County and District

Meaford has a "Jack, the Huggler." Orangeville Horticultural Society has over three hundred members.

While scuffling in a Mt. Forest garage two boys broke a large plate glass window.

Tara's half holiday will be Thursday and stores will be open Wednesday and Saturday nights.

Two cars loaded with gravel left the track at Mt. Forest station and did considerable damage.

Shelburne Council will erect "Stop Signs" at the intersections leading into the main thoroughfares.

Durham town hall which was recently re-modeled was re-opened last week. Their new post office is still un-opened.

Patrick Shaw, a former reeve of Proton Township, died from injuries received when he was struck by a train in Vancouver, where he had resided for some years.

Mrs. Harriett Harrgrave died at Angus on April 19th, aged about 90 years. She was one of the Madill family who lived in the Maxwell district for a great many years.

The Law Construction Company has commenced work on the provincial road between Thornbury and Collingwood. This is part of the highway from Owen Sound to Toronto via Meaford, Collingwood and Barrie.

An early morning fire in Meaford on Tuesday, April 24, which completely destroyed J. A. Loudry's garage and a blacksmith shop owned by Major Cyril Lewis, caused damage estimated at over $12,000. Five cars in the garage are of no value beyond junk.

On Monday evening during the excitement caused by the wreck of the gravel train, Mr. Robert Barton, who lives near the C.N.R. station, while crossing the tracks, was seized with a weak spell and fell on the tracks right in the way of an approaching caboose. The young man running across the track found him there and rescued him in the nick of time. — Mt. Forest Confederate.

The remarkable instinct of a dumb animal was forcibly brought home to Horace Haws of Orton just recently. On March 1st he shipped a ten-month-old hound pup to a purchaser at Cayuga, Ont., a distance of over 100 miles. Upon arrival at that point it escaped from the shipping crate, and fifteen days later arrived back at Orton, little the worse for its lonely trip on foot. Mr. Haws promptly communicated with the purchaser at Cayuga and again shipped the animal to that point. — Grand Valley Star and Vidette.

Lost—A Boy

Not kidnaped by bandits and hidden in a cave to weep and starve and raise a nation to frenzied searching. Were that the case, one hundred thousand men would rise to the rescue if need be. Unfortunately the losing of this lad is without dramatic excitement, though very sad and very real.

The fact is, his father lost him. Being too busy to sit with him at the fireside and answer his trivial questions. During the years when fathers are the only great heroes of the boys, he let go his hold.

Yes, his mother lost him. Being much engrossed in her tea, dinners and club programmes, she let the maid hear the boy say his prayers and thus her grip slipped and the boy was lost to his home.

Aye, the Church lost him. Being so much occupied with sermons for the wise and elderly, who pay the bills and have good care for dignity the minister and elders were unmindful of the human feelings of the boy in the pew and made no provision in the sermon or song or mainly sport for his boyishness. And so the Church and many sad-hearted parents are now looking earnestly for the lost boy.—The School Index—The Christian Advocate.

Walters Falls

(Held over from last week.) Mr. Richard Quinton held quite a successful sale of farm stock and implements last Friday.

BORN—On Thursday, April 19th, to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Carmichael, the gift of a son.

Mr. Chas. Wright is now working for Dr. Norton in Owen Sound.

Miss Nellie Rennie returned home last week after several weeks spent with Mrs. A. Carbert of Holland.

A large number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Della Rennie presented them with a miscellaneous shower last Wednesday evening, at the Hall. The gifts of the shower were very varied, useful and fancy. The evening was pleasantly spent in dancing and cards. Lunch was served about midnight.

Mrs. Greenhalgh and family left on Saturday for Thornton where they will make their home.

Mr. Chas. Wright recently purchased the stable near the Orange Hall from Mrs. W. Menary, and had some men pulling it down on Monday of this week. It has had a decided lean for the last few years and looked as though it would topple over with the first strong wind. We understand Mr. Wright is using the lumber to build a woodshed at his residence.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Laycock motored with Mr. and Mrs. J. Long last Friday to attend the funeral of the former's sister-in-law, the late Mrs. R. Laycock, near Owen Sound. Interment taking place at Greenwood cemetery.

At the Institute meeting last Wednesday, Mrs. R. H. Olmstead had on exhibit the pillow slips and samples made by the girls' sewing class.

Thirteen girls met every Saturday and sometimes oftener, at Mrs. Olmstead's home from the 20th of January until Easter. Each girl made a pillow slip with rick-rak insertion and a sample of various stitches and buttonholes. They were judged by the Institute members. Mrs. Olmstead donated two prizes for slip and samples, for girls twelve and over which was awarded to Mildred Pleurd and two prizes for girls under twelve, Edna Dixon getting the junior prize for the sampler and Wilfred McDougal (the youngest of the class) the prize for the slip. Mrs. Olmstead also gave the rest of the class a small gift. When the prizes had been awarded the sewing class had the floor for a few minutes when the following address was read:

April 18th, 1923.

Mrs. Olmstead,

We, your sewing class have completed our term. The product of our labours have been finished. Speaking of patience being a virtue, we feel that you have been very virtuous indeed, your kindness during the Saturday afternoons can only be spoken of in superlatives. In sincere appreciation we ask you to accept this memento. The memento took the form of a nice pair of bath towels Mrs. Olmstead very much surprised, thanked the girls in a few well chosen words.

Holland Centre

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Kirkton of Toronto visited in Holland Centre on Saturday last on their honeymoon. We were glad to have had the privilege of congratulating them and wishing them a happy married life.

Mr. J. W. Stoddard has purchased the implement business of Mr. J. J. Richardson and will continue in the old Madill shop. He has been appointed agent for the Cocksbutt line of implements and will carry a full stock of supplies. Mr. Stoddard has had experience in the implement business and, should make good in his latest undertaking.

The Markdale chopping mill has changed hands, Mr. H. F. Chismore having sold to Mr. Albert Kee of Cheltenham who re-sold to Mr. W. M. McQueen, an experienced miller, of Erin. The latter took possession on Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Chismore go to Cheltenham where they take over the Credit Valley Inn.

The A.Y.P.A. of Christ Church were hosts on Monday to the Chatsworth Branch. Following the regular opening office, the visitors were welcomed by the local president, and the evening was spent in games followed by a short musical program and lunch. Rev. John Graham, Rector of Chatsworth and the vice-president of the Chatsworth Branch replied to the welcome of the Markdale speaker.

Markdale debaters won the final in groups one of the Young People's Union of the United Church held in Fleeherton on Monday evening last. Dundalk was represented by Miss Elva Russell and Mr. Frank MacIntyre who upheld the negative side of the subject "Resolved that the inventor has contributed more to the happiness of humanity than has the legislator." Markdale was represented by Messrs. Aubrey Postens and Milton Henry who presented arguments enough to get the decision. They are now qualified to go into the District finals where no doubt they will be able to continue to win the laurels.

At the regular meeting of the Holland Council held on Tuesday a by-law was passed abolishing statute labor. David Gardiner, Esq., resigned and was appointed to the position of Road Superintendent. This all came about as a result of the meeting held at Holland Centre on Friday when a majority of those present expressed themselves as favoring the change. It is likely that Deputy-Reeve Stewart will resign and seek election to the higher office but at present nothing definite is known. Latest reports are that Mr. Stewart has resigned as Deputy-Reeve and Mr. Ronald Comber as Councillor, both intending to run for the higher offices. Nominations will take place Friday evening, May 11, at 8 o'clock.

Quite a number responded to the invitation to fish for trout on May first but very few big catches are reported. As usual the big ones all escaped. Some are not aware of the fact that twenty fish or not more than ten pounds is the limit for any one day.

It is surely to be hoped that the community at large will patronize the Old Time Village Quartette concert in Annesley Church Thursday evening, May 10th. A really first class concert cannot be brought to Markdale unless with the support of all music lovers.

James Manney of the slovenly line, Euphrates, had a white wyan-dotte pullet which is just a little bit different to the usual run, in that she swims. The other day when it was time to return to the roost instead of walking around a pond which was between her and the hen-house, she waded right into the water, swam across and shook the water from her feathers when she landed on the other side. Perhaps she's preparing for the exhibition swim in Toronto.

The Ladies Guild of Christ Church gave a musicale at the home of Mrs. I. B. Lucas Jr. on the evening of Tuesday, the 24th. It was a financial success as well as being a real musical treat.
