

A Reserve Fund of Your Own

BUSINESS houses provide for the future by setting aside certain sums each year as a "Reserve Fund." As this fund grows year by year the business is in a better position to take advantage of opportunities for sound expansion.

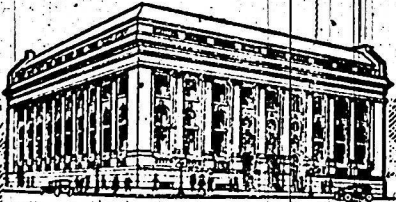

By saving your money systematically you can build up a personal "Reserve Fund."

Then, when opportunity comes to you for investing your capital in business, when good bonds or stocks may be bought—you will have money ready to invest. You also will have the friendly advice and guidance of the Bank of Toronto in making your investment.

Should reverses ever overtake you, your savings will tide you over the crisis.

Start building up your "Reserve Fund" now. A modern beginning is as acceptable to this Bank as a large one. Our Branch Manager will gladly welcome you as a depositor.

Kimberley

(Special to The Standard.)
While working in the bush along the Beaver river Mr. Frank Weber was surprised to find a dead deer. It is supposed that it is one of four often seen along there and while drinking or crossing the river in some way got under the ice and was drowned.
Mr. S. S. Burritt and Norman are working in Eugenia shingling the houses of Mr. Latimer and Mr. J. Sherwood.
Miss Wills McCallum is visiting with her cousins, Misses Ethel, Myrtle and Viola Pavetti.
Miss Viola Pavetti of Collingwood G. & M. Hospital, is spending her holidays with her mother and sisters here.
Mr. Ezra Fawcett has gone to Owen Sound to work.
Miss M. Pedlar is spending a week with Mrs. G. Proctor who has been ill. We are pleased to see she and Mrs. Lawrence able to be out again.
The town fathers are busy having a new cement foot bridge built over the mill stream, which will add greatly to the safety of all persons going on the sidewalk.
Rev. F. Stotesbury is this week attending Conference in Toronto.
We are sorry to report Mrs. (Rev.) Stotesbury ill and at present under the doctor's care in Meaford. The boys are being cared for by Miss Justina Ellis.
Mr. D. L. Weber is busy bringing brick from Owen Sound for Mr. G. Cornfield's new kitchen and house. Dave can make two trips a day with his truck. No need of a railroad, only a good road needed to supply rural wants.
A number of persons, including the choir, went to Epping for the re-opening of the church. As it was also Mothers' Day the music and service were beautiful and in keeping with the day. The Mothers' Day service in this church was very fittingly observed. The music and sermon were impressive and the flowers, loaned by some of the mothers, were beautiful.
The regular meeting of the W.M. S. was held in the church on Wednesday. The devotional and business part over, a splendid paper on Japan was given by Mrs. F. Weber, the Herald for Japan. The Herald for China also sent a reading, followed by a helpful discussion. Roll call next meeting, a verse with the word "Prayer."
Rev. and Mrs. J. S. Veals and Mr. and Mrs. J. Stuart of Burke's Falls returned to their homes after visiting with Mrs. W. T. Ellis and other friends. The many friends of Rev. and Mrs. Veals were pleased to see them again.
Mr. and Mrs. Victor Ellis and Miss Winona of Collingwood visited with Mrs. W. T. Ellis this week-end.
We wish to congratulate Mr. Carl Carruthers on being chosen as valedictorian in Toronto Normal. A brother ship for a Kimberley boy.
