Easter Day at Christ Church

The services in Christ church were most inspiring. There was a large congregation at the morning service and the number of communicants was larger than in many years. The church had been lavishly decorated with pot plants and cut flowers which were sent in memory of departed friends and after the services conveyed to the sick of the parish. The pot plants were kindly loaned by members of the congregation. The large choir taxed the stall accommodation and rendered their part of the services in a splendid manner under the direction of Mrs. L. G. Campbell. The devotional work of the choir contributed largely to the helpfulness of the services. The organ was augmented by a violin obligato by Mr. Howard Dennison.

The Rector preached at both services. In the morning taking as his topic 'Assurance of Disappointment,' and in the evening, 'Is it hard to believe?' The Easter offering was double that of previous years.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Matson and little son of Brantford were holiday visitors with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Matson.

Mr. James Welsh who spent the winter months with his sons on Toronto and Peterboro, arrived home Monday and will spend the summer here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Easter and Mr. and Mrs. A. Young motored up from Toronto and spent the week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fadden.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Mark Armstrong were Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Allen of Windsor, Miss Grace Armstrong of Alliston, and Misses Caroline and Edith Armstrong of Toronto.

Among the school teachers home here for the holidays we have noticed the following: Miss Ladema Henry of Orangeville; Miss Edna McHugh of Fergus; Miss Lelia Purvis of Owen Sound; Miss L. Howard of Wingham; Miss R. Roche of Shelburne.

When you feel uneasy in your bowels, don't hesitate to call and see us. Examination free. — LUCAS.
