Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] of Owen Sound [illegible] Mrs. W. A. McGregor on Friday evening.

There was no service in the United Church here last Sunday owing to the illness of another child of Rev. and Mrs. McCartney of Keady with the same disease as caused the death of their 8 year old daughter a week ago. Although Rev. and Mrs. McCartney are strangers here they have the prayers and sympathy of the community in their affliction.

Mr. Cliff Bowman, clerk and truck driver for the E. Wells store, has the sympathy of a very large circle of friends in the loss of his little brother, Keith, who succumbed to what was at first thought to be black diphtheria, but is now understood to have been septic poisoning, at his home in Keady on Saturday night.

Tuesday noon—The public will be glad to know that the little daughter of Rev. Mr. McCartney has tonsilitis and not the disease which proved fatal to their other daughter recently.
