Blantyre

(Special to The Standard.) We are pleased to learn that Mr. Russell Muxlow of Mossbank, Sask., who has been seriously ill with pneumonia at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Muxlow, is progressing very favorably and is now considered out of danger.

Mrs. J. Armstrong is spending a couple of weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Armstrong of the Third Line. Mr. C. Loucks of Meaford had his men pressing hay on this line most of last week.

Mr. Ross Muxlow of Mossbank, Sask., who has been here on account of the illness of his brother, intends returning this week.

We are pleased to state that Mr. Cecil Boyd, who has been confined to the house with an attack of pneumonia, is able to be out again. Miss Ella Quinlan is assisting Mrs. W. Daley of the Third Line with domestic work at present.

Mr. P. J. of Toronto attended the funeral of Mrs. A. Clark on Saturday. The sympathy of the community was shown to Mr. A. Clark and sons of Temple Hill, who have been bereft of their loving wife and kind mother, who died on Saturday.

Walters Falls

(Special to The Standard.) Mrs. Robt. Walter has so far recovered her bodily health that the nurse, Miss Campbell, returned home to Owen Sound on Saturday last.

The box social held on March 3rd by the Agricultural Society was quite well attended. Hogan orchestra of six pieces and pianist were present and contributed largely to the program, supplying both vocal and instrumental music. Mr. Thos. Ashby, as auctioneer, got very good prices for the boxes. Needless to say the dancing was much enjoyed by those taking part. Something over $50.00 was realized by the Society.

Mrs. W. Lemon of Murphy has been in attendance at her mother since early last week.

Miss Jennie Torrie of Strathaven is visiting her aunt, Mrs. E. Walter, for a few days.

Mr. S. Smith left here last week on his return trip to Westport Canada.
