Find "Fruit-a-tives" of Great Benefit

MRS. O. GODIN.

Pagetville, N.B.—"I am living this testimental, hoping it will benefit every woman suffering as I did at the change of life. I was obliged to go to bed, had terrible dizziness and felt extremely weak. 'Fruit-a-tives' were really a Godsend to me. Now I am in perfect health."

—Mrs. Onesie Godin.

This stage of life takes heavy toll of man's health unless stomach, kidneys and heart are in first-class condition. "Fruit-a-tives" is a natural, gentle way, keeping the whole system toned up to withstand this trying experience. Made from the intensified juiciness of ripe, fresh fruit and health-building tonics. 25¢ and 50¢ a box at all drug stores.

This and That*By the Janitor.

"It's not good for man to live alone and this is leap year, girls."

Warm weather at this time of year generally means more water and in the summer time, less.

A man should regulate his life so that when he dies his friends will be able to say something good of him.

It takes a lot of persuasion to convince some people that the only way to advance is to go ahead.

Co-operation is the agent of advancement but is hampered in its efforts by selfish individuals.

There are a lot of turns and twists in the journey through life and the fellow who don't take some of them is a mighty good one.

The person who spends time and energy in finding fault with existing conditions and does nothing else is less valuable than the dust raised by an auto.

One of the local bachelors says he's been looking for a good housekeeper for some time but hasn't been able to find one yet. The good ones he thinks are all keeping house for some other men.

We've got our 1928 auto markers and if Bowes, the Chatsworth weather prophet, would predict a little warmer weather for a few days we might get an opportunity to let the neighbourhood see what the new license plates look like.

Be Careful What You Say

In speaking of a person's faults pray don't forget your own. Remember those with homes of glass.

Should seldom throw a stone; If we have nothing else to do than talk of those who sin, 'tis better to commence at home.

And from that point begin, We have no right to judge a man Until he's fairly tried.

Should we not like his company, We know the world is wide.

Some may have faults—and who has not?

The old as well as young, Perhaps we may for aught we know, Have duty to their one.

I'll speak to you a better plan.

And have found it works out well, To try our own defects to cure 'Ere others faults we tell;

And though I sometimes hope to be More than some I know,

My own shortcomings bade me let

The faults of others go.

Then let us all as we begin

To slander friend and foe,

Think of the harm one word may do.

To those we little know,

Remember curses sometimes like.

Our chickens, roost at home;

Don't speak of others faults until

We have none of our own.
