

Temple Hill Services

Services next Sunday, March 28th, will be conducted at Temple Hill, Holland, and St. Vincent, by the Rev. Dr. Lang, formerly of Maple Hill and Singhampton.

Simple Mixture Makes Stomach Feel Fine

Simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adorika, often helps stomach trouble in TEN minutes removing GAS. Brings out a surprising amount of old waste matter never thought was in your system. Stops that full, bloated feeling and makes you happy and cheerful. Excellent for chronic constipation. Adorika works QUICK and delightfully easy. R. L. Stephen, Druggist.

When you feel uneasy in your bowels, don't hesitate to call and get an Examination free.—J. Lucas.

Mr. Clifford Erskine of Detroit is a visitor with his father, Mr. Jos. Erskine, for a few days. Some people are respectable, yet good for nothing.—Right Rev. Chas. E. Woodcock; D. D. Bishop of Kentucky. Miss Nellie Armstrong is prepared to make and remodel 'Ladies' and Children's Hats at her home, Mark street. Mrs. D. Pate and Mrs. Walter Droster of Dundalk were visitors, over the week-end with the former's daughter, Mrs. Oscar Gillespie. After having been out of coal for some time, Mr. Richard English, the local dealer, received a car of splendid quality the first of the week. We Markdale girls held an enjoyable dance in the Amouries on St. Patrick's night. The music was furnished by an Owen Sound Orchestra. Mrs. John Clark and Mrs. Geo. Garbutt of Owen Sound were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gargoe and other friends in town one day last week. Magistrate Wm. Laidlaw of Durham is relieving for County Police Magistrate Cressor of Owen Sound, who is on a bit of a holiday over to Florida. The New Outlook, the official organ of the United Church of Canada, is a most excellent paper, published weekly in Toronto. Every official should have it. Two dollars a year. Subscriptions taken at The Standard. By a recent shipping merger of Playfair interests with Canadian Steamship Lines, involving an investment of $12,000,000, a fleet of 119 vessels will sail under one House of Commons flag. A number of our citizens attended the sale at Mr. Fred. Hühner's, Hartaway. Prices were good. Miss Beulah Steer of Dorset is visiting at the parental home, Horn—On Friday, February 26th, 1926, to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Steer, Moose Jaw, Sask. a son, and Miss Mrs. Howard Conner and Miss girls spent a day at the former's parental home. We hope to attend the Revival Meetings in the United Church at Markdale, conducted by Messrs. Crossley and Leonard. Mr. and Mrs. John Steer spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Murray, Blantyre, and with Mr. and Mrs. James Oliver, Meaford. Mrs. Rachael Hetu of Meaford announces the engagement of her second daughter, Dorothy Attridge, to Charles E. Giehrst, of Artimago. The marriage will take place early in the end of this month.

NOTICE

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. Bert Bradey of Owen Sound was in town Tuesday. Ex-Reeve A. McCuaig of Glenora was in town Monday. Local dealers are now displaying their stocks of garden seeds. Mrs. H. D. Mercer of Dundalk visited with her sister, Mrs. H. McFanis. Mr. and Mrs. Harold York visited with the latter's parents at East Linton. Now is the time to get the seedling plants in shape for the spring work. Miss Knechtel of Hanover was a visitor with her sister, Mrs. H. H. Lucas. Mrs. Wm. Stewart of Fergus spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Erskine. Farm changes in this locality have been quite numerous during the past few months. Miss Nellie Armstrong has returned home after spending three weeks in Toronto. As a result of the recent mild weather, roads in all directions are in bad condition. Mr. Andrew Millar of Langdon, N. B., spent a few days with his sister, Mrs. S. Morrison. Nurse Lockhart from Inlet was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. W. N. Burnside, last week. Misses Gladys Patterson and Blanche Walker were week-end visitors with friends at Chatsworth. Mrs. Graham, who is staying with her sister, Mrs. (Dr.) Brown, is spending a few weeks in Toronto. Mrs. W. C. Fawcett and Master Hilliard, from Cheltenham, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Hill and other relatives here. Miss Blanche McClarty, accompanied by Miss Margaret Sullivan, spent over Sunday at the former's home in Owen Sound. Mr. W. R. Graham shipped a car of potatoes on Tuesday for the Co-operative Company. The price paid was $2.25 a bag. Mr. W. K. Ireland, for over 40 years one of Owen Sound's best known businessmen, died on Monday, March 22nd, aged 74 years. The Standard's job printing department has been worked to the limit lately completing orders, which is positive evidence that the general public appreciates good printing. Mr. G. E. Kinney of West Berkeley erected and installed an up-to-date Atwater Kent Radio receiving set recently, the work being done by Mr. A. A. Lyons, Harkaway's progressive agent. Mr. S. H. Buchanan of Vandeleur has sold his farm to Mr. Richard Sewell, who recently disposed of his place to Mr. J. B. Hutchinson. Mr. Buchanan will hold a clearing sale on Monday, April 5th. The Standard has the agency for a splendid line of advertising calendars for 1927. The prices are very reasonable and businessmen who intend placing orders would do well to see our samples before doing so. Mr. Archie McArthur, who has rented Mr. C. E. Armstrong's mill, has commenced cutting out the stock placed in the yards during the winter months. When the McArthur cut is completed Mr. Armstrong will begin cutting out his stock. We desire to express our thanks to those who have responded to our appeal for remittances for subscription arrears. To those who have not yet remitted we would say that we will be greatly pleased with a prompt settlement. Thank you! Miss Charlotte Bennett, who was compelled to give up her school at Burke's Falls a couple of months ago because of illness, is not improving very rapidly and is still confined to bed. It is hoped that she may make satisfactory progress with the advent of spring. Mr. Kenneth Gemmill, of the Hydro Electric Commission's office in town, has been laid up for some time with kidney trouble, but we are pleased to say that he is now making satisfactory improvement. His father, who resides at Port Credit, was with him over Sunday. Mr. Samuel Bellamy of Dundalk was in town Thursday last and purchased two registered Jerseys from Dr. J. S. Shepherdson's fine herd. This is the third animal purchased by Mr. Bellamy from this herd to make a start on establishing in the Jersey business in Dundalk. Word has been received in town of an accident which befall Mr. James Barnett of Napinka, Man., who fell on the leg at his home and fractured his hip. He is now in Brandon Hospital and it will be some time before he will be able to be about again. Mr. Barnett visited with relatives here a few weeks ago.

Traverston

(Special to The Standard.) Mr. and Mrs. Robert Webber of Bentleigh spent the first of the week at the Davis home. Miss Kathleen Firth of Durham spent the week-end with friends in Traverston. Mr. Clifford Cook returned Saturday from Detroit after spending the winter months at carpenter work. Mrs. Geo. Peart is visiting this week with her sisters in Toronto. Mr. George E. Peart spent a few days last week at the Hudson home in Bentleigh. The St. Patrick social at Zion held on Friday night proved a success. A splendid program was given including the play, "The Cuckoo's Nest", by the Edge Hill young people. Irish contests proved an interesting feature. Mr. William Jack and Miss Alva Greenwood were winners of the prizes. Proceeds amounted to $15. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McArthur stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bruthley of Dornoch.

East Berkeley

(Special to The Standard.) Misses Marguerite and Ruby and Mr. Ernest White of Rock Mills spent the week-end with their sister, Mrs. Gordon Steer. A number of our citizens attended the sale at Mr. Fred. Hühner's, Hartaway. Prices were good. Miss Beulah Steer of Dorset is visiting at the parental home, Horn—On Friday, February 26th, 1926, to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Steer, Moose Jaw, Sask. a son, and Miss Mrs. Howard Conner and Miss girls spent a day at the former's parental home. We hope to attend the Revival Meetings in the United Church at Markdale, conducted by Messrs. Crossley and Leonard. Mr. and Mrs. John Steer spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Murray, Blantyre, and with Mr. and Mrs. James Oliver, Meaford.

Engagement

Mrs. Rachael Hetu of Meaford announces the engagement of her second daughter, Dorothy Attridge, to Charles E. Giehrst, of Artimago. The marriage will take place early in the end of this month.
