School Girl's Nerves

Lost year's time from school with St. Vitus' Dance.—Completely restored by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

The anxiety and strain in connection with school life and examinations are too much for many girls who are naturally of a nervous temperament or have become so as a result of anaemia or a run down physical condition.

Nervous conditions are most difficult to overcome and there seems to be no treatment to compare with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to restore exhausted nerves. Children's health responds quickly to this well known restorative treatment.

Mrs. George A. Moot, St. Anns, Lincoln Co., Ont., writes:—

"Our daughter, who was never very strong from birth, at nine years of age became all broken down, suffering from what the two doctors we consulted called "Midnight Walk," which was caused from overtax at school. She seemed to show symptoms of St. Vitus' Dance and [illegible] queer spells, something like fits, nights. She was out of school a whole year as her nerves were so bad. Acting on a friend's advice we gave her Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. In a few months time we began to notice a change in her, and with the use of [illegible] Food until completely restored and for the past year she has been attending school. She is [illegible] strong, healthy girl, and is [illegible] at school. She are [illegible] Dr. Chase's Nerve Food [illegible] owe our daughter's health."

Built for Endurance

BEHIND the beauty of Chevrolet there is an abundance of strength and stamina, just as there is a great store of surplus power. The rugged channel steel frame, the husky Salisbury-type rear axle, the powerful valve-in-head engine and every detail of construction combine to defy the ravages of wear and tear, of hills and ruts, of mud and sand, of extremes of climate and of hard, continuous usage.

As Chevrolet has been designed for beauty, powered for performance, planned for economy, so Chevrolet has been BUILT FOR ENDURANCE.

And this—the most Beautiful, the most Powerful and the most Rugged Chevrolet in Chevrolet History—is offered at prices, the lowest for which Chevrolet has ever been sold in Canada.
