MARKDALE, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, MARCH 1st, 1928.

PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

Markdale

(Intended for last week.)
Mr. and Mrs. Herb. P. ... visited last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Willam Johnston, Lily Oak.
Mrs. T. H. Richardson visited last week with her daughter, Mrs. Cecil Carbert.
Mr. E. ... and Mrs. ... visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLaughlin.
On Tuesday afternoon, February 14th, the Ladies Aid held a Valentine cent tea and program in the Church basement, there being about fifty present including children. The President, Mrs. ... in charge, the meeting opened with singing and prayer. Psalm 103 was read alternately and Hymn 190 was sung. Several readings were given as follows: By Mrs. C. Carbert, entitled "Woman's Work"; Mrs. John Menary, "The Master's Coming"; Mrs. John Graham, "Perfect Housekeeper"; Mrs. W. J. Lyons, "Nothing and Something"; Mrs. ... Winterburn, "To Mother"; Mrs. Lloyd McLaughlin, "To Cook"; Mrs. ... Mrs. D. L. Blinn, "Oh Spring"; Mrs. John Lawson, " ..."; and Mrs. John Moore, " ...".
Hymn 284 was sung and was decided to have another cent tea and social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lyons on Thursday evening, March 15th. Committee to look after the program for the evening is as follows: Mrs. C. Thompson, Mrs. Lawson, Mrs. A. A. L. ... and Mrs. Roy Rae. One new member joined our Society, Mrs. Roy Rae. The meeting then closed with the Benediction. Lunch was then served, the tea money amounting to $5.65. The members of the Aid are very grateful to those who attended this tea and made it such a success. The weather was not at its best that afternoon and we hope you will all attend the next meeting and make it a good success, even better than this one.
Rev. and Mrs. McCarty made several pastoral calls on our line last week.
Mr. and Mrs. L. McLaughlin, Mr. Emerson and Miss Hilda Quinton of Walters Falls spent Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thompson and family.
Mrs. Carson McKessock and little son, ... of Strathroy spent several days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Murdoch.
Miss Mary Edith Young of Walters Falls is staying with Mr. and Mrs. ...
Mr. and Mrs. ... and Miss Maggie Johnston visited Wednesday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Leonard, Rosedale.
We extend our sincere sympathy to Mrs. John Johnson in the loss of her mother last Monday morning. It is only a few weeks since her father died. This double bereavement makes it hard to bear and also a brother lies seriously ill in a Toronto hospital. Our deepest sympathy goes out to this family in their hour of sorrow. Several from here attended the funeral on Wednesday.
Thursday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Carbert were Mrs. R. S. McLaughlin and Mrs. Lloyd McLaughlin and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Murdoch and Mrs. Carson McKessock.
We are pleased to report the sick on our line all improving at time of writing.
Mrs. Chas. Wright of Walters Falls spent several days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Patton.
Mr. Robert Smith, who has returned lately from Windsor after spending a month there, and Mr. Robert Dixon spent an evening recently with Mr. and Mrs. John Smith.
On account of the storm on Sunday there was no service in the Church. Rev. McCarty and Rev. Brown, of Toronto, came through from Holland Church but only found four people at the Church when they arrived. The storm is still raging the worst we have had this winter.

Kimberley

(Special to The Standard.)
Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Wickens of the Valley Road South celebrated on Saturday, February 18th, the Fiftieth Anniversary of their wedding. Owing to the delicate health of Mrs. Wickens the celebration was of a quiet nature. The children and the grandchildren sat down to a sumptuous supper. A beautiful cake was the centre of the table and flowers were prettily arranged about the rooms. The evening was spent in games and music. Mr. Wickens recalled many instances of his early pioneer life and sang some old songs much to the delight of all. During the evening the couple were presented with a purse of gold from the family, all of whom were present excepting Mrs. Wm. Banks (Nellie) of Senlac, Sask. The family are: Mrs.

Frank Weber (Annie), John, Fred on the homestead with his parents; Mrs. Wm. Banks (Nellie), Mrs. Chas. Camack (May), and Mrs. Willard Gilbert (Ethel). Mr. Wickens presented his bride of fifty years with a lovely wrist watch.
Mr. Wickens was born on the Hudson River, near Kempsville. He came with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wickens, to Thornbury when only two years of age. Four years later they moved to the homestead on which he still resides. He has been seven-one years on the farm which he helped to clear from virgin forest.
Mrs. Wickens, whose maiden name was Sarah Ann Summers, was born in Uxbridge township and came to Euphrasia sixty-nine years ago. They were married in Flesherston in 1863. Now Mr. Wickens is the oldest pioneer settler in the Valley. We join with a host of friends in wishing them many more years of happiness together.
The many friends of Mrs. Henry Hurd of Vornon, B.C., will be sorry to hear she has had a paralytic stroke. Mrs. Hurd has made her home since the death of the late Mr. Hurd with her daughter, Mrs. Hurlbert. The latest word was she was unable to speak although still conscious and able to recognize the family.
Misses Helen Welton and Elsie McKee of Flesherston visited with Miss Geraldine Weber.
Miss Mardina Harris is home recuperating from an operation for appendicitis.
Miss Geraldine Weber spent the week-end in Flesherston.
We are sorry to report Mr. Wm. Stuart not as well as usual.
The Institute meeting was held at the home of the President, Mrs. F. Weber. Mrs. John Wickens, the Vice-President, was in the chair. After the business was disposed of a very interesting program was given. Miss Ruth Myles gave an excellent paper on music. Miss Lola Graham and Irene Thompson sang a delightful duet. Mrs. Frank Weber gave the current events, while the roll call, "The funniest scrape in which I ever found myself," brought forth many amusing stories. Misses Justina Ellis and Myrtle Stafford served a very dainty lunch.

Walters Falls

(Intended for last week.)
We experienced our most severe storm of the winter around the 20th of the month.
Mr. and Mrs. Hanna entertained a large number of their friends to a dancing party last Thursday evening in the Hall.
Mrs. Quinton, Mr. Emmerston and Maurice spent the week-end with the former's daughter, Mrs. Matheson of Massie.
A quiet marriage took place on Tuesday, February 21st, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Menary, when their second daughter, Miss Cora, was united in marriage to Mr. Clarence Seabrook, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Seabrook, Rev. Mr. Petch officiating. The newly married couple left on the afternoon train at Holland Centre for Toronto and London.
The February meeting of the W.I. met at the home of Mrs. Thos. Dixon on Wednesday the 14th, with a large attendance, some of whom were visitors. After the usual opening exercises the minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. A letter was read from the Department regarding the Millinery class which will open on March 19th. A committee was appointed to arrange details of class. A letter was read from the District Pres., Mrs. Rockie, asking for our contribution to the Tobaccoary Fund and travelling fee. These accounts were passed. Mrs. Olmstead reported on the Girls' Garment Making Club which has fifteen names on the roll. The roll call was answered by naming some famous Canadian women. "Tramp, tramp, tramp" was sung as a chorus. A lesson on the geography of Grey County was then taken up. Miss Irene Saunders gave a humorous recitation, Miss Abercrombie sang as a solo, "Mother Macdoree," in her usual good style, and Miss Berch told a very interesting bear story. The March meeting is to be at the home of Mr. McDougall on March 14th. The singing of "God Save the King" brought the meeting to a close, after which lunch was served by the hostess.
Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Laycock visited last Thursday with relatives on the gravel road.
Mr. Dell Walter had a small fire in his house on Sunday evening. Fortunately it did not reach the outside where the wind could fan it, or, no doubt, it would have been a great deal worse. As it was he has a hole burned in the upstairs floor and other minor damage, before the fire was got under control.

Traverston

(Special to The Standard.)
When the year almanac is changed to thirteen regular months, we are hoping that February will be cut out. Ouch! She's a terror.
After spending some four months in Toronto, Miss Margaret Greenwood arrived back at the old home on Saturday.
Many throughout South Grey will learn with deep regret of the death of R. J. Ball, ex-M.P., of Hanover. Mr. Ball was a man of intellect and vision, a citizen of whom Hanover was proud and whom she trusted, honourable and straight-forward in all his dealings with the public, and when in parliament, not only worked for the best interests of the electorate, but also for Canada's advancement in all its varied interests.
Mr. W. R. Jack lost a most valuable gray brood mare on Wednesday last week from indigestion. Her last season's colt is considered one of the best in the township.

Miss Janie Semple of Dundalk visited with her sister, Mrs. S. Sutton, and brother, C. Semple, here last week.

Eugenia

(Special to The Standard.)
Still at storms. It looks as if we will have winter yet for a while as there is an abundance of snow.
Miss May Carruthers has returned home after a pleasant sojourn with friends at Saul's Marie.
We are pleased to learn that Miss Isabelle McKee who has been very ill the past week or so with car trouble is recovering. Her mother, who went to Toronto to wait on her during her illness, is expected to return home this Tuesday.
Mrs. Ym. Hislop has returned home from visiting her sister, Miss Mackenzie at Caylon.
The Ladies' Aid of the United Church here have taken another step towards making money. Anyone desiring to have quilts quilted are handing them over to the Ladies' Aid Society who quilt them for a small amount of money. The quilts, top, lining etc., are handed in and the ladies do the quilting. They also supply lunch and have a real social time together.

Schools have been closed in neighbouring sections owing to the measles epidemic and other contagion. Our school is closed at present but only for a few days, while the furnace is being repaired.
Mr. and Mrs. Kilbourne Magee and 4 children have returned to their home in the West after an extended visit with friends here.
Wodehouse
(Special to The Standard.)
Mr. R. S. Wiley of the Epping district was a caller in our burg one day recently.
It would be well for the weather prophets who predicted mild weather for the latter part of February to take another course at college for we don't see anything very mild in the weather of the past week or two. Miss Alma Wiley of Markdale visited a few days at the home of her brother, Jas. Wiley of this place.
Our mail courier is up against a rather hard problem some days in trying to make the round trip on his mail route, No. 2.
Mr. Nelson Wilcox attended Mr. Gordon Ward's sale on Collingwood Mountain, on Tuesday last. The sale was quite successful, good prices being realized on the stock and implements. We understand that Mr. Ward intends going West in the spring.
Wedding bells are faintly tolling not far distant from this locality. One of the popular young men of this district's suburbs visited a few days in Markdale the first part of last week.
Oh! what a wonderful storm.

(Special to The Standard.)
The Farmers' Club meeting held Tuesday evening was well attended. Considerable business was transacted. A great deal of correspondence was read by the Secretary including a letter from Miss Macmillan of a very interesting discussion took place. A feature of the program was the debate on the subject, "Resolved that the education our boys and girls are getting is preparing them to be better rural citizens." The debaters were Miss Thompson and Lloyd Johnston on the affirmative and Howard M. Geo. and Aenos Bowles on the negative. The debate was exceptionally good and strong arguments were brought forward by all four speakers. The judges were Mr. Geo. M. Geo. and Dan M. Geo. and they decided in favor of the affirmative. Community singing was also a feature of the program. The next meeting it was decided to prepare a play and also have a program. The committee in charge will be Howard M. Geo., Howard M. Geo. and Wm. Rathbone.
Miss Hazel Lee of Toronto is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lundy Johnston.

Anglican Church Notes

Advent Church, Beaverdale
Don't forget the moving picture entertainment in the church on Friday evening, March 2, under the auspices of the Women's Guild. A good time is promised. Music will be supplied between reels. Refreshments will be served at the close.
A pleasant afternoon was spent at the home of Mrs. George Merrifield on Thursday, February 8, when she was the hostess of the Guild meeting. All the members were present. In the absence of the Rector, the President, Mrs. J. W. Murray, led in the devotional exercises. The Secretary, Mrs. E. Summers, being called upon, read the minutes of the previous meeting which were adopted. Each member handed in her talent money which amounted to a tidy sum. It was decided that the Guild make a quilt to be offered for sale at some future date. Mrs. R. B. Clark submitted a sample block for approval and it was decided to make twenty-three blocks from the same pattern; the proceeds to be applied to the chancel carpet fund. Mrs. Jas. Henning assisted the hostess in serving refreshments which were enjoyed by all present. The meeting closed with the Benediction. Tea money $11.10.
This is subscription renewal time. Have you attended to that little matter yet?
