On Monday afternoon the pupils of Harkaway school read the following address to their teacher, who is leaving after teaching here for the last three years. Dear Miss Moore: We, your pupils, have come this afternoon to show our appreciation of what you have done for us in the past three years. Your help in the school as well as the many acts of kindness outside the school will not soon be forgotten. As a small remembrance we would ask you to accept this mayonnaise bowl, and wherever you may be in the future our Very Best Wishes will follow you. Signed on behalf of the pupils of U. S.S. No. 3, Holland and Euphrasia. In reply Miss Moore thanked the pupils for their gift and kind remembrance for the three years spent at Harkaway school.

On Wednesday evening the friends in the community gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Johnston and made the following presentation to Miss Moore. Dear Louise,—This pleasant and social gathering marks the terminal of three pleasant and profitable years as a teacher. The memory of them shall be long and treasured by us and we regret exceedingly that circumstances prevent the continuance of these helpful relations. As a slight token of our great appreciation and expressions of good wishes we ask you to accept this butter and utility dish and with it go our sincerest wishes for a happy and prosperous jouney through life. Signed on behalf of your friends of Harkaway: Maggie Johnston, Ellie Halbert. Though taken by surprise Miss Moore in her usual way thanked the friends present for their gifts and best wishes. On Thursday morning Miss Moore left for her home in Meaford.
