The subject was, "Resolved that men have more leisure hours than women." The affirmative was supported by five ladies as follows: Mrs. S. Wyville, Mrs. Chas. McLean, Mrs. H. Baker, Mrs. Chas. Boland and Miss Nellie Boland. Messrs. F. R. Boland, H. I. Graham, R. Baker, E. Waring and Chas. Boland upheld the negative. The judges were Mrs. F. Davis and Messrs. Will. Radcliffe and Howard McGee. They decided that the men had the best delivery but as the ladies, during their leisure hours, had gathered volumes of material, they were able to prove to the satisfaction of the judges that they had fewer leisure hours than men and were awarded the victory by a small margin. Community singing was a feature of the meeting, the ladies leading off with "Everybody works but father." The men responded in splendid form with "Nobody works but father." "The poor old man" and "What's the matter with father, he's alright." Mr. Frank Davis occupied the chair. At the next meeting on April 23rd, the club will put on a play, "The Obstinate Family," on which they have been playing for some time. Besides the play, other good program will be provided and Mr. F.
