Walters Falls Fair

The Fall Fair at Walters Falls on Wednesday of last week was one of the most successful ever held by the Society. The day was ideal for such an event, although it was a bit cold towards evening. The entry list was the largest in their history and the attendance was large. Markdale and vicinity was well represented in the show ring and a number of prizes came this way. Markdale Citizens Band supplied music during the afternoon and assisted at the concert in the evening. The program at the concert was given by Markdale Dramatic Club, the chief feature being the play, "The Girl of My Heart."

Reception for Clergyman

The members of Christ Church, Markdale, held an informal reception for Rev. A. S. and Mrs. Mitchell in the basement of the church on Wednesday evening of last week. Mr. Mitchell and family had arrived that afternoon and in order that they might meet all on equal footing, the ladies of the congregation had prepared supper at which there was a gaily furnished of the church members. On Sunday Mr. Mitchell conducted service here morning and evening and in the afternoon at Berkeley and was greeted by good congregations at all three services.

Have Moved to Flesher-ton

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McEachnie and their daughter, Miss Marie, moved this week to Flesher-ton where the former pursued the dry-business a few weeks ago. Mr. McEachnie has been a good citizen and is very popular in Markdale, having served as Reeve for the past two years. He was also active in the fraternal life of the village, being a member of the Odd Fellows and the Masonic and Orange Orders. The people of Markdale are a unity in wishing the family the best of good luck in Flesher-ton.

Corrections in Prize List

Markdale Prize List
Class 11, Section 3, should read, "Best feeding steer, 2 years or over," not pure bred. The Wm. Rennie specials have been withdrawn from the list.

Vandeleur

(Special to The Standard.)
Messrs. Frank Taylor and Russell Freeman were successful exhibitors in the draft and agricultural classes at Dundalk fair last week. Mr. Taylor also exhibited at Clarksburg and Walters Falls winning the red ticket.

At the Flesher-ton Fair recently Mr. Harry Baker carried off the Eastern prize for the best herd of dairy cattle. Mr. Frank Davis was also a successful exhibitor in dairy cattle. Both these gentlemen have fine herds of dairy cattle.

Mrs. Geo. Warling is spending a few days with friends in Markdale.

Miss Moore of Toronto is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Buchanan.

Mrs. Dave Graham attended the teachers' convention in Owen Sound on Thursday and Friday of last week. We are very sorry to report Mrs. Jane Richardson very ill at present. We hope soon to hear of her recovery.

Mrs. Dupleon has returned home after spending a few weeks with friends at Toronto and Brampton.

Mr. Norman Burritt has gone to Niagara where he has secured a position.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Stewart of Flesher-ton, also Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Graham of Markdale visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. E. Warling.

The sympathy of the community goes out to Mrs. Albert Wylie in the death of her father, Mr. J. W. Beckley, who passed away at Owen Sound hospital recently, following an operation for appendicitis.

We understand that Mr. Jim Cargo of the Backline has purchased Mr. Will Hill's farm near the Vandeleur church, and that Mr. Ross A. Fox has rented Will Hutchins's farm.

Vandeleur and Ebenezer churches are making preparations for their anniversary services. These will likely be held on October 25th and November 1st. Rev. James Dudgeon and Rev. Wm. Howie will likely be the preachers.

The Women's Institute held their September meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Davis on Thursday afternoon of last week. Reading was done by Mrs. Wylie, Mrs. J. E. Lee and Miss Doris McGee. Mrs. Davis entertained the ladies with several selections on the graphophone. There was also community singing.

Lunch was served by the members. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. J. McGee.

We read a despatch from the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ireton and Frank visited friends at Chatsworth the first of the week.

Mrs. Collins and Miss Elms of Toronto are visiting at R. H. Minion's.

Mrs. Dickson and Eleanor of Owen Sound are visiting friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Weller motored over and spent the week-end in Mildmay.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hampton Jr. on Tuesday, September 23rd, when the members of Holland Centre L. O. L. No. 740, with their wives and families, also the members of the Mission Circle met in honor of Miss Florence Fee, one of the Circle girls, to spend a few social hours before her departure for Windsor, where she has been stationed as a Deaconess. The evening, which was spent in games, music and social chat, passed all too quickly, when Miss Fee was asked to come forward and was presented with a beautiful ring engraved with the Circle's emblem, the Golden Links, by the Circle girls, and with a gold piece on a chain, suitably engraved, from L.O.L. No. 740. Miss Fee, although completely taken by surprise, in a few well chosen words, thanked all those present and wished for the prayers of the people to follow her in her good work after which all joined hands and sang. "For she's a jolly good fellow." A dainty lunch was then served and after singing "God be with you till we meet again," a very enjoyable evening was brought to a close.

The United (Presbyterian) Choir of Markdale motored up to Holland Centre last Monday night and put on a splendid concert under the directorship of Mrs. (D.) Brown. There was a "serenade" of choruses, duets, solos, piano and violin solos and recitations. At the close the ladies of Holland Centre served a delightful buffet lunch in the basement. "Come again Markdale."

Messrs. Clarence Callahan, Wilbert Sutcliffe and Willie Kirkton arrived home from the Great West on Saturday afternoon where they were working in the harvest fields.

Mrs. Warling of Vandeleur is visiting her sisters, Mrs. William Holley, here.

The Anniversary Services of the United Church were held on Sunday, October 4th. Rev. Mr. Bainboro of Walters Falls conducted the service. The church was nicely decorated for the occasion and the choir rendered some splendid music.

Mr. Ivison Holley of Arthur is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Holley, here.

A number of the school teachers in and around Holland Centre attended the convention held in Owen Sound last week.

Misses F. Nicholson and V. Honey of Owen Sound spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. James Dixon.

Mrs. C. Price is visiting this week with friends in Toronto.

Miss Florence Fee left on Wednesday morning for Windsor where she will take a position as Deaconess.

Mrs. Frank Troughton returned from Owen Sound recently, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Wesley Sparrow.

Lauriston
