LEGERDEMAIN

BEGIN HERE TODAY.

John Ainsley, a man of education and breeding, whose war wound left him unfit for manual labor, returns hungry to his shabby boarding-house. To pay his landlady the week's rent for his room—$1—he is compelled to pawn an ivory miniature of his mother. At the pawnshop he is puzzled at the sight of a prosperouslooking, fur-collared man dickering wished to place myself under further the last possession that had a marketwith the broker.

After leaving the shop, Ainsley hurries to a little restaurant to get local. He is stopped in the entrance by the fur-collared individual, is taken to the es to a little restaurant to get food. him. man's home, and is revived with hot soup. As he eats, Ainsley tries to take stock of his host and his surroundings.

gentleman. His clothing was too gar- tions ranging from fifty to five hun- be impaired, my will be gone. I could who examined him later said he must ish, his jewelry too blatant. His dred. speech, too, was coarse and sloven, and he used phrases that betokened the wad of bills. an unfamiliarity with polito speech-His apartment, moreover, was furmished badly. The pictures on the walls clashed violently with the furbut for a furtiveness of manner. people pass a law." Moreover, I had first seen him in a pawnshop.

Why had he followed me What things, too." was he? Well, I could wait for the answer. And so, forcing myself to tween their lids now; yet I knew that be slow, to chew each morsel carefully, their pupils studied me intently. I waited for him to direct the conver-cates all that it was well for me to I wear it don't fool the people that creased franchise, even more freedom. He hadn't time to make a pause; take at this time, I followed his ex- I want to fool." ample and walked with him into the next room.

"Smoke?" he asked.

Perhaps I had suffered almost as much through the abstinence from tobacco as through the lack of food. Certainly his question aroused memories of sufferings that had seemed unbearable. With the first dizzying inhalation of the cigaret he gave me, I felt my own man once more. I had been the sport of circumstances, bit of flotsam on the city's tide Suddenly I felt master of my own destiny. "Drink? Cocktail? Highball? Champagne?" he asked. I shook my head. "Never touch it," I said. "And I thought in these days no one but millionaires had such a variety."

Who said I ain't a millionaire he demanded.

"I beg your pardon," said I, mar veling at the queer vanity of him.
"It's all right," he said. "I suppose, having seen me talking to Weinberg you thought I was busted." "I didn't think anything about it," I replied.

He laughed in a peculiarly joyless tone. "I guess you were beyoud thinking about anything. I took the billsa look at you, and says I to myself:

pretty badly," I admitted. "And on top of what Weinberg had been telling you about me, it was easy to guess that I wasn't a millionaire."

His eyes, hard blue, narrowed. "You see things, don't you? Tumbled right off to Weinberg wising me up about put it on a business basis. How much 'material.' A pale and tired gentitity closed for several days, you, ch? Well, I knew right off that do you think the food. I ate was was her creed. She moved of necessary of the Nationalists occur you were no boob. I thought you were worth? the lad I needed; now I know it. Like a little dough?" I laughed. Odd, how a few ounces of food change the whole world. What do you think?" I countered. "I'd say that you were ready to do anything to make a stake," he said. "Almost anything," I amended. "Fussy?" he asked.

"I'm a gentleman," I told him. The words sounded grandiloquent, absurd. money," he said. "For instance, you Yes, I suspected as much," said could run to the police, give them my host "Starvation hurts a gentle- address, and tell them what I've told man's insides just like it does an you." ordinary roughneck's, don't it? Are

"Suppose you explain," I suggested. ate?" "Make it snappy, ch? All right, I I admit that it was ungracious will. I take it you have no friends in even to a confessed criminal. But particular. You wouldn't be starving after all, he had insulted me. I placed if you had. Am I right?" "Go on," I said.

money, real money, important money, hat from the chair on which it had you'd jump at it. Am I right?" "Go on some more. You interest to him and started for the door. me," I smiled.

around this town waiting for a good man to pick it up," he said:

"Show it to me," I suggested. "Suppose I do? Have you got nerve enough to grab it?" he demanded. I reached for another cigaret, then drew back my hand empty. The conversation had taken a turn that mys. the incompetent. A sudden determina- na records. tified me. I was not sure that I tion came to me. I had parted with obligation to my host.

He put his hand into a pocket and withdrew it. I don't think that ever in my life I had seen so much actual cash as he placed on a table beside him. Certainly there must have been

"Understand those?" He pointed to · I managed to lift my eyes from the money and looked at him.

"Go on," I said again. "I'm in business," he said slowly hishings. I would have set him down "It's a new business, and there's lots again—already my stomach cried for immediately as a parvenu, possibly of money in it. People don't lose one of the recent species of profiteers, their thirsts simply because other "Bootlegging?" I suggested. "Bright boy," he said. Other His eyes were almost hidden be-

"How far would you travel with a sation, for I said practically nothing. man who could toss you a bunch like but we look with admiration also, for He hadn't time to be just kind; He delivered a monologue, based for that on the table?" He pointed at the it is out of their dreaming and striv. He hadn't time to see a joke. the most part on places he had visited, wad of bills. "I need a man like you, ing that our freedom has come. So He hadn't time to write his folk; excels, mostly of a sporting nature, a man that can look and talk and act writes "A Modern Girl" in the London He hadn't time to eat a meal, which he had witnessed. I began to like a gentleman. I got ideas, but I Daily News, who says that women are He hadn't time to deeply feel; think that he was probably a gambler, ain't always able to put them over. standing untrammeled on the thresh. He hadn't time to take a rest, perhaps a follower of the race-track. You see, I know my own limits. It old of 1928, a year that will probably He hadn't time to act his best; Then, having decided that I had doesn't matter how much of a front bring to Englishwomen, with an in-

> I understood him. "My face is my years ago, it is recalled, the ladies of He hadn't time to cast a vote: fortune. Is that it " I laughed.

This baby's about due for the more one for you yet. Anyone can tell that occasional fits of hysteries or a graceyou have been educated, and used to ful swoon. I felt myself color. "I do look good things and all that, but where's t got you?". "Here in your apartment, accepting charity," I replied. He waved a disclaiming hand. "Not fresh cheeks were considered com- anti-Semitic riots at Budapest Unicharity-business," he corrected me. "Thank you," said I. "I'm glad you quate food for fear of growing fat and

"What you mean?" he asked. "I mean what I told you awhile ago. m a gentleman," I said, "-not a bootlegger or a crook."

His thin lips curled in a sneer. " suppose it's better to be a gentleman and starve than a wise guy and get

"I think so," I told him. "There's still other ways of making

"You know that I won't," I replied "Will this cover the cost of what I Bank of France Branch two dollars upon the table how piti- France. ful the amount was when laid beside "It, you got a chance to make his huge wad of bills-picked up my been dropped at my entrance, nodded

"Wait a minute," he said. "When "There's a lot of money lying you think this over, you'll change but the chief director enter. The enyour mind. You'll want to find me. trance to the strong room is a metal won't be here. This place is rented for the night. Just go to Weinberg the gold is stored in other supposedly and tell him you want me. That's the kind of a man I am-no hard feel

"None here, either," I told him 'But I hardly think we'll meet again," "You're belly's filled now. Wait till reach the big steel door he would be ou're hungry again." in a smooth steel corridor, the floor "I will," said I. And with that of which would disappear from under walked from the apartment to find him cuce he began operations. Be myself a moment later in Washington low him would be the swift stream Square. I looked at the great clock and all about him polished steel suron the Judson Tower. I could still faces offering no grip. sep my word to Mrs. Gannon. I did. Then, with two dollars left of the five floor to vanish are secret. Officials shame. A man of my education and breeding, who had sunk so low in the social scale that he was open to such an insult, who was as unable to copwith the elementary facts of life as was, was unfit to live.

It was a harsh judgment which rendered against myself, but a just one. Incompétents clutter up the path of progress. Society, in making civilEngineer Killed But Stops Train Brakes Set as Lackawanna Pilot is Struck by Pole Near Kearny, N.J.

Was Leaning From His Cab oad passenger train, struck down in I hold to a heart that would be leav his cab recently, probably saved the ives of a number of persons when, even in death, his hands closed on the emergency brakes and stopped the speeding train.

The engineer, David Bowen of North is enacting natural decrees; for na-Bergen, N.J., was killed in one of the As wayward as they—and never ture, before society began, destroyed most peculiar accidents in Lackawan-Earlier two freight cars of the Pen-

ized life difficult for the incompetent

The alternative, of swift and simple self-destruction, was infinitely preferable to such degradation. I would eat more food, so long had I gone hungry rid society of one of its unfit.

that day and those of to-day:

oing bonnet 'as large as an umbrella."

she has been grounded like Amelia

Sedley in the principles of religion and morality. Her head is stuffed with Mangnall's questions, her fingers known as 'deportment.' She is just sixteen years of age and ready to come out' to a life of social and donestic inanition. When she dances, it is to pace soberly through the measures of a minuet or the quadrilles, breaks the monotony of her days by

"She had her vanities, poor dear-terests. She was as frightened of cor-

Of all the changes the swiftly movabout, none is more dramatic, thinks mire it," say officials of the bank.

safe-door seven feet thick. Inside

The moat, sixty-five feet deep, has swift ten foot flow of water in it, di-

Should some master cracksman

What devices there are to cause the verted from an underground river.

burglarproof boxes.

were not yet familiar.'

-then walk to the waterfront and

(To be continued.)

Women of 1928

We look back with amazement and to starvation.

ished dog.

able value. Of course, I had my over-"I don't think I understand," I told coat, but freezing was not preferable J. The cars crashed into an electric light pole and bent it in such a way that it projected slightly over tho But why starve or freeze when Lackawanna tracks paralleling those there was an easy alternative? That of the Pennsylvania.

is, the alternative would be easy if I | When Bowen's train approached were in full possession of my faculties. three hours later, the engineer leaned NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY. him. Certainly there must have been But if I became hungry to the point of out of his cab. The bent pole struck but if I became hungry to the point of out of his cab. The bent pole struck but if I became hungry to the point of out of his cab. The bent pole struck but if I became hungry to the point of out of his cab. The man unquestionably was not a and as many more of lesser denomina- starvation again, my faculties would his head, crushing it, and physicians see myself begging of passers-by, even have died almost instantaneously. possibly, rummaging in refuse-pails Nevertheless, the train jerked to a for a bone or a crust, like any fam- stop, and trainmen found Bowen's hand clenched over the set emergency

Too Busy to Live

(Commended to Persons Afflicted With Hurryitis.)

He hadn't time to greet the day, He hadn't time to laugh or play; He hadn't time to wait a while, He hadn't time to give a smile; He hadn't time to glean the news, He hadn't time to dream or muse; pity at the woman of 1828, it is said, He hadn't time to train his mind, than they have now. A hundred He hadn't time to pen a note.

the land sat in stifling idleness. There He hadn't time to sing a song, He nodded. "You can make it your were no professions open to them, we He hadn't time to right a wrong fortune. It hasn't made much of a are reminded, and if they were so un- He hadn't time to send a gift, fortunately placed that they must He hadn't time to practise thrift. earn their own living or starve they He hadn't time to exercise, could only hope for employment as a He hadn' time to scan the skies; 'companion" or as a governess. We He hadn't time to heed a cry, are then offered this picture of "poor He hadn't time to say good by; Miss 1828," which shows a startling He hadn't lime to study polise, contrast between the young ladies of He hadn't time to repress holse; He hadn't time to go abroad! "Look at her standing there in her He hadn't time to serve his God; stuffy thick clothing, her hideous He hadn't time to lend or give, rilled 'pelisse' with its puffed sleeves, He hadn't time to really live; He hadn't time to read this verse, ier face hidden by an ungainly flap-He hadn't time-he's in a hearse. -Grenville Kleiser in the Detroit Free Press.

ANTI-JEWISH STUDENTS are sore with working 'samplers,' her body is stiff with that strange cult

Protest Against Bill in Parliament by Closing and Guarding Univer-

Budapest. - Nationalist sympathiz 28 inches long. Blue or yellow. Price "Understand those?" he pointed to the 'sprightly polka' or the glamorers in the Hungarlan universities succeeded in keeping all students from 25c the pattern. ous waltz. Little wonder that she ceeded in keeping all students from attending classes as a protest against a bill with numerous clauses, now before Parliament, which would allow an increase in the number of Jewish her looks were one of her few in-students attending these institutions. The same bill when first introduced pulence as is her modern sister. Rosy, last November was the cause of the mon, and she deprived herself of ade- versity, during which a score of Jews were injured and the schools were

The Nationalists occupied all the cle traveling no further than her feet, of the students or Faculty to enter. or the slow, lumbering coach, would They were not molested by the police take her, for the revolution of trans- because an old regulation prohibits port had hardly begun, and railways police from entering the property of universities.

The bill being debated in Parlia ing hundred years past has brought ment, though it would increase the number of Jewish students very little, "A Modern Girl," than the improve- is bitterly attacked by the National-Perhaps the cruelty can't be helped, ists, many of whom belong to the but at least a little of the chill can be dangerously at the knees. What was only their own destinles, we are told, party of Count Bethlen, whose Cabinbut the destinies of nations, "lie in et presented it. The bill will probably seen to it that the brooder house cided to be musician to the last, and the hands that a little while ago were be passed this week, when there is danger of fresh outbreaks among the chicks are ready for it,

Kaiser's Old Home Decays

Has Disappearing Floor Berlin-The threatening decay of Paris-A fortress with a most the "Neues Paiais" near Potsdam, guardso the gold of the Bank of the ex-Kalser's former residence, was reported by government building ex-"Even the American bankers adperts on their annual round of inspection. As the work of restoration Deep in the cellars of the last-built called fo pompt action, this historical branch of the bank, is an old, aristo- landmark of the Potsdam environs cratic palace, there is always an arm- has been temporarily closed to the ed sentinel with orders to let no one public.

Berlin.—The running schedule for Germany's first Pullman train, which owners. will be put into service on May 15,

Wild Geese

hold to my heart when the goes going comrade to wild birds of the air. knowing must stay-But O, that quivering line of beauty' way! -Grace Noll Crowell.

Wilson Publishing Company

11/2 yards 54inch. Price 20c the pat-

1512 inches long, two narrow borders

Our Fashion Book, illustrating the newest and most practical styles, will he of interest to every home dressmaker. Price of the book 10c the copy. HOW TO ORDER PATTERNS.

ly, giving number and size of such patterns as you want. Enclose 20c in stamps or coin (coin preferred; wrap it carefully) for each number and address your order to Pattern Dept., sity in a small and circumscribed circumscri

> Interally and figuratively, the world ill seem a cold and cruel one to baby chicks which emerge from their shells during the earliest weeks of spring, suddenly he heard a rending sound taken off, if the poultry grower has he to do, be man or musician? He de- photo will take turns at the real equipment is in good order when the so he bravely carried on. His bravery

February is designated as a good pipe; secure plenty of good grade coal, such as was very hard to get the stove a couple of days before the chicks are put in the brooder house; test fuel pipes and wicks of oil stoves Pullman Service for Germany ture development of chicks and the profit which they will return to their wavering wedge on the high, bright tighten my lips to keep from crying

Beautiful birds, let me go with you! And at night when they honk-and their wings are weaving A pattern across a full gold moon-

If it were freed to fly too soon. hold to my heartt that would be

Where it is going-and never carensylvania Railroad were derailed on I hold to my heart—for here lies duty the meadows just outside Kearny, N. And here is the path where my feet

Beating its beautiful, bright-winged,

A NEW BLOOMER DRESS. This charming little bloomer dress has a square neck, and short kimono sleeves, or long sleeves attached and gathered to narrow wrist-bands A shirred set-in frill in the front pro- cover with cold water and sonk over vides for the necessary fulness, and night. Bring to the boiling point, rethe back is in one piece. Both views move from the fire and drain. Reare trimmed with an attractive cross-move the pits and allow the prunes stitch design. The bloomers have to dry. Fill each prune with a salted elastic run through the top and leg pecan meat and dip in melted chococasings. The dress is No. 1550 and is late. Let stand until the chocolate in sizes 2, 4, 6 and 8 years. Size 4 has diled and then wrap in waxed requires 2 yards 36-inch material, or paper.

Write your name and address plain-

Get Ready For Chicks

brooder stove, replacing any broken cover of which Sir Thomas was able or worn out parts; test the thermo- to hobble from the platform with one stat with heat to see that it operates trousers leg sagging over his shoe but the air intakes and checks; replace with his honor both as man and muany broken or rusted sections of stove last year when it was wanted; start Comfortable quarters in the very earliest days means much in the fuhas been made up. The train will Little Mary, who had fallen ill, begat a meeting of the University of passings, and the fact that much stone at Rotterdam Ameterdam an operation was necessary for the The farmers much farmers that is over land, the strain Utrecht, Diusburg, Dusseldorf, Colo-child's cure, and that she must go their affairs in a businesslike way," gne, Mainz, Mannheim. Carlsruhe, to the hospital. The mother promised he continued, "and the old system of Caretaker: "This room, sir, is sup- found. As Mary was recovering from posed to be aunted by a man in a the influence of the anaesthetic the kilt." Prospective Tenant: "I'll soon nurse heard her muttering:-"It's a get rid of him. I'll fix up a collect rotten way to get a kitten."

The colour and exquisite flavour of "SALADA"

Green Tea are natural—Only the process of curing is different from Black lea Both are equally pure "SALADA" Green lea is scaled in air-tight aluminum fresh colicious—satisfying— 38c per 3-lb. at all gracers. Ask for this tea.

GREEN TEA ===

More Home-Wade Candies

To make stuffed prunes select large prunes, wash thoroughly and let sould in cold water for two hours. Remove the stones and dry the prunes on clean cloth. Fill centres with nuts only, fondant and nuts, candied fruit or preserved ginger. Roll in granu lated sugar. Stuffed Fige.

13 pound dried figs, 12 cup orange which has been sifted. Shape into uice, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 teaspoon emon. juice, Maraschino cherries, Pecan meats. Mix the orange juice, Jemon juice and sugar and cook the figs very slowly in the liquid, turning and basting them often, until they are tender. Drain, cool, open and stuff each fig with two maraschino chorries cut in halves and five pecan meats, broken. Close, press into shape and roll in powdered sugar.

Date Sweets. I pound dates, 14 cup walnut meats, tablespoons candled ginger. Stone the dates and put them through a food, chopper. Add the walnuts and ginger, coarsely chopped. Encad the mixture on a sugared board and shape into a roll. Cut in thin slices with a knife and roll the slices in powdered ugar. .

Chocolate Dates. Stone choice dates and steem them for five minutes. Remove from the steamer and when cool enough to handle close each date firmly. . When cold, coat with sweet chocolate. As a variation the centres may be filled with a quarter of an English walnut or with a bit of candied ginger. .. French Date Bonbons.

Stone large dates and steam illem for five minutes. When they are cool stuff them with fondant. Cut pistachio nut meats in halves and press two or three pieces into the fondant of each date so that the nut meats show. Almonds, blanched and toasted, may be used in other dates. Place each date in a paper bonbon cup .

Chocolate Prunes. wash choice prunes thoroughly,

There is an aimost infinite variety of combinations possible in dipping The Transfer Design No. 1163 has candies from plain nuts to elaborate order, each centers of creams and nougal. These

Loss of Trousers Threatened ·Beecham During Con-

London .- To be directing a valt orchestra vigorously before a critical! audience, and thus employing both hands, and to do all this with an unpleasant consciousness that one's suspenders had broken and his trousers were coming down-that was not a nightmare but the actual experience of Sir Thomas Beecham at Carnegie

Sir Thomas was putting all his wonted fire into a fortissimo passage when and felt his trousers beginning to sag root was rewarded.

The tremendous finale was followed month to: Examino and overhaul the by an outburst of applause, under sician narrowly preserved.

Would Put Farming

ness end of farming as in any other first 15 link in Great Britain pro phase of agriculture," affirmed Hon. jeete John S. Martin, Minister of Agricul cause ture for Ontarlo, in an address made ered, the weeks consumed in steam "The farmers must learn to manage expensed to pay from the start. the firshe were very brave she should everybody rushing his produce on to have the very finest kitten to be the market at once, and thereby caust the large store was crowded, and that ing a glut, must come to an end. Co the positionts were very busy. Come operative marketing is the ideal to up to part of the counter-hand, a florid ward wolch ail energies should be worked recipes are for simple centres but hey make very attractive confec-Chocolate Delights. cup butter, 11/2 pounds confeconers' sugar, % ounces (about 11/3 cops) cocoa. Wash and cream the hitter, add the confectioners' sugar gradually and then add the cocoa alls, coat with melted sweet charge to and roll in cocoa.

Mocha Chocolates. 22 pound butter, 24 pound confecfemers' sugar, 12 cup cocon, 2 table. spoons coffee extract. Cream the butr-use unsalted butter, if possible eand add the confectioners. radually. Then add the cores and the coffee extract. Add he go, 1 ager mocessary to make the might entry mough to handle and that to halls.

pat with sweet chocolair, Pistachio Checolater. Flavor fondant with perfect of extact made by combining himmand mond extracts and his mone arth cup (one owners of blanched stachio nuts. Roll imo lati. . .... th sweet chocolate; springle the p of each county with chipped the goon as it is couled. Almond Acorns. Blanch the desired care. onds. Melt a little grow dipole, colate over hot water, we the of the fingers dip the chand to the chocolate, a carine live the e than two hirds of the way ren. Dip them immediately into pped pistachio mits. Phase at a paper to div. Grilled Almonds. Panch one cup of almost had my thoroughly. Bell the cap of with the same amount of water Mil reaches 234 degrees or largeds the tip of a spoon. Add the alils and let simmer, etirific, freilly, until they turn a yellow ch cofor. Remove from the fire beg, and stir vigor asty m. . the Honey Fruit Squares. pound dessignated coreans 1 I strained honey, to care we ned ants, milli. Cover the cover of milk and let it stend it a low ies. Cook the hone; and if add the cocognit, and communication ing until to be very thick Then in the currents and poor into a

Saved the Day!

cert There

Hall in New York during his recent American tour.

According to what he told friends,

On Business Basis and

"We are as far below in the busi-

Air-Liners With Diners

tin. When cold, out girdiners built for the British isl airways service from Loro India will carry gook-sigwards spare and serve meals en torte. are told in Popular Medianics. new planes, giant three-motored boats, have all the latest flying niences, we are told, and the ped to land on the sca, if no. ... We read:

ex are to be used on the final of the England-to-India town ng Persia and the sea. The dy eats are of allimetel construcwith a wing-span of ninety-three ad weigh nine tons londed. The seats for fifteen passengers in a cabin, and carry a crew of including the pilot and a feli-! and supervise the navidation, Go cook-steward. Each and is on its back, with a folding tray that can be raised to reco ssenger in the next sent to the The passengers will rice on lean back against air, for both shions are of rubber, inflated The fare so arranged that in case of an de rrepey lending at sea, the pacan rise, don his reat custions fully equipped with a life pro The flying-boats have a speed miles an hour with their theen s, totalling 1,500 horse power, arry enough gasoline to arrive les at cruising poord. London-to-India air-line is the Mair service to Australia.

the

1031

air

Then, with two dollars left of the five I had received from Weinberg, I are so certain of the safety of their climbed more easily this time than treasure that they are willing that burglars should know where France fast and mend your own clothes?"

The one you sold me last school, and are working in harmony it. Ween she replied: "That doesn't about an improved state of affairs." I torn of some other lady."

the enormous distances datives. Get all the i can on the subject, but experience will be you You will undoubted mistakes and suffer me ing disappointments, h you will be learning. first year you will rate four birds, but don't ') aged. Remember the raise were traded for they are not a totable By observation atwill slowly but save many fundamentals alone can bring for

to success.

Canary Bro

To the beginner I

funcy aristocrats alo

chelr humble cousins,

a greater chance of an

ing, for plainer birds ;

more prolific than the Canarles breed time of the year w. ment, and, handling, breeding season ran up until July This most profitable way to raise birds . with three felin cage as you care, of an orange or le right size. A. W.C. the breeding car fore the femalhy so dolng if and you will for results. Mier wour long senough Frant placing a cotton in the up and ear know that materia! to . spiggest that makes, visig Square and 1 & debre Sion La a rquary p When Sa one villea i nost and the ed with such

The day. her own in. flows that and the age come chil Marg confront Freaki h ; their i paraling of contain. as a both lay other for! altting there birds, one, while edge and will no woold give h did not know empectally wi Castoria wid and end always until overything That's the he centle infly no needed. At disc might accomplist It's delicious! table, you can prothere's a sign of ... al sleep. Just one warnte Fletcher's Castoria recommend. Other pic be just as free from aruss, but no child of to going to test them! ... book on care and feeding

Children Cr

that comes with Fletche

is worth its weight in go

PURITY FLOID BEST FOR ALL YOUR BAKING - Pies, Cakes, Buns and Bread - DOES ALL YOUR BAKING