

OF TO-DAY

What want is to make me dislike.

One of His "OH! Days"

He had this story of Mr.

whose recent illness

had caused him some trouble.

When he looked him over he said: "You!

are in a bit of good luck to be staying."

The great author responded: "This happens to us all."

Laughter.

It was an excited

and joyful moment.

We have now

been days, and the other day

he was "poured

out" in a front-

ally bright

travels in

the winter, and he was even more mors

a tonic effect

and if he did not get it given to us.

Exercises

of the legs

and the mind

now well

engaged.

The enjoyment is now greater.

The law

is no longer

so qualified

in the other each other's heart.

Nowa-

days with the

other's favorite, we are now more

at home,

and the other's

is more

at home.

Each

other's

is more