

The Value of a sound Banking Connection

MANY a problem that looms large to farmers unfamiliar with finance may be easily overcome by establishing relations with a Bank of Toronto branch manager.

At this time especially, when loans are required for new stock, seeding and machinery, the value of a sound banking connection cannot be over-estimated.

Your Bank of Toronto manager always ready to give you the benefit of his experienced counsel—to offer the advice and financial aid which may put an end to all problems of farm financing.

Miss Coxa Myers of Kimberley spent a few days recently with her friend, Miss Nellie Boland.

Miss Stone of Eugenia spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McGee and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ran. Hutchinson visited friends at Riverdale recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Johnston and children visited recently with friends at Rockton.

The Women's Institute held their March meeting at the home of Mrs. A. Hill on Thursday afternoon of last week, March 18th. A good crowd was in attendance. A paper was given by Mrs. J. J. McGee on School trustees, and Mrs. W. Swanton gave a reading. The roll call was answered by each member giving a joke. After the program lunch was served by Mrs. H. D. McLoughry, Mrs. Swanton and the Misses Davys.

Mrs. Hammond and babe of Laurel spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baker.

We understand that Mr. Richard Sewell, who sold his farm on the townline to Mr. J. B. Hutchinson, has purchased Mr. S. H. Buchanan's farm on the 12th con. We believe the price was about $500.

Assessor A. McLeod of Priceville was on his annual pilgrimage through this section of the township last week.

Mr. Leonard, of Crossley and Leonard, who are holding evangelistic services in Markdale, occupied the pulpit in Vandeleur church on Sunday and also sang several beautiful solos.

Vandeleur church was well filled on Thursday evening of last week, the occasion being a debate between the teams representing the Young People's Societies of Kimberley and Chalmers Church, Feverisham. The debate was one of the series being conducted throughout Grey Presbytery under the auspices of the Young People's Societies of the United Church of Canada. The subject was, Resolved "That the Church, rather than the State, should be responsible for the moral welfare of the immigrant." Kimberley had the affirmative and Feverisham the negative. The judges were, Messrs. Geo. Pritchard, J. I. Graham and Jos. Buchanan, who awarded the decision in favor of Kimberley. The debate was of a high class order, the delivery of the various speakers being good and the points were well taken. Rev. Ellison of Kimberley occupied the chair and he and Mr. Buschlen sang a splendid duet. Mr. R. D. Carruthers, in a short address, moved a vote of thanks to the various entertainers and Mr. Frank Davis, in a few humorous remarks, seconded the motion. Mr. H. I. Graham, County Conventor, explained the rules of the Debate. Debating a number of people were present from Kimberley and Feverisham. Lunch was served by the Vandeleur ladies.

The moving picture entertainment put on by Mr. T. S. Cooper, of the Department of Agriculture, on Friday evening was quite a success and was well attended. There was a pleasing variety of pictures both humorous and instructive and were thoroughly enjoyed by all present. As our citizens have decided to purchase material for a portable platform for use at the entertainments held in the school from time to time, the proceeds of the movies, $7.05, will go toward the fund. As the weather conditions were unfavorable for a radio concert on this occasion, Mr. York decided it would not be advisable to put it on. Mr. Cooper received a hearty vote of thanks for the splendid entertainment.

In our recent report of the W. I. meeting we omitted to state that $5.00 was voted toward the platform fund.

We are pleased to report Miss Polly Struthers slowly recovering after several weeks' illness.

The box social which was held under the auspices of L.O.L. No. 740 on Friday evening last was a decided success in every way, and was a credit to the local lodge. The splendid programme consisted of local and outside talent, and was one of the best given in our village for some time. The boxes which were numerous and beautiful were sold by Mr. Walden, the Markdale auctioneer, and brought a good sum. Every body enjoyed the bountiful lunch provided. Proceeds were over $52.00.

Misses Leta and Blanche Cooper of Markdale spent the week-end visiting friends in our burg. Miss Leta took part in the program at the Orange social.

Mrs. Flemming and Miss Dorothy Chisholm of Chatsworth spent a day as the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Bert Holley. They also took in the box social. Miss Chisholm gave a couple of readings in her usual pleasing manner.

Miss Lillie Mills of Springmount was a week-end visitor with her friend, Miss Alma Hampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fraser and Mrs. McInnis of Arnot were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wright on Sunday and attended divine service here.

Miss Passmore has recovered sufficiently to be able to leave for her home on Monday last, where she expects to take special treatment in the local hospital. Every hopes for a speedy recovery.

Quite a number are having successful wood bees.
