Advent Church, Beaverville
The moving picture entertainment held in the church under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild on Friday evening, March 23rd, was thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience present.

In the absence of the Rector, Rev.
Mr. Dickson, Rev. A. S. Mitchell of Markdale occupied the chair with his usual aptness and ability. Mr. T. S.
Coper the Markdale Agricultural Representative for Gray County was present with his moving picture machine and put on several interesting reels which were previously announced by Rev. A. S. Mitchell.
There was not a dull moment from beginning to finish. Messrs Wm. Hawken and C. Rodman with Mrs. W. A.
Dickie provided instrumental music at intervals which was much enjoyed and well received by Misses Elsie and Viola Murray.
A hearty vote of thanks was given to Mr. T. S. Coper, Mr. Wm. Hawken and C. Rodman for the provision of an appetizing and well prepared supper which was very enjoyable to all present. The proceeds were a little over $100.
