The Settlement Violin.

The tender care which has been taken in the selection of the violin which has been selected for his use. They found him all his solitude after they had heard the angel voices which his hand was able to evoke from this small and fragile instrument.

Every village of that day had its "violinists". The violinists were plentiful, but the most skillful of them were no more than the "settlement" violinists. They were not the "settlement" violinists, but the "settlement" violinists. They were not the "settlement" violinists, but the "settlement" violinists.

From goldfishes to tires and in a thousand ways between the two, the modern world would be entirely lost without rubber. It is a key product that makes the wheels of progress go round. But common as it is, the knowledge of the finished product so that there is not a man, woman or child who has not seen it in some form or other, there are a few of us who have never seen a rubber plantation, in full bloom and in its native beauty, and who have never seen a rubber tree in its native beauty, and who have never seen a rubber tree in its native beauty.

TAKE A "RUBBER" AT THIS.

The small tree offers no problem at all. A big one may keep a family of beavers busy for several nights, but a single experienced beaver can fell a four-inch poplar, chop it into five-foot sections, and transport the whole tree to the water in a single night.

How Beavers Handle Trees.

A beaver needs bark for food and timber for building his house, and he is the greatest "logger" among the forest animals. You probably are familiar with his dam-building talents, but he is equally clever and efficient in the forest.

At tree-felling each beaver works independently. A small tree is cut through from one side, but a large one usually on two sides or all around, the chips being split out much as by a woodman's axe.

I have seen a beaver go to the pond bottom, reappear with all the sticks he could lay his hands on, and walk upright on his hind legs, in or out of his hole. They have not only brains to think, but the strength and suppleness to execute their plans.

When he has a choice, the beaver will nearly always select the aspen. The bark of poplar, willow, alder, and birch is acceptable, but aspen bark is the preference.

A GOOD MEDICINE FOR SPRING TIME

Do Not Use Harsh Purgatives—A Tonic is All You Need.

Not sick—but not feeling quite well. That is the way most people feel in the spring. Easily tired, appetite feeble, sometimes headaches and a feeling of depression. It is not unusual to find twinges of rheumatism or neuritis. Any of these indicate that the blood is out of order—that the indoor life of winter has left its mark upon you and may easily develop into more serious trouble.

Do not fret yourself with purgatives, as many do, in the hope that you can put your blood right. Purgatives gallop through the system and weaken instead of giving strength. Any doctor will tell you this is true. What you need in the spring is a tonic that will enrich the blood and build up the nerves. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do this speedily and surely.

What are the symptoms? The sinuses are home cavities in the skull, lined with a delicate living membrane that is continuous with the lining of the throat and nose. The cavity located in the top of the cheek bone is known as the maxillary sinus, and the cavity in the forehead immediately above the eyes, as the frontal sinus. These cavities have a structure like a honey-comb, which makes it very difficult to dislodge the infecting germs.

It is absolutely normal for a child to love himself only and to think of himself only—Dr. Alice Hutchingson. It is the greatest error people can make to snub the young.—Mr. Augustus Birrell.

OWL-LAFFS

"Hello, my dear fellow, how different you look without a beard or mustache. I wouldn't have recognized you if you hadn't had my umbrella."

People who have no rheumatism in their bones have to depend on unreasonable weather bureau for storm warnings.

BABY'S HEALTH IN THE SPRING

Can Best be Guarded With Baby's Own Tablets.

The Spring is a time of anxiety to mothers who have little ones in the home. Conditions make it necessary to keep the baby indoors; he is often confined to overheated, badly ventilated rooms and catches colds which rack his whole system.

People who have no rheumatism in their bones have to depend on unreasonable weather bureau for storm warnings.

Warner's Compound in Family Fifteen Years

No better recommendation for the medicinal value of this 50 year old medicine could be asked than that of a man who has used it in his family for fifteen years. We have never used a bottle of Warner's Compound in our household. It is a wonderful medicine for the kidneys and liver. (Name on request.)

"I want to help" says Allen Boudria. Tells facts from own experience to help others. Almost wild with pain, weak and rundown, he won new health and strength through Tanlac.

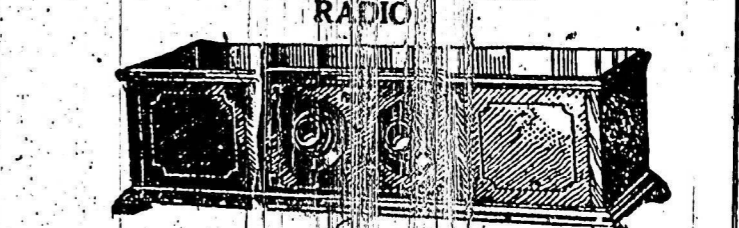

Allen Boudria, engineer, of 432 St. Patrick St., is one of Ottawa's best known citizens. "My purpose in telling the facts of my experience," he said, "is to help others who suffer as I did."

"For five years I was in misery. My whole system seemed out of gear, but my stomach troubled most. Even a drink of cold water would cause my stomach to bloat and swell abnormally. Gas would prevent me from sleeping at night so that I had to get up and walk the floor for hours. Violent stomach pains nearly drove me wild. I've seen times when I was doubled over, unable to straighten up."

"My friend Mr. Lepoutre told me how Tanlac had helped him out of similar trouble, so I got some and used 9 bottles in all. It just made me over. I feel 30 years younger than I am, and weigh 214 lbs. My appetite and sleep are both fine. I eat what I like and sleep like a top. Tanlac and nothing else, made this great change. I'm for Tanlac!"

If overwork or neglect have worn you down get Tanlac, the great natural tonic made from roots, herbs and barks. Your druggist has it. Over 82 million bottles sold.
