Vandeleur

(Special to The Standard.)
A wedding of considerable interest to people of this community took place on New Year's Day at the home of Mr. Thomas Dudgeon, 168 Margueretta St., Toronto, when Mr. Thomas Shannon and Miss Rne Wolfe were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. James Dudgeon of Port Credit, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The bridal party entered the drawing room which was prettily decorated for the occasion and the ceremony was performed before a bank of evergreens and flowers. After a short honeymoon trip the happy couple returned home the following Friday evening, when quite a number of friends and neighbors gathered to give them a welcome home. Mr. Shannon is one of our most highly respected citizens and Miss Wolfe has made many warm friends during her residence in this community. All join in wishing them a happy and prosperous wedded life.

Mr. Norman Genoe has returned home after spending a short time in Toronto.

Mrs. Geo. Fritchard, who has been under the doctor's care, is improving.

Mr. Robert Blair and daughter, Roberta, of Rocanville, Sask., visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Graham and family recently.

Quite a number from here attended the Short Courses being conducted by the Department of Agriculture in Markdale.

Mrs. Andrew Graham, Daysville, Sask., spent a few days with Mr. Robt. Graham and daughter, Minnie, and other friends.

The Vandeleur Young People's Society have won their debate in the first round of the Farm Youth Association Debating Series by default.

Planting weather still continues, for four more days.

We were to the highly stocked with lumber and saws.

Mr. J. H. Johnson was in the city for a few days.

(Special to The Standard.)
Holiday is all over; everybody is hard at work, except the fellows who won't.

Mr. Walter Clark is busy out at the Rocky on a big timber-delivery contract.

The Council Fathers were "sworn in" on Monday. They will be "sworn at" the rest of the year.

Zion's choir has experienced a boom during the last few months. They are eighteen strong, have some splendid voices among the number and practice regularly every week.

On Thursday night last they met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Robb, and the latter, to show her appreciation and give encouragement, treated the bunch to a big dish of homemade candy.

Mr. Oren Peart had two big business jobs on the 4th con. on Friday and Saturday for Messrs. Herb, Allen and Hermie Burnett.

A bunch of fellows hereabouts were made happy last week when Paymaster H. McArthur, settled the accounts in connection with the Bell Telephone line for work and poles.

The Davis family spent Wednesday of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lawrence of Egremont.

Mrs. R. Banks of Glenora is very ill at present and members of the family have been called home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Atkinson and Mrs. Joe Atkinson of Durham suburbs and Mr. and Mrs. James Atkinson of Toronto were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Edwards the first of the week.

Rev. W. Coates of Markdale had a splendid New Year's message for Zionites a week ago and a most thorough hearing on Sunday afternoon.

Justice J. O'Neil was a twin stock sale last week and has three children in the near future.

We were to the highly stocked with lumber and saws.

Blantyre

(Special to The Standard.)
Hauling wood and pressed hay to town is the order of the day.

Mr. George Haslam of Markdale was a caller on this line one day last week.

A gloom of sorrow passed over this community when it was learned that Mrs. Walter Storey had departed this life at her home on the Ninth Line on Sunday evening, January 2nd, after only a short illness from a severe cold and other complications. Deceased, who was in her 69th year, had been a sufferer for a couple of years from diabetes, but was able to be around and her sudden death came as a shock to her family and friends.

The funeral was held at the home of the deceased on Monday, January 3rd, at 11 o'clock, and was officiated by the Rev. J. H. Johnson. Burial was in the cemetery near Markdale.
