former highly esteemed resident at Kimberley, passed away in Detroit, on Monday, July 30th, in his 81st year. The deceased farmed for a great many years at Kimberley and last fall went to Detroit to spend some time with his daughter. The remains are being brought to Thornbury for burial and the funeral will be held this (Thursday) afternoon, from the station at 12:07 p.m. Mr. James Magee of this place is a nephew of the deceased.

Owen Sound District Young People's Picnic

The annual picnic of the Owen Sound District Young People's League which was held in the Fleesherton Memorial Park, on Friday afternoon of last week July 17th, was largely attended. The chief attraction of the afternoon was a softball tournament between teams from Dundalk, Fleesherton, Maslie and Owen Sound. In the first round Maslie won from Fleesherton and in the second game Dundalk defeated Owen Sound. In the final Dundalk won from Maslie. Mr. H. J. Graham, District Social Vice-President, umpired the games. Supper was served in the park, after which a short program was given. It was a very enjoyable afternoon for all present.

Markdale school board is figuring on its steam heating system for the school. A. H. N. Jenkins, formerly of the Durham Chronicle, has fallen heir to an estate thru the death of his father in England. Mr. W. J. Hamilton in the suburbs erected last week a fine bank barn. The building is 50x70 feet. Mr. Thos. Cook is the framer and Mr. Jos. McCullough the stone mason. Misses Lillian Sproule and Blanch Macpherson returned last week from a visit in Alliston. Mr. W. Guy Pickell arrived on Tuesday from Sturgeon Falls and is now foreman in The Standard office.

PARTNERSHIP

A partnership has been formed between Dr. A. Ego of Markdale and Dr. R. L. Carefoot of Rocklyn. They will both conduct offices at Markdale and Dr. Carefoot will also conduct an office at Rocklyn. Dr. Carefoot has secured an office at Mr. Hamilton's two doors east of the Public Library, Markdale. Dr. Ego will be found at his old office. Dr. Carefoot will visit Rocklyn three afternoons each week, Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Phone Nos.: Ego 28; Carefoot 62.

Mrs. James Whitteak

The funeral of the late Mrs. James Whitteak, who passed away suddenly on Tuesday of last week, took place on Friday afternoon, July 17th, to Markdale cemetery. Rev. Dr. E. H. Gray conducted the service at the house and grave and the pall-bearers were three sons-in-law, Messrs. Bliss Williams, Will Shann and David Medlock, and Messrs. Jas. Davidson, Alex. Whitteak and Ernest Barnes. The floral tributes were numerous and very beautiful.

The late Mrs. Whitteak, who was 69 years and 8 months old, was a fine type of woman and as a neighbor there was none better and her sudden passing has saddened many homes in the village. About a month ago she was severely injured when she fell down the stairs at her home but was making good progress toward recovery and was able to be about for a few days previous to her death. The shock caused by the fall had apparently affected the heart and she passed away on the afternoon of July 13, with very little warning.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Mary Ann Gillen, was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Gillen of Dunstree and was married to Mr. Whitteak by Rev. Irvine McCarty at Camella on December 22nd, 1855. For some time they resided in Osprey and later at Holland Centre before coming to Markdale about 30 years ago. Besides Mr. Whitteak, the deceased is survived by two sons and six daughters, namely: William in Buffalo and Alvin in Toronto; Mrs. W. J. Little, Buffalo; Mrs. E. B. Williams and Miss Elma in Toronto; Mrs. W. C. Shand, Buffalo; Mrs. Alex. Cox, Winnipeg; and Mrs. N. D. Medlock, Toronto. All were present at the funeral, along with the nine grand children.

Mrs. Elizabeth Moore

The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Moore, who passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Geo. McKevey in Toronto, took place Tuesday afternoon at Harkaway church cemetery, where the remains were laid to rest beside those of her deceased husband. Rev. F. N. Boves of this place conducted the funeral services.

The late Mrs. Moore, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Lyons, was born in Ireland 97 years ago and came to Canada with her family when but a young girl. After their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Moore farmed in the Harkaway district for a great many years, after which they retired to Markdale, where Mr. Moore passed away about 18 years ago. Since that time Mrs. Moore has lived with her daughter in Toronto. She was bright and active up to the end and her grief had broken her health. She was a devoted and consistent Christian and a successful church worker and a woman who was always a great helper in the community where she lived.

Four daughters and two sons survive, namely: Mrs. Geo. McKevey, Toronto; Mrs. Jas. Knox, Philadelphia; Mrs. G. D. Shuldice, Timmins; Mrs. D. D. Murdoch, Vancouver; Archie, South Porcupine, and Geo. N. Timmins, Ont. Friends here for the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Shuldice of Timmins; Mrs. Jas. Knox of Philadelphia, and Miss Millie Lyons of Toronto.

Mrs. Geo. Lambert

One of the oldest residents of Holland township, passed away to the great beyond on Monday night in the person of Mrs. Geo. Lambert, following an illness extending since early in February. While she had been failing since that time, she was not taken seriously ill until Friday of last week, and her death came as a result of the infirmities of old age, as she was in her 82nd year. She was known and well throughout the township for her many womanly qualities. Her death will be seriously regretted by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. Born at Buckinghamshire, England, she came to Canada 77 years ago with the other members of her family, and she was the last surviving member of a large family of children. She was married 45 years ago to Geo. Lambert, of Buckinghamshire, England, and he predeceased her 44 years ago. The family first settled in York county, but moved to Holland township 51 years ago, and has resided there ever since. Deceased was the mother of a family of eight children, of whom six survive, viz: Mrs. Eliza Archer, Rosebush, Mich.; Mrs. J. Farley, Holland township; and Sarah Jane and Edith, William and Elizabeth at home on the farm. The late Mrs. Lambert was an Anglican, and was a faithful attendant at the church services when she was able. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon to St. Mark's cemetery, Holland Centre.

Eugenia

(Special to The Standard.) Mr. Robt. Hollinger of Toronto visited a few days with Mrs. Wilson and other relatives.

Miss Fleming of Philadelphia, U. S. A., is the guest of Mrs. Robt. Purvis for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Lehman and son, Hedley, and Mrs. Jacob Williams of Toronto visited with Mr. Jacob Williams here over the weekend.

Miss Marguerite Pedlar visited a few days with Miss Justina Ellis, Kimberley.

Many acquaintances of Mr. Stanley Godfrey of Meaford were pleased to have a call from him the other day. He was accompanied by Mr. Brown of the H. E. P. C., and wife, and was showing them through our picturesque little village.

Miss Carneh Williams and friend of Toronto visited with Miss Marjorie Park on Sunday. They were enroute to Owen Sound to visit friends there.

Mr. Douglas Wilson of Toronto spent a few days with his friend, Mr. W. E. Morgan.

Another visitor has arrived at "Pheasant Island." This is a beaver which was shipped there about two weeks ago.

In last week's items we were informed that Miss Millie McMullen accompanied her mother home from Toronto for the holidays. This was incorrect. It was Mr. and Mrs. Bowerman that came from Toronto with Mrs. McMullen, and Miss Millie has gone elsewhere for her summer vacation.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Hoy over the week-end were: Mr. and Mrs. Simmons, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wolpher of Drayton; Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Phillips and son, and Mrs. Chas. Hoy of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Tuohy and family of Meaford.

Mr. Code of Toronto visited with his wife and family here over the week-end.

Several people from Milburton have been camping in the park.

Mr. J. Black and three daughters of Chesley were welcome callers at Mr. and Mrs. R. Park's recently.

Mrs. Munshaw returned home Saturday from visiting her daughter, Mrs. Large, Niagara Falls.

Miss Marie Acheson of Walters Falls, accompanied by Miss Currie visited Miss Marjorie Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hillock of Maxwell spent Sunday with the latter's father, Mr. J. K. Jamieson. Crops are looking fine. There are some excellent crops of hay. Mr. Francis Genoe drew 15 good loads of 3 1/2 acres. Next! Raspberry picking has commenced. We are pleased to state that Miss Patricia Morgan, who has been quite ill with whooping cough, is recovering. Several children in this locality are laid up with the same contagion. Mr. Jas. Harbottle of East Mountain called on friends here Sunday, but made a nasty remark as he was afraid of whooping cough. We think he never went to hunt of a leopard. We hope he is successful.

Harkaway

(Special to The Standard.) The Ladies' Aid held their July meeting in the basement of the church on Thursday afternoon, July 16. The President, Mrs. Flabbert, was in charge. The opening hymn was sung and Rev. A. Bushell led the prayer. The scripture lesson, the 24th Psalm, was read responsively, followed by hymn 115. Readings were to be given by Mrs. W. J. Lyons and Mrs. C. Thompson, but were omitted on account of the lengthy business session. Four tenders were received for the painting and varnishing of the interior of the church. This was one of the items of business that was dealt with, and other important business was transacted. Mrs. (Rev.) Bushell extended an invitation to the Ladies' Aid society of this place to hold their August meeting at the Parsonage, Holland Centre. The invitation was gratefully accepted. The meeting closed with the Benediction.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lyons motored to Milverton to visit friends last week.

Miss Edith Carbert of Detroit was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. Carbert a few days last week.

Mr. and Miss Sparling of Woodford were visitors on Sunday with Mr. Wm. Hawken and family, townline.

Quite a number from here attended the League picnic at Fleesherton on Friday afternoon.
