An important fact about CHEVROLET

A STURDY Banjo-Type Rear Axle is one of the many big car features to be found on the New Chevrolet—it is a husky axle that will handle all the famous power of the Chevrolet motor. Hills—mud—sand—every difficult road condition yields to the unfailing power transmitted through this rear axle.

Mr. George Street, who has been in the employ of Minis Bros. for some years as miller, launched out in business for himself last week by purchasing the well-known mills at Traverston which were erected in 1855-56 by the late Mr. John Travers.

During his ownership they were a hive of industry, as also, they were under the late Wm. Hall of Thornhill, later under Mr. F. C. Cole of Flesherton, followed by Mr. Andy Goodfellow of Chesley and others. The late Jas. C. Ross was a specially clever millwright and millman and kept saws and machinery in good repair. The mill is situated in a central place for business; abundance of water power; neat house and snug barn, and a few acres of farm land goes with it.

George has the confidence of a wide circle of farmers, is strictly honest, most obliging and with a little experience in sawmill work should do extremely well. The good wishes of many admirers go out to him and his genial partner in their new venture.

Mr. John Ryan is having a sale on Thursday of this week, having rented his farm for a term of years to Mr. Walter Clark. 'Tis over forty years since John came to live in our midst and he and Mrs. Ryan have proved most obliging neighbors, progressive and have succeeded. Their home was noted by all for its warm-hearted hospitality and kindness to wayfarers. For some years they have been alone on the farm, their sons and daughters meeting with fine success in city life.
