Apparently the "Melancholy Days Have Come" before their regular season. Perhaps there may be sunnier days yet to come.

Most of the roots are harvested in this vicinity, but on a motor ride of sixty-five miles south-westward, lately, we observed quite a number of potato fields still untouched and nearly all the mangolds had their necks yet to be wired.

Mrs. M. J. Davis spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lawrence in Egremont.

Surely the Great Lakes ought to be up to their old level from the copious rainfall of 1926.

Mr. George Allen of the 4th con. has purchased the 100 acre home-stand of Councillor Alex. Alpe and has leased the other 100. George and his better half have done well during their few years of wedded life.

Mr. Basil Davis had the front half of his home reshingled on Thursday of last week and to add interest to the event took an unexpected slide off the roof to the grassy lawn below. He's fairly hefty and hit the turf solidly.

Miss Edith Teaser bade good-bye to her many friends hereabouts on Sunday, leaving on Monday for Markdale.

After three weeks' illness, Lucinda Edge, wife of Mr. George Henry of Dunganon and second eldest daughter of the late Elias Edge and sister of the late Rev. Joseph Edge, passed away on Friday morning of last week and was buried in Dunganon cemetery on Sunday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Keyes conducting the services in the home and at the graveside. The funeral was an exceptionally large one and the floral tributes many and beautiful. The deceased was born 68 years ago on the farm on the 3rd con. where Mr. H. Moffat, now resides, but the family moved to the farm on the 6th con. where your scribe now lives, sixty-three years ago. Some thirty odd years ago she went to live with relatives near Dunganon and six years ago was wedded to Mr. Henry, who sadly misses his partner. Among those from a distance at the funeral were: Mr. H. P. Edson of Toronto; Mrs. Frank Taffel and Spencer Edson of Forest; our scribe; Mrs. J. E. Edwards; Miss Elizabeth and Mr. Eric van Mar. They were all very happy to see the deceased.

Dear Katie.—Having learned of your intended departure from our midst, we, your friends and neighbors, have assembled here-to-night to spend a few pleasant hours with you, before you leave us.

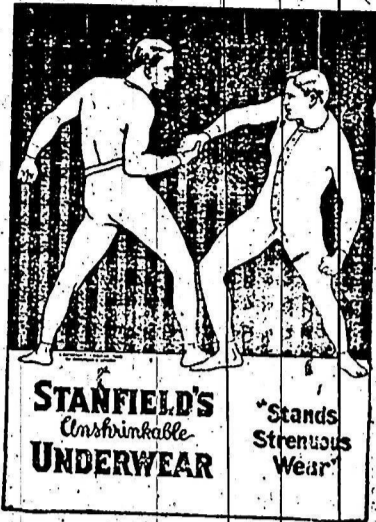

You have spent most of your life in this vicinity and we have always found you obliging and ready to lend a helping hand if needed. Our time here together has been pleasant and happy and we regret that these peaceful and happy seasons must soon be closed to a close by your departure. We hope to meet you occasionally in the future. This of Houston, Texas, where he will work as a driller in the oil fields during the winter.
