Speaking of pitch-holes, we all encounter them in the journey through life and in some of them we experience the sensation of a real drop.

We are told that in the old days while waiting their turn at the bonspiels in Scotland the Scotch curlers sat around in the waiting rooms, talked and sipped water. Now what do you know about that?

Dundalk hockey boys must be trying to imitate the wild life of Glenelg township as reported in some of the daily papers. They have three hockey teams there:—The Wildcats, the Tigers and the Wolverines.

We heard recently of a candidate for municipal office who was looking longingly at a choice cut of meat in a shop window and finally remarked that he would like to have a feed of it but would have to wait until after the election as the other shop had more votes to cast.

At the recent meeting of Wellington County Council Reeve Irvine of Arthur village was instrumental in having a motion passed recommending that the Highways Department take over the Arthur-Orangeville road as a provincial highway. The resolution will be forwarded to the Department and it is hoped that there will be some action at an early date. The improvement of this important connecting link would be a great boon to motorists in Western Ontario, as it would give them a much shorter route and better roads to Toronto and Eastern points.

Complaints have reached The Banner Office of a drinking bout, which four or five men are alleged to have staged in a business man's office on Broadway late Monday night and early Tuesday morning. The revelry is said to have disturbed and alarmed the occupants of the nearby apartments. Some of the language attributed to participants in the midnight jollification was anything but edifying. Orangeville hires and pays two officers to patrol Broadway at nights and see that nothing unseemly occurs. If everything happened on Monday night, that our informant avers did occur, the night watchers must have been asleep at the switch. —Orangeville Banner.

Feed the Birds

The birds have a hard time getting enough to eat these days when the snow lies so deep. Help the little fellows over the winter by feeding them. A good way is to tie a hunk of suet to a tree so high that cats can't reach [illegible] will not freeze and woodpeckers, chickadees, blue jays, etc., are very fond of it. The birds are our good friends and should be protected and fed.

This Modern Life!

Its Habits Produce Constipation, which "Fruit-a-tives" Corrects

MONTREAL, Que., — "After suffering many years from constipation, I was advised to try 'Fruit-a-tives.' All my ills are gone now." Mrs. H. Godin.

Indoor work, soft, rich foods, lack of exercise impair our bodily functions. The most common evidence is constipation. Normal intestinal activity, denied to most of us by our way of living, is restored and maintained by "Fruit-a-tives," made of the juices of fresh, ripe fruit, blended with health-building tonics.

THE SOOTHING HEALING OINTMENT UNSURPASSED FOR BOILS AND ULCERS

Wolves, Lions, Bears Roaming Old Glenelg

Days of Early Fifties Recalled When Daily Press Gets Hold of Story of Wholesale Sheep and Cattle Killing.

That there are blood-thirsty and vicious animals of the semi-tropical and arctic variety roaming the swamps of Old Glenelg is the only conclusion we can come to after reading the accounts in the daily papers of the sheep and cattle killing of the past year, when the council paid out out over $1,400 for "sheep killed by dogs".

The Owen Sound Sun-Times started it a couple of days ago, and the Toronto and London papers picked it up with elaborations. Yesterday it was broadcasted over the radio from Toronto that Glenelg was being overrun by wolves and other vicious animals that were devouring the live stock and making life miserable for the stock-raisers of the township.

The latest is from the Toronto Star which heard that the "natives" were staging an animal hunt to get rid of the monsters that were prowling the woods and swamps and the whole Star photography outfit and a couple of feature writers wanted to be informed as to the date so that the former could come up and shoot the pictures and the latter shoot the bull about the big event and place the old township on the front page for a day.

The situation is pitiful. We can picture Bob Edwards, on getting up in the morning, first kissing his family good-bye, and then starting out to feed his stock. Loading up the old shotgun and, peering cautiously out of the heavily barred windows, he would just be called upon to dispatch a couple of dozen wolves, a few bears and a hundred or so bob-cat in order to make the world safe for democracy, and in the same time give him an opportunity to sneak out and throw in a few forkfuls of straw to his frightened-to-death stock.

There is no doubt, by death from natural causes, that [illegible] among the sheep of Glenelg during the past twelve months, but it is a long way from being as bad as some of the newspaper dispatches would lead one to believe. We have heard some talk that it is thought the animal responsible for the killing is something bigger than a household dog, but further than that we cannot go. It takes a newspaper reporter with a Baron Munchausen imagination to give the affair real color.

In the meantime the residents of Glenelg can bask in the sunshine of their undeserved publicity while the newspaper photographers pack their cameras and wait for the day when the big killing is to be made. —Durham Chronicle.

Mother

If you look around a little when you go out you will find many lads going out with mother. Many take their mothers out, to a movie or a social evening, or other kinds of entertainment. And why shouldn't they? Is there anyone you can tell your troubles to, who is more willing to listen and help than mother? If you take the wrong path in life and find out your error, who is more willing to set you right and give you encouragement? Boys always remember your mother is your greatest pal on earth. This is a good time to say a little about the disrespect shown by some to mother in the home. How many times do you walk into a home and hear someone talking of "her" or "she" and come to find out it's mother they are referring to. Is there a sweeter name than mother? Why change it to such a slang word as "maw" or a pronoun as "she or her". Boys may all be hard hearted in some of your eyes, but every lad has a spot in his heart for his mother. He may be a gentleman or a crook of the underworld; he is some mother's son and deep down in his heart there is a place for his mother.

NOTICE

to Subscribers in Arrears

To those who have remitted in response to our notice regarding arrears we desire to express our thanks. Quite a number have responded but there are still a number, far too many, who have paid no attention. To those we wish to say that we are going to collect all outstanding accounts unpaid at the first of March. We cannot afford to pay the bank seven per cent. interest on money which is owing to us. If costs of collection are added you cannot blame us because we have given plenty of time in which to make payment. Your remittance before March 1st will insure you against further costs.
