Y. P. S.

A splendid Missionary program was presented at the Y.P.S. last Monday evening which had been prepared by Miss Gladys Breese. The President, Robt. Halliday, was in the chair. A very appropriate poem was read: "The Village Blacksmith." In the business period many matters Auley of Owen Sound spent Friday so Bright" by Mrs. Nuhn and Mrs. were taken up. It was decided to with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Baird. close the series at the end of May. An invitation to Keady Society for May 28th was also discussed. It was decided that the social evening should close the meetings.

With regard to the Summer School to be held July 10th to 17th, it was agreed that delegates should be chosen at the next meeting.

The missionary topic, "The Black-"mith's Hammer," was most ably and nterestingly presented by Miss Lillian Wardrop.
