They sat down on a rock and becan o collect their scattered senses. Where Cove, and at dead of night.

wait alike the inevitable hour their enthusiasm made them unusually strong. They had wished for opposition, and they were destined to ment it, though in an unexpected manner.

Just as Melvin and John were reaching the top, a loud, quick bark was heard, and immediately a large dog was seen rushing toward them.

They dropped the trunk and took to their heels across the Plains of Abraham; the dog following after them. The dog did not follow far; but es long as he continued to bark, our heroes did not cease to retreat.

It was not long tefore they found themselves near a large building, which Melvin recognized as a jail, built a few years before on the plains. This was a new source of terror for Now what were they to do? Behind them the jail; to the right the riven, three hundred feet beneath; to the left, at some distance, a street, which they dare not approach at this time of

For the Boys and Girls

BY GEORGE G. RYAN.

Wolfe's famous battle on the Plains were their companions? They had not of Abraham is familiar to every stu- given them a thought until now. The dent of Canadian history. The plain moon was still shining, though a dark extends for about two miles along the and threatening cloud was rising. extends for about two miles along the and threatening cloud was rising.

St. Lawrence River, from Quebec to They were awakened from their thousand "words" is a separate provided to capture the city river below. Some one—perhaps a teem brush strokes, and if you missing the control of the city river below.

12, 1755, under cover of the darkness, until they reached the protection of an for themselves when they borrowed Wolfe and rearry all his army secured old round tower. This was one of a the Chinese idea of picture writing! a anding at this cove, climbed up the line of towers which extended from that nature had done this for him. He, to spend the night there. So they human figure, though it has been ab-

The boys all lived in Prescott where dog. We're in a fix now, For goodness they had been attending school, and sake, keep still, Melvin. What shall three weeks before, they had begun we do if they come up here?"

The Old Sailor Talks.

There was action in the old days when. Journey down the river from "Didn't you hear a noise above point. Melvin Green, who had said ope of them. "Let's go up these visited nearly all the towns along the stairs," river, had organized the expedition. "It was only a rat," replied the John Grighton, Everett Marshall and other, "But we might just as well Arthur Powell, all of whom were ht stay there as a nywhore. There's ho home on the river, were his companies in bosts, any father to-night? And up their they started. They were well fitted out with beat. The bearts of our heroes on tent, M. slove and other cooking uten- straw above heat like engines, and otonous, for the river was wide, and after talking low to each other for a there we se few islands or objects of few minutes, were soon fast ascept But one morning, they learned by of the stairs, and Melvin and John inquiry that they were within a few could not escape if they should try miles of Quebec. Again their enthu- In spith of their fears, exhausted nasiasm was aroused. It had been a ture would have its way, and the settled purpose in their minds, for snores of their sleeping guard soon some time to camp out one night upon lulled them to seep as well.

the Plains of Abraham, and to reach Leaving them there in a sleep too their camping ground through Wolfe's sound for dreams, we will now return to Wo fe's Cove, and follow the fort A fisherman, whom they chanced to tunes of Everett Marshall and Arthur meet, posted out to them Wolfe's Powell.

Cove, which could easily be centat a When Melvin and John dropped distance. They made a landing two or their trunk, and ran across the plains, three Biles above, and waited until pursued by the dog, they quickly reevening, not wishing to make the turned o their boat, thinking the river ascent until the appointed time. They much safer than the shore.

spent the time in studying the full. They rowed down the river as quiet particulars about Wolfe's great vic- ly as possible, in the direction in which tory, and impatiently waited for the their companions had gone. They listime to come when they were to em- tened intently to catch the slightest .. sound that might reveal the presence Nine check found them on their of the heroes above. But the Plains way. The speen was shining brightly, of Abraham are at least three hun-and the siver and shore never looked dred feet above the river, and they grander. They thought it an easy could see or hear nothing.

thing to be brave amid such surround- Soon a storm was heard advancing and they once more effected a landing thought of the danger that awaited with much difficulty, succeeded in him upon the plains, recited to his climbing to the plains above.

him upon the plains, recited to his climbing to the plains above.

She—"When in an out of the way spot like this a girl always wishes she time before.

So Melvin, who had spoken the way the very same tower to which with the part an exhibition that very Melvin and John ran, to scape, not male animal at Least.

A Male Animal at Least.

She—"When in an out of the way spot like this a girl always wishes she had a man's protection."

Oversensitive Mr. Small—"Miss Now which part an exhibition that very Melvin and John ran, to scape, not male animal at least." spring, stood up in the stern of the the guards from the jail, nor the ownboat, and once more pronounced those er of the dog, but their own fellowwell-known words upon the calm wat- travelers, Everett and Arthur.

They were too frightered to recog-rying fifty fully equipped soldiers was flower.

The best of heradry, the pomp of nize their voices, but the recognition ordered recently by the British Air jawer.

This order, says Popular And all that beauty, all that wealth the fower and saw their friends seep. Science Monthly, followed the coming near them, can be more easily pletion of a fleet of air buses for twen-; imagined than described.

The cove was soon reached, and by top of the path up which they had ance. of the night's adventures. Near the new plane will be used as an ambulthe time they were there, they really gone was a small shanty, in which wished there were a few soldies at lived a French family, the owners of he top to resist them.

On landing they drew their beat on their woe. On landing they drew their boat on their woe. shore, and quickly made preparations. The trunk, with its contents, they would be thought no better a musician, for the a sent, Melvin Green and John never found. It probably rolled down than his wren How many things by Ceighton were to carry the trunk, into the river and sank out of sight, senson sensoned are to their right The flaunting flow'rs cur cardens yield, which contained the oil stove, tooking Its loss put an end to their voyage, praise and true perfection.—Shake-High shelt ing woods and wa's mann utensils and provisions. Everett Mar- and they returned by steamboat to speare. shall and Arthur Powell followed Montreal and thence to Prescott.

close behind with the tent and bed- In their opinion, the French gene ing.

eral, Montealm, made a wonderful Yale university has conferred the Ir was by no means easy work for mistake in not strengthening the degree of Dector of Laws on the Swedthe frunk was particularly heavy; but guard at Wolfe's Cove with a doz ish Crown Prince.

Who knows but that, if he had done Quebec might still belong to

A B C in Japanese.

The written language, of course, is ar harder to master than the oral, for while a Japanese taking up English has only twenty-six letters of the alphabet to learn, the Canadian who studies Japanese must become ac quainted first with two elementary alphabets of forty-six syllables each be-fore he is ready to dommence the study writing the nine thousand-odd from below, this brave poung general guard from the Jail—was on their place a line by a hair's breath you have the down. On the night of September They took to their hee's once more, laid in a large consignment of trouble a parting at this cove, comped upone interest which extended from It is rather fun tracing the original present convenience of the present convenience of th gand at the top, and in the morning to the St. Charles.

Montculm was surprised and outgeneraled. He had not defended this had some time been used for a dwellside of Cushee as he should, thinking ing house. They made up their minds that particle had done this for him. He had not had some time been used for a dwellthat particle had done this for him. He had not the night there. So they chartes, on the opposite side of the down to rest upon some straw which now but the two legs. "Kta" (north) Whin he heard of Wolfe's approach, he his I nothing to do but to meet him and they were just about falling chosen. The result was death and immortally to both generals, and the most life hours and they not longer light, and they heard a neck, back, tail, and th

English.

The beloidess of the undertaking a They felt that now there was no hollowed well for water in which one the military genius of Wolfe, and his escape for then. Then a voice was postened the stick of perfuned ink

I learned to love the sea,

Oh, the liner is a lady, but she's not the girl for me.

who try to say "Hello!" friendly, don't you know, ;

It's all business now, is salling, as I think you will agree. With arrivals and departures just as than the 'Recessional' or the dedica. To empty every cup and can

She always shows about the same the time the log is read, And I'd rather have a woman with some nonsense in her head. -Edgar A. Guest.

A Male Animal at Least.

Plane to Carry Fifty Soldiers. An all-metal airplane capable of carty-five soldiefs a short time ago for The paths of glory lead but to the . They returned by boat to the scene use in Mesopotamia in action the Rare Songster.

The nightingale, if he should sing by

Gets Yale Degree. . Yale university has conferred the Adorns the histic stibble field,

HENRY HUMBOLDT

Whose amazing ability in advanced mathematics is puzzling many of the best known medical men and psychologists in continental Europo. He treats advanced logarithms as the ordinary boy does the multiplication table, and solves abstruse problems with ease and accuracy.

Kipling's Medal. glorious death have roused many a heard amid the murmuring of the before rubbing up a supply on the mind with a thirst for glory.

"I wonder where they could have dankle fine half between thumb and forein more dankle for m To Rudyard Kipling has been award- The Golden Hinde went bowling beginnings, seeing each writer in his Had cursed the golden grape time, in that long succession of the line Bidding him yield un Malvosio royal, making a bid for immortality And wine in every slape. with the power of the written word.

He has always held and defended a And need I say that Drake complied There was beauty in the canvas high concept of the writer's duty, and And poured the wine over the side, which your turbines can't re- responsibility, and he now avers that invited all the Reds inside none had known what truth was till And let them ransack far and wide . some man first told a story about . The ship that was his sinful pride other man. And he assigns to litera. For anything his men might hide, For she's business like and snappy ture the place of the oldest of all That so he might escape. and there's hardness in her face, the arts, mother of history, biography, tent, in store and other cooking uten-strick bloove heat like origines, and sils, bedding and money. They had a seeme prince; to shake the tower. It there was postry in salling when the to realize in his own work that long working very hard, and their progress remained for them to do but to keep them, as satil as passible.

There was postry in salling when the to realize in his own work that long which in doctrine and in the artis's conscience he adhered. When the issues the wind began to blow.

They had a gerious tirue. The last top of the stairs they did not venture not the girl for me.

When the issues the tower that he is, has always been able to realize in his own work that long. And pledged immortal beauty. And pledged immortal beauty. And the isle heyond he foam the wind began to blow.

They had a gerious tirue. The last top of the stairs they did not venture not the girl for me.

When the isle heyond he foam the wind began to blow.

They had a second wine to shake the tower. It there was postry in salling when the isle he, has always been able to realize in his own work that long. And pledged inmortal beauty. And the isle heyond he foam the wind began to blow.

They had a second with the is, has always been able to realize in his own work that long. And pledged inmortal beauty. And the isle heyond he foam the wind began to blow.

They had a second with the isle has always been able to realize in his own work that long. And pledged inmortal beauty. And the isle heyond he foam the wind began to blow.

They had a gerious tirue. The last top of the stairs they did not venture not the girl for me. She walks away from humble ships explicit and brisk-moving enriest His hand and glass were lifted tales, such as "The Incarnation of When they reached the rebet shore And I like to have my woman sort o' Krishna Mulyaney" or "The Courting And Hiram Hugginburg came forth of Dinah Shald." In beauty, tender And bade him drink no more ness and felicity of diction he has never surpassed 'The Brushwood And naturally Nelson fan Boy." He has written no finer poem To do his bidding and began regular as bed.

tion of the "Barrack-Room Ballads," And snacen the rain from Son)

Oh, the liner is a lady but she's not made his thering place shough he hever Had broken with him the battle tion of the "Barrack Room Ballads," And snatch the rum from every man made his lasting place though he hever Had broken with him the battle van

When he says, on the current occasien, that a dezen writers in 250 years are assured of their earthly immor. Of those world-wandering graves, tallty, one feels that his own claim to 'In what more modern stylo be counted in that small number might Britannia rules the waves. be established with a majority of hose who speak and read the tongue whose flexible appliance and capacity his writings supremely illustrate.

He Was Right. The chairman of the advertising conference, say down, confident in the knowledge that his speech had been a success. "No," he said turning to a man by his side, "I don't think that there is a single l usiness under the sun that would not benefit by advertising." remarked the other, "I can't agree with you." "What?" The chairman's tone was cold. He was not used to contradiction. of business advertising is quite un Didn't they give you a part, after all?" necessary; we find that our clients do the pushing for us," "Rubbish!" snapped

"What is line of business, any Perambulators," was

"Wee, Medest, Crimson Tipped Flower." Cauld blew the bitter-biting north Upon thy early, humble birth; et cheerfully thou glinted forth Amid the storm. Scarce read's above the parent-carth

" shield: But thou, beneath the random b

Q' clod or stane, Unseen, alane

A Patriotic Song.

one day in July, four school-boys, who "I tell you," whispered Melvin, the lips. Whenever I see a Japanese writing now, I can still taste reministration. And tomahawk and shout:

Lawring, and writing now, I can still taste reministration. Quebec determined to foll they take in this direction," was the like one of the invaders. | ger, and shaped to a point, between reply to Lord Balfour, chairman or the meeting. Mr. Kipling has made a clear. The savages came out writing now, I can still taste reministration. Quebec determined to foll they take in this direction," was the like one of the invaders. | ger, and shaped to a point, between reply to Lord Balfour, chairman or the meeting. Mr. Kipling has made a clear. The savages came out eyed and masterful appraisal of his To had the ship will tossing spear ancient craft in which he traces it— And tomahawk and shout:

For the red gods and the wilch-doctors had considered to golden grape.

And I like to see thy woman wear a philosophy and politics.

The top-calls of the Victory and I like to see thy woman wear a philosophy and politics.

It cannot be said that Kipling great. Turned westward on a day writer that he is, has always been able.

Great Nelson saw his surrise land

If, loyal to some foreign cause, We sfill are careful, clause by clause, Obeying other countries laws,

We never shall be slaves! Y C. K. C. must b A certain young lady, in a certain village, was the proud winner of a beauty contest in which the prize amounted to the sum of $290 in cash, or a part in a hig film.

The young lady decided on the latter, and departed from her home, the envy and admiration of all her friends. or a part in a big film. bound for the film studio.

A week went by without any news; then one day she returned and resumed her previous occupation. "But," inquired the wondering vil-"In my line lagers, what about acting for the film? Pain fades a dream, then nothing!

"Oh, yes," replied the girl bitterly. "They told me that mine could be the How god I that fragrant rest enthrall, hand that held the bottle labelled . That calm 'Potson' in the villain's nightmare!"

Beside the Point. The teacher was giving a lesson on the Creation, but was finding it hard to hold the attention of the class. Suddenly Thompson, the least attentive of all, interrupted with the ret mark:---"My father says we are descended from ages, sir." mourning, although to us it seems the "Well," said the teacher; sharply, most appropriate. In Persia the color "your private family matters have no is pale brown, Indicating withered interest for the class."

Bright Gigl. "Why didn't you put this water not matter, provided the sentiment is melon in the icebox as I told you; sincere, Mary ?"

to take out the ich to get it in."

"I did, mum." "But it isn't cold." LOVE ON A

Why is it that Cupid always gets so busy when land is out of sight and loved Mrs. Moon casts her spell on the rip ness not pling waves? This article, by a sentipling waves? This article, by a senti-wonte mark Scitly the melody of a mental saller, enswers the question griffs participating upon the breeze. and tells some stories of love at sea. A pleasure ship, which returned to England a few days ago after a long. That evening Romance lived again, cruise, had on board twelve couples. Before the and of the voyage the little who had become engaged on the trip that the become "my lady." and two who had been married by the captain. The latter, when questioned about the happy events, laughingly re-

"What can you expect? A tropic night, a silver moon, youth—and the sea! That's all! You can't explain it; It works the same magic over and over again!

An Ocean Romance.

Youth and the sea! That was all yet how much it means! We do not! need to tax our imaginations overmuch to capture something of the spirit of intere romande which hovers over the pleas Those sure-liler ploughing its way over the ocean lighways of the world with their ever-changing panorama.

The most remantic ocean voyage the the one which is said to result in most hos sea engagements, is the trip from Eust don't land to India. It was once the scond of an international love-match, the de tails of which were recorded in the brong newspapers here and in America u

The story begins in the United States. A young American girl had The fallen in love with an English baronet; to whom she had met during a visit he paid to New York. He was nightly twice for age, tall and distinguished. handsome, too but rather cold and aristocratic in mien. She made no secret of her affection, but he ignored!

ier, although she was wealthy and byely. Under the Tropic Stars.

His Indifference piqued her had when she learned that he kad taken a passage on a vessel bound on a found the world cruise, she followed suit Surely, she argued, she could win him if they were thrown into each other's society every day for months? Sho was prepared to try; more, she was determined to win.

But she seemed to be fated, to encounter disappointments. The barenet was willing to walk and talk with her while on board ship, but he remained as cold thise as marble. He was apparently heart passe less. She couldn't understand it, un this less it was that all Englishmen were ed w the same; So she made no progress -.until the slip left Bombay and But steamed into the blue of the Indian 16-

Ocean. A warm evening found the girl promenading after the dance. She paused in under an awning, a figure radiant in white. She was gazing with sad eyes upon the shimmering sea, which seem p like that!

lecked

irs an oplate for all, tades a dream, then nothing! Oh, soft and kind the shadows fall, slumber hides in acrid gall, Lo, grief grows drowsy while w

Sleep!

The peace for any dream too deep!

Mourning Colors. ! Black is not the world-wide color for leaves. n Egypt and Burma yellow is Glass Like Steel. in now be made so thin that Steel "No, mum, How could it be? I had it is as transparent as the clearest glass.

has talked in the mystic darkwere sticht husbed into Lipnie ling a Woman-haten her lightly and from South Africa her lightly made many people rich in happings and memories. In a court case natice that ago a curious story of Birl with on ar way out to Cape Town to be trarright to a young man to whom angaged for some time. On beilled, struck up one of these quaintanceships which are others white of life on the big > young engineer going to He proved to be an impunion; too interesting. hed their friendship into b and by the time they a they were hopeleasty were married and left adbira, to spend their dst, the exotic spleuof grapo-gardens. And ch should have carried ang man in Cape Town suite crossing would be might imagine, for inties, but this is not so, eard a story from the which reveals that even be turned by the glamate s pend." anadian, suffering grain ut, was bound for the is a confirmed woman he said, did not interest would: He spoke ton was a flighty of llow, as this primation, if not more so, a new paid been stirring up the or to life, and, in his own unit stabling support instead programming in his deck-chair, if to the pand the hobble round the neo's Relapse. few spreand more ardent. The earlymorning, Soon all the lizers but to know about the

He malless of which was water end they became day .. words, as it took : e ancient though cover from the adding fered as a result of his or whether you're old.

andamental Klotteg the es are three. The brut owering passion for de art and finaginative in he first: a prodictou.

philling coherence, for stantial dream atun ta sear-cut and declated as a life, on the physical og eraftsman's gift for ting (them the re-

with an exquisite as high, that form ever ews of his work . .

every sentence is as Prise one of them at ted the Prize one of them.

Baco All you feel it would be a Brassles the paragraph des fe-

he holed do in week

Replace it, and it hat.

There are in girles or blown spray of sound.

days must repert them.

the full stop. Lack ike but also, it more:

(ulden scenes stud his) atones. "The lessure.

tternel with peacocks'

and turned in on the Mith to where the foun-

prushed along the edge raming prove their validity.

trid inarvellously upremit may be craftsmanship. And some with the optical integers in a form, fitting into ming infractes of intrace fretion.

bear unjis into feomilia

minual counterpart of

, namely, for entoretes,

Kird g's Technic.

a dangerous criminal to

The Healer. Keen watch with care not long

Time pours an oplate for all. ...

through every sense should creep; But best on best the soundless pall,

Time pours an opiate for all. Pain fudes -- a dream, then nothing? -S. S. Fisher.

favored, white in China; and deep blue in Dokhara. After all, the color docs kie one star-sapphire. -"Men of Letters." bee Through It. w. remember. Nellie. him then can see through is in you name something. pa'am'. A keyhole. Mother?

