Field Day and Debate

The annual field day and debate of the Dundalk Group No. 2, held on Sunday, August 28th, was a most successful one. The day was spent in a variety of sports and games, and the debate was a most interesting one. The Dundalk group was defeated by the Markdale group in the debate, but they were victorious in the field day. The day was a most enjoyable one for all concerned, and it was a great success for the Dundalk group.

Jeffrey Artley Passes

After but a few days' illness Mr. Jeffrey Artley of this place passed away at his home on Wellington street on Friday, August 26th, aged 76 years. He had been in failing health for some months, but was about as usual until a few days before his death when pneumonia developed.

The late Mr. Artley was born in Yorkshire, England, and when but a boy came to Canada with his parents, who first settled in York County, Ontario, and later moved to Markdale, where he spent the remainder of his life. He was a most successful business man, and was well known in the community. He was a member of the Methodist Church, and was a most devoted member. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Artley, and several children.

The funeral services for Mr. Artley were held on Sunday, August 28th, at 11 o'clock a.m. at the Methodist Church. The Rev. W. G. Wakefield officiated. Burial was in the cemetery.

Winterburn - Middleton

The home of Rev. W. G. Wakefield was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon, August 24th, when Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Middleton, was married to Mr. Morel Winterburn, youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Winterburn.

The bride was attended in a pretty dress with hat to match. The groom was in a suit of dark blue cloth. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. W. G. Wakefield. The wedding dinner was held at the home of the bride's parents. The newly married couple will take up their residence on the groom's farm, which was also the home of the bride's grandparents.
