Why Not a Music Day at Your Club?

FASHIONS The St. Catharines Rotary Club a short time ago put on a real "Music Day" luncheon that might well be copied by other clubs throughout Canada. Why not, indeed, right here in our own locality? The speaker of the day was Mr. J. S. Atkinson, of the Canadian Bureau for the Advancement Music.

In opening his address on dwer of Music," Mr. Atkinson said hat until the war he was almost entrey ignorant of the enormous power of nusic. In the Great War, new ic encounged the troops on the march and made them forget their fatigue and inspired them to greater effort.
