McCausland Reid

A wedding of unusual interest took place at the parsonage of the United Church, on the morning of Saturday, July 25, when Miss Margaret Jane Reid became the bride of Mr. George H. McCausland. The bride was becomingly attired in a dress of white satin, crepe, trimmed with lace and crepe de chine ribbon and carried a bouquet of marguerites and ferns. She wore a pearl bracelet and a necklace of pearls, the gifts of the groom. After the ceremony the couple returned to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous wedding dinner was partaken of. Later the happy couple left for a trip to Toronto. On their return they will reside at their home on the Townline North.

Black Knights at Church

The members of Victoria Precinctory No. 282, Markdale, with several visitors from Dundalk, attended services in the United Church (formerly Methodist) on Sunday morning last and listened to an interesting sermon preached by Rev. F. N. Bowes, Pastor of the church, and a member of the order. The Sir Knights met in their lodge room and paraded to the church, and after the service marched back to the lodge room where the usual votes of thanks were passed. The choir of the church sang a couple of anthems with good effect and Mr. J. Dundas sang a solo in his usual pleasing manner.

Priced—Master Hugh Cameron of this place had a peculiar experience last week. Hugh, who is working for Mr. A. McKechnie, is a very industrious little man and exceedingly fond of horses. He got up one night and went to the field, caught the horses, harnessed and hitched them to the wagon and when found was still fast asleep, sitting in the wagon.

Cooke's Church W. M. S.

The July and August meetings of the W. M. S. of Cooke's Church were held at the homes of Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. Ritchie respectively.

The former was opened with the usual devotional exercises, Mrs. Gray giving a reading on "The Justification of Foreign Missions," the early disciples carried the message of the Gospel into all their world, and the writer brought out the thought that Christianity must reach out to the heathen in response to the leading of the spirit. The Treasurer reported an offering of $13.40 for July. Mrs. Hare gave a very interesting review of the life of Dr. Martineau of India.

The August meeting opened with the hymn, "Best are the pure in heart" and Matt. 28 read responsively, and prayer by several of the members.

Mrs. Morrison read a chapter from one of Berkeley's "Devotional Books on John G. Paton's famous exhortation, "Lo, I am with you always."

Reports were read, the July offering being $9.50. Informal discussion followed on some articles in the Missionary Messenger. Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Ritchie each read a chapter from "Chinese Missions," the history of the conversion and subsequent life of two men, one a Chinese nobleman and the other of the poorest and lowest order of servants, and how both alike entered the Christian ministry in order that they might save others. The meeting closed with the hymn, "Speed Thy Servants," and prayer.

SOFTBALL

There was a big crowd at King Edward Park on Monday evening and they had a barrel of fun watching the "Snappy Spinners" put it all over the "Midgets" in a seven inning game, the score being 13 to 7. The winners took an unfair advantage by using a few married women whose experience with the rolling pin proved helpful when at the bat and, we understand a protest has been filed with the local police force. The girls appeared in uniform, the majority wearing overall outfits and this too was unfair to their opponents who appeared in their street clothes and were not prepared for sliding at the bases. There were several sensational plays and the spectators got full value for the admission fee. After the game the players visited Noble's ice cream parlor where the young ladies were treated to ice cream in a variety of courses and the men were each presented with an all-day sucker by the victors. The "Snappy Spinners" all scored, their records being as follows: Anns Hamilton 2; Gladys Patterson 3; Blanche McCausland 1; Viola Shepherdson 1; Alma Murray 1; Emma Walton 1; Viola Corley 1; Viola Richards 1; total 13. The "Midgets" made records as follows: Hugh Knot 1; Hank Noble 1; Geo. Alton 2; Jack Johnston 3; Ed. Colgan 0; Ez. White 0; Tom Reburn 0; Joe Stephenson 0; Iere Whiby 0; total 7. The umpires were J. C. Mercer and M. V. Bufam and they, being men, of course gave the "Midgets" the benefit of every close decision.
