George Hutchinson Dead

Mr. George Hutchinson passed away at his home near Andover on Tuesday, August 23rd, aged 66 years. The deceased is survived by two sons and two daughters, namely: William and Randolph; Mrs. Bert Martin of Swinton Park and Mrs. Dunn Lee of Buphrasia. Mrs. Hutchinson passed away about 22 years ago. The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon at Markdale Cemetery. Service will be held in Christ Church at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Thos. Bradey

Mrs. Thomas Bradey passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hugh Johnston, in Buphrasia on Sunday, August 21st, 1927, aged 69 years and 10 months. She had been in failing health for some time, but was not considered seriously until shortly before her death. The deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Brown of Ardenmore, was married to the late Mr. Thomas Bradey about 37 years ago. One son, Christopher Bradey of Toronto, and three daughters, Mrs. Hugh Johnston of Buphrasia, Mrs. David McCauley and Mrs. Wilmer McCauley of Holland. The funeral took place on Tuesday at Markdale cemetery. Rev. Mr. Dickson of Walkers Falls conducted the services at the house and grave. The pallbearers were six brothers of the deceased, the only remaining members of the family: Messrs. James, Christopher, Thomas, John, Carter and Robert M. Irwin. Many floral tributes were placed on the casket. The late Mrs. Bradey was highly respected by a wide circle of friends and her passing is deeply regretted.

Beaton-Wright

The home of Mr. and Mrs. David T. Wright, Dundalk, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon, August 17th, when their daughter, Jennie, was united in marriage to Mr. Gordon A. Beaton, son of Mrs. M. Oliver, Markdale. The Rev. R. A. Spencer of the United Church conducted the ceremony. A beautiful array of garden flowers formed a charming background for the bridal party. The bride entered the drawing-room on the arm of her father to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Miss Emma Wright. The bride looked charming in a French gown of powder blue over shell pink georgette, and carried a shower bouquet of Butterfly roses, geranium and lily of the valley. During the signing of the register Miss Margaret MacGee of Harrison, accompanied by Mrs. W. J. A. Wright of Alliston, sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden" following a dainty buffet luncheon Mr. and Mrs. Beaton left for a motor trip through Quebec and the Adirondacks. The bride travelling in a beige ensemble with hat and accessories of harmonized colors. On their return they will reside in Markdale where Mr. Beaton is one of the most popular of Markdale's young businessmen.

Sewell-Murray

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Murray was the scene of a very pretty wedding at 5 o'clock on Wednesday, August 16th, when their only daughter, Myrtle Edna, became the bride of Elvin Adrian Sewell, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sewell, Toronto. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. D. Dickson of Walkers Falls. A very pretty arch of evergreens, beautifully decorated with the groom's flowers and huge white wedding bells, had been erected on the verandah beneath which the young couple stood. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, looked charming in her wedding dress of mauve georgette and coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bridal bouquet of sweet peas with streamers of satin ribbon. The bride's mother wore a silver gray flat crepe dress. The groom's mother wore a black satin dress. The wedding march, Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, was played by the bride's sister, Elsie Murray. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace and to the bride a pretty bar pin set with turquoise. After the ceremony the guests partook of a sumptuous wedding dinner served on the lawn and presided over by Miss Laura Adams, who was assisted by the Misses E. C. Minnis, Louise Wilson, Grace Fothergill, Edna Murray, Mary and Elsie Murray. The evening was spent in music, games and dancing. The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts which testified to the high esteem in which they are held.

Mrs. Edgar Gorky

On Monday, August 15th, there passed away Mrs. Edgar Gorky, nee Mrs. Gorley, whose maiden name was Alice Canack. She was the daughter of John Canack, a respected citizen of Kimberley. Deceased was in her 12nd year and was born in the old homestead about 3 miles north of Kimberley on the valley road. Mrs. Gorley was of a kind and gentle disposition and possessed those qualities of mind and heart which endeared her to all with whom she came in contact. She was married 14 years ago and her union was blessed with one little daughter, Jean, 7 years old, who shares her mother along with the sprightly, dusky and sweet-faced little surviving are two sisters, Edith at home, and Nellie (Mrs. Phil. Edlin) of Wasaga Beach, and one brother, Charles, on the old farm. The pallbearers were Elsie Johnston, Abe Knott, Forbes Gott, John Risk, Alex. Cherry and Matt Devitt, all old neighbours of the deceased. Among the many beautiful floral tributes were: Wreath from Chas. Canack and family; spray from father and sister, Edith; pillow from Edgar Gorky and daughter; bank of flowers from Geo. Gorley and family; wreath from Ladies' Missionary Society of Epping United church. Rev. McLaughlan of Heathcote officiated at the home and the grave. The remains were interred in the Thornbury cemetery on Wednesday, August 24th, when a large cortege of sorrowing friends paid their last tribute to the deceased.
